IMPORTANT.

Mr. Hammond and Mr. Holmes, passengers in the ship Susan and Sarah, captain Marner, from Bordeaux, came to town on Tuesday last. The latter gentleman informs us, that the Susan and Sarah arrived at Newport on Thursday night, from Bordeaux, which place she left the 10th September. He also communicates the following important intelligence:

150,000 Russians were on their march for Italy; and all the troops in the South of France were marching to meet them. That the French troops had taken Venice and Naples; that the army of England had left Boulogne in three divisions, and that one division had passed Lisle on the 3d of September, on its way to the frontiers. Austria was expected to take a decided part, as was also Prussia. The former had an army of 300,000 men ready to act, and sixty millions of florins in the treasury. There was no doubt of an immediate war with France, against Austria, Russia, Sweden, and the Porte. Bonaparte had returned to Paris from the coast. Our minister at Paris had declared, that the differences between Spain and the United States, looked favorable towards an accommodation.

The combined fleets were at Cadiz, and the Brest fleet in port, blockaded.

Since the above was prepared, the ship Louisiana, capt. Thompon, arrived at this port, in 36 days from Bordeaux, bringing intelligence that the invasion of England was all over—Bonaparte having taken his troops from the coast with him to Italy, which is now to be the seat of war.

The emperor of Russia, king of Sweden, and emperor of Germany, had declared war against France.

We have received by the Louisiana, Bordeaux papers to the 12th September, but could not get them translated in time for this day's Gazette.

Arrived, ship Louisiana, Thompson, in 36 days from Bordeaux. The ship Thomas, Gardner, was to sail for New-York, the next day. Spoke, October 3, in lat. 41, 42, long. 48, 7, brig Venus, from Charleston, for Amsterdam.

Also, the ship William Penn, Hussey, in 50 days from Liverpool. Passengers, Messrs. William Jackson, I. H. Schmidt, A. B. Lyde, J. Maiban, G. Dowbiggen and G. Antrobrus. Spoke, October 3, in lat. 43, long. 45, the ship American, from Belfast, for New-York. In the Irish Channel, Sept. 14, the ship Sarah and Eliza, Holland, from Liverpool for New-York. 28th, in sight of Cape-Clear, the ship Patty, of Boston, 4 days from Waterford, for Philadelphia.

Also, the ship Palmyra, Whitney, of Providence, in 18 days from Havana. Met, going into Havana, ship Semiramis, of Newport, with the loss of her main and mizenmasts. Left, ship Tyre, of Providence, to sail in 15 days.

Also, schr. Delight, Warren, of Hartford, in 20 days from Turk's-Island. Left no American vessels.

Also, the ship Nancy, from Bordeaux, (mentioned yesterday). August 25, lat. 45, 27, off the Cordovan, was boarded by his majesty's brig Colpoys, lieut. Usher—broke open one letter, otherwise politely treated; she had captured the ship Olive-Branch, Littlefield, of Kennebunk, from Nantz, and had sent her for Plymouth; she had also captured the ship Kingston, Stevens, of Portland, the crew, however, recaptured her, and it was supposed had proceeded for a port in France. August 28, lat. 44, 58, long. 9, 56, spoke ship Asia, of Providence, from Camden, bound to Lisbon, all well.

Cleared, ships Merry Quaker, Johnson, Jamaica; Franklin, Luverburg, Nantz.

The Susan and Sarah, at Newport, from Bordeaux, left the ship Thomas, to sail in 5 or 6 days for New-York. The brig Minerva, from New-York, had arrived in 24 days.

The ship Mary, belonging to Minturn, and Champlin, of this city, on her voyage to Liverpool, was captured and sent into Bilboa—the vessel libelled, tried and condemned, with the cargo.

PHILADELPHIA, October 25.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

No additional returns having been received, Governor M'Kean's majority is as published yesterday, 5803.

A gentleman from Madeira informs us, that the British ship of war Raisonnable of 74 guns, arrived at that island the latter end of August, bearing marks, as they allowed, of the heavy, well-directed fire of the combined fleets, in her masts, sails, and hull, in the action under command of sir Robert Calder. When some of the officers were asked why they did not engage the French a second time, they said it was sir Roberts fault, as he was a little bashful, having been rather roughly handled. After beeing repaired she sailed about the 10th September, as was said, to cruize for the British East-India fleet, which she was to convoy to England.

