Inventions and Improvements.

A MACHINE has been erected in the city of Baltimore for the purpose of COLORING HATS, by the operation of which is saved half the time, half the fuel, one-third of the die stuff, and nine-tenths of the labour, with a number of other advantages, all of which, the subscriber pledges himself to make appear on investigation. As this machine has been a matter of investigation, and by impartial judges declared to be effectual, he feels himself bound to make every effort to prove its efficacy to all those who may still have any doubts. It must be to the interest of the hatters in the United States, to adopt this mode of colouring, which will do away the most disagreeable part of that branch of business.

HENRY M'COY

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has taken, for a term of years, that well known tavern, formerly kept by Mr. Spurrier, 14 miles from Baltimore, on the mail road, leading to the city of Washington.

The convenience and superior situation of this stand is well known throughout this state. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is pleasantly situated on the cross-roads, leading to Annapolis and Frederick-town, and obvious to the accommodation of travellers, &c.

Henry M'Coy begs leave to solicit the patronage of his friends and the public, and assures them that every thing, on his part, shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation. July 18. eo1m

For Sale,

A TRACT of LAND in Baltimore county, containing about six hundred acres; 4 hundred of which are supposed to be in wood. On this tract there is a handsome piece of meadow, and a young thriving apple orchard. This land is about 28 miles from the city of Baltimore, and not far from Colonel O'Donnell's country residence purchased of Mr. William Buchanan.

Also,

A TRACT of LAND containing about three hundred acres, about 14 miles from the city of Baltimore, west of Randall's town. On this last mentioned tract there is a stone dwelling house, just finished, with convenient cellars, two rooms and a passage on the first floor, three rooms and a passage on the second floor, and a garret; a new stone stable, corn house and coach house; an overseer's house with two rooms, lately repaired at the expence of two hundred dollars; kitchen and other out houses, an excellent apple orchard, with other good fruit trees, and a good garden.

On both places there is water, not exceeded in the county; and good clover lots. No place can exceed them in respect of health. There is a proportionate part of woodland on the last place.

I will permit the purchasers to seed the ensuing fall, or I would seed for them. The dwelling house on the last mentioned farm might be immediately taken possession of by the purchaser. Presuming that no person will purchase without viewing the premises, I do not go into detail.

Both of the above places are convenient to mills: there is a mill not more than a quarter of a mile from the last mentioned place; a good neighborhood, and the Episcopal and Presbyterian churches within five miles. An indisputable title will be given on the payment of the purchase money.

In Council, Annapolis, May 16, 1805.

Ordered, That the act to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals, be published twice in each week, for the space of three months in the Maryland Gazette at Annapolis; the American, Telegraphe and the Federal Gazette at Baltimore; the National Intelligencer; the Republican Advocate and Bartgis's paper at Frederick-Town; Greeves's paper at Hagers-Town, and in Smith's and Cowan's paper at Easton. By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk.

AN ACT

To provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and forms of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals.

BE it enacted by the general assembly of Maryland, That this state shall be divided into six judicial districts in manner and form following, to wit: St. Mary's, Charles and Prince George's counties, shall be the first district; Cæcil, Kent, Queen-Anne's and Talbot counties, shall be the second district; Calvert, Anne-Arundel and Montgomery counties, shall be the third district; Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties, shall be the fourth district; Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, shall be the fifth district; Baltimore and Harford counties shall be the sixth district; and there shall be appointed, for each of the said judicial districts, three persons of integrity and sound legal knowledge, residents of the state of Maryland, who shall previous to and during their acting as judges, reside in the district for which they shall respectively be appointed, one of whom shall be styled in the commission chief judge, and the other two associate judges, of the district for which they shall be appointed; and the chief judge, together with the two associate judges, shall compose the county courts in each respective district; and each judge shall hold his commission during good behavior, removable for misbehavior on conviction in a court of law, or shall be removed by the governor, upon the address of the general assembly, provided that two-thirds of all the members of each house concur in such address; and the county courts, so as aforesaid established, shall have, hold and exercise, in the several counties of this state, all and every the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, which the county courts of this state now have, use and exercise, and which shall be hereafter prescribed by law; and the said county courts established by this act shall respectively hold their sessions in the several counties at such times and places as the legislature shall direct and appoint, and the salaries of the said judges shall not be diminished during the period of their continuance in office.

II. And be it enacted, That in any suit or action at law hereafter to be commenced or instituted in any county court of this state, the judges thereof, upon suggestion in writing by either of the parties thereto, supported by affidavit or other proper evidence, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county court of the county where such suit or action is depending, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or action to be transmitted to the judges of any county court within the district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record shall be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein; provided, nevertheless, that such suggestion shall be made as aforesaid before or during the term in which the issue or issues may be joined in the said suit or action; and provided also, that such further remedy may be provided by law, in the premises, as the legislature shall from time to time direct and enact.

III. And be it enacted, That if any party prefented or indicted in any of the county courts of this state, shall suggest in writing to the court in which such prosecution is depending, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such adjoining county court shall hear and determine the same in the same manner as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein: provided, that such further and other remedy may be provided by law in the premises as the legislature may direct and enact.

IV. And be it enacted, That if the attorney-general, or the prosecutor for the state, shall suggest in writing to any county court, before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the state cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein.

V. And be it enacted, That there shall be a court of appeals, and the same shall be composed of the chief judges of the several judicial districts of the state, which said court of appeals shall hold, use and exercise, all and singular the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, heretofore held, used and exercised, by the court of appeals of this state, and also the appellate jurisdiction heretofore used and exercised by the general court; and the said court of appeals hereby established, shall sit on the western and eastern shores for transacting and determining the business of the respective shores, at such times and places as the future legislature of this state shall direct and appoint, and any three of the said judges of the court of appeals shall form a quorum to hear and decide in all cases pending in said court; and the judge who has given a decision in any case in the county court, shall withdraw from the bench upon the deciding of the same case before the court of appeals; and the judges of the court of appeals may appoint the clerks of said court for the western and eastern shores respectively, who shall hold their appointments during good behavior, removable only for misbehavior on conviction in a court of law; and in case of death, resignation, disqualification or removal out of the state, or from their respective shores, of either of the said clerks in the vacation of the said court, the governor, with the advice of the council, may appoint and commission a fit and proper person to such vacant office, to hold the same until the next meeting of the said court; and all laws passed after this act shall take effect, shall be recorded in the office of the court of appeals of the western shore.

VI. And be it enacted, That all and every part of the constitution and form of government which relates to the court of appeals and the general court, or the judges thereof, or that is in any manner repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated and annulled, upon the confirmation hereof; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to authorise the removal of the clerks of the respective county courts, being in commission at the time of the passing of this act, in any other mode or manner than that prescribed by the constitution and form of government.

VII. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alterations and amendments of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing in the said constitution and form of government to the contrary, notwithstanding. Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from Mrs. H. L. Maund, who lives at Nomony-Hall, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on or about the 10th ult. a Mulatto Man, a slave, who was her gardener, named SAM, but sometimes calls himself Sam Lane. He is about 40 or 45 years old, about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high. He had on a blue short jacket, and yellow cassimere breeches, and may have other clothing, which are not recollected so as to be described. He is excessively fond of ardent spirits, and when drunk very quarrelsome; generally wears his hair tied in a queu. He is a good kitchen gardener; he can also make shoes. It is very probable that he will change his name, and obtain the pass of some free negro, and endeavor to get to sea. The above reward will be paid to the person who secures him in any jail, so that I can get him again, and reasonable charges, if brought to Oatland's, near Leesburg, Loudoun county, Virginia.
