One hundred dollars Reward.

RAN away on Sunday morning, the 4th instant, three NEGROES, viz. one dark mulatto man, named Isaac, about 32 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high; well made, active and stout; is a good farmer, and has taken with him a variety of summer and winter apparel; has a number of scars on his right arm, near the wrist, occasioned by a white swelling.
Jacob, a bright mulatto man, about 6 feet high; a straight well-made, likely fellow—Took with him a variety of summer and winter cloathing, but particularly, a bottle green cloth coat, with striped olive corduroy pantaloons.
Sarah, a very black and strong-made negro woman, about 24 years of age, very likely, and has dimples in her cheeks when she laughs; has left her infant child, about six months old, behind her. She took with her a variety of cloathing, among which were a calico jacket with blue sprigs, and a black stuff petticoat.—Isaac and Jacob were born and raised near the city of Annapolis, and were formerly the property of Mr. John Hesselius. Sarah was raised in Virginia, ran away from thence, and was purchased out of Annapolis jail—and is the wife of Jacob. Twenty dollars will be paid for each of the above negroes, if taken up within this state and lodged in jail; and thirty dollars for each, if taken up out of this state; or the above reward of one hundred dollars for the whole of them, if taken up out of the state of Maryland and brought home, together with all reasonable expences, paid by JAMES WHARFE,
At the Red-Lion tavern, about 13 miles from the city of Baltimore, on the Philadelphia post road.
N. B. All persons are cautioned against harboring or carrying them off, as the law will be most rigidly enforced.
