To be Leased,

THAT very valuable PROPERTY, beautifully situated on the east side of Jones' falls, adjoining the residence in the city, of Harry D. Gough, esquire. It contains on Front-street nearly 180 feet, and extends back to the falls about the same distance, agreeably to a plot of the same made by Mr. Bouldin. The whole front on the falls is permanently secured with large logs, where there is a sufficient depth of water to admit scows or other flat-bottomed vessels to lie alongside the wharf. It is as fine high, dry, healthy situation, as perhaps any in this city; affords excellent water; and from its situation can never be injured by the rising of the water in the falls.—This property is most unquestionably among the first situations in the city for a brewery, distillery, any kind of manufactory, or for private building. Apply to Owen Dorsey, esq. near the court-house, or to the subscriber, living at the upper end of Pratt-street.
RICHARD CURSON, Jun.

Valuable Property for Sale.

To be disposed of at Public Sale, on MONDAY, the 21st day of October next, at 11 o'clock, on the premises,
THAT valuable FARM whereon Henry H. Carroll, deceased, lately resided. It contains eight hundred acres, lying in Baltimore county, on the middle York road, 16 or 17 miles from the city of Baltimore. On this tract there are at least 350 acres of valuable timber and wood. The arable land is divided into eleven fields, exclusive of grass lots, all of which are well inclosed with good fences of chesnut rails. The meadows are in high order, and produce about forty tons of timothy hay, and more may be made, which, with the addition of clover, renders it a valuable grazing farm. The whole of the above farm is well watered, and the soil adapted to clover and the use of plaister. The Dwelling consists of a large brick building, convenient and in good repair, with an excellent garden and orchards, containing various kinds of the best fruits, from the nursery of Prince, of New-York, and others, the greatest part of which are young, and now bearing. There is also an excellent barn, stables, sheds, and every necessary out-building. The terms are, one-third cash, on the day of sale; one-third in one year thereafter; and the remaining third in two years from the day of sale. Bonds bearing interest will be required Conveyance of the land will be made when the whole amount is paid. A quantity of wheat will be sown on the farm, which must be paid for at a fair price. Possession can be had in a few weeks.
Immediately after the sale of the land, will be sold,
A valuable stock of HORSES, among which are some valuable blooded brood Mares and Colts; a good stock of HORNED CATTLE, and SHEEP, together with many valuable Implements of Husbandry. The terms are, for all sums under one hundred dollars, cash; for sums above that amount, bonds bearing interest, payable in twelve months.——The land may yet be had at private sale; and should a sale take place, due notice will be given.
DANIEL CARROLL, (of Dud'n.)
Executor.

NORFOLK, September 20.

The following ordinance I have just received from the Danish consul-general, with a request that it might be published.
FRANCIS S. TAYLOR,
Danish vice-consul for the state of Virginia.
Norfolk, 20th September.

Directing that Danish masters of vessels, sailing from North-American ports for Europe, shall provide themselves with certificates of health, from the Danish consul or vice-consul, at the place of lading.

COPENHAGEN, May 15, 1805.

We Christian the Seventh, by the grace of God, king of Denmark, Norway of the Wends and Goths, duke of Sleswick, Holstein, Stormarn, and of the Dithmarshes, also of Oldenburg, &c. &c. Make known by these presents: Whereas, by the establisment of a complete quarantine regulation, we have taken care to secure our realms and dominions against the danger, to be feared from pestilential epidemic disorders; so it is likewise our most gracious pleasure, that commerce and navigation should enjoy every alleviation, which may be consistent with the important ends of these regulations. And whereas the great distance and the extensive coasts of the United States of North-America, require particular measures of precaution, to be assured of the health of the places, from whence vessels may arrive in our ports, if all the severity of the quarantine laws, shall not in every instance be applied to them—We found ourselves induced, most graciously, to ordain as follows, to wit:

I. The consuls, appointed by us in the ports of the United States of America, and by the vice-consuls subordinate to them, shall be obliged to supply all vessels of our subjects, which are destined to depart from the ports of their respective districts for Europe, after strict investigation, besides the bills of health, issued by the proper authorities, with a particular certificate, whereby the state of health of the place, at the time when the vessel was lying there in lading, may be known with certainty; for which purpose, particular forms, according to which these certificates are to be made out, shall be forwarded to them.

II. Every one of our subjects, commanding a vessel, who is destined to sail with the vessel commanded by him, from any North-American port to any seaport in our or other European states, shall be obliged to demand such a certificate from our consul or vice-consul at the place from whence he commences his voyage; under penalty of paying a fine of fifty rix dollars, which shall go to our quarantine establishment.

III. Whereas our consuls and their vice consuls in the ports of the United State of North-America are empowered, whe thereunto required, to grant similar pas