By the same conveyance we learn, that on the 7th of September the ship Octavia, capt. Leffingwell, of New-York, who arrived at Madeira from Bordeaux, about 12 o'clock at night was discovered to be on fire in the lower hold, supposed to be by the inattention of some drunken sailors, one of whom was smothered to death, and others considerably burnt, as were both hands of the captain, in his endeavors to extinguish the fire. As soon as the fire was discovered, the Raisonnable sent her boats and engine to her assistance, when finding that to scuttle the Octavia was the only mode to save her, the same was effected; but being loaded with wine, she only sunk to her main-deck and thereby extinguished the fire. The next day the Raisonnable hauled alongside the Octavia, raised her, stopped the scuttle, and pumped her out, so that it was thought she might soon be refitted to perform her voyage.

The day previous to captain Mead's leaving the Havana, an order was issued by government, that no vessel was to leave the Havana for any of the out-ports to load, as formerly.

Arrived, ships Rousseau, M'Levan, Embden, 65 days; Cleopatra, Arundle, Liverpool, 68; brig Resolution, Turner, Vera Cruz; schr. Concord, Dill, Point-Petre.

Cleared, ship Fair Lady, Peterson, Amsterdam.

Capt Inglees, of the brig Eliza, from Madeira, informs, that the brig Susanna, capt. Thornton of Baltimore, sailed from thence about the 6th of September, for Baltimore.

Brig Sally, Hughes, sailed from Matanzas the 4th inst. Left there the ships Lavina, Donaldson, and Hannah, Yardsley, of and for this port in 5 days.

NORFOLK, October 22.

Arrived on Saturday, the brig George, captain J. Cox, from Teneriffe, which place he left the 11th ult. The ship William and Mary, captain Tiplin, from this port, was discharging cargo. Schooner Stag, C. Brooks, of and from Boston, had not sold his cargo. Ship Semiramis, sailed on the 6th September, for the Missisippi. September 28, in lat. 32, N. long. 54, spoke brig ——, captain Nat. Allen, from Gonaives, bound to New-York, out 15 days, all well. October 5, lat. 24, long. 61, spoke brig Triton, of Portsmouth, (N. H.) bound to Jamaica, all well. Same day, spoke brig Venus, of New-York, out 14 days. October 8, in lat. 26, 36, N. long. 64, 35, W. fell in with the wreck of a large topsail schooner "of New-York" on her stern, her name ended with C. but being so much under water could not see the beginning; her waist and quarter deck seemed fresh painted yellow; mainmast entirely gone, and partners ripped up; hatches open, could not discern her cargo, but supposed from the hold's being white, that it was flour; picked up her jib-boom and top-mast, steering sail boom quite new, and of spruce pine; nothing standing but foremast and bowsprit; there was a hand-spike lashed in the shrouds with stirrups, supposed to be a resting place for a man, but there was not the appearance of a living person on board; it was so late in the evening that more particulars could not be obtained. Picked up a barrel of flour near the wreck, marked D. 101, fine of Alexandria. Oct. 10, in lat. 28, 30, long. 68, 30, W. spoke the Vengeance, of New-York, a French built ship, out 8 days from St. Bartholomews. October 13, at 6 P. M. was brought too by the British ship Leander, 50 guns, and treated politely—informed that they had captured the Vengeance, of New-York, (the same that I spoke on the 10th) and had sent her to Bermuda for adjudication, as she appeared very suspicious.

Also, ship Glory, Haynes, 14 days from St. Bartholomews. Oct. 11, lat. 27, long. 69, 28, spoke the ship Little Ann, Anniball, 43 days from New-London, bound to Bermuda, with live stock, not being able to find Bermuda, had bore away for Turk's Island. The stock had been 14 days without water, supplied her with a puncheon. The master of the Ann, informed captain H that in lat. 29, 51, he spoke the schooner Ann-Elizabeth, from Petersburg, Virginia, bound to St. Martins, the master then very ill and speechless, had no other navigator on board. October 14, lat. 30, 46, long. 72, 34, was boarded by his Britannic majesty's ship Leander, captain Talbot, presented us with some potatoes and poultry, and very politely treated.

Also, brig Ann-Elizabeth, Williams, 67 days from Malaga.

Also, sloop Richard, Lockert, 19 days from Antigua.

Vessels left to sail in 10 or 12 days:

Schr. Virginia, Blake,	Norfolk
Fair American, Barry,	Alexandria
Harriot, ——,	do.
Little Sarah, Hodge,	New-York
Jefferson, Norton,	Philadelphia
Brig William Gray, Colcord,	Augusta

Several other American vessels names unknown.

Also, schr. Mary Johnson, Bayton, 9 days from Mariel.

Also, brig Ruby, Morrison, 60 days from L'Orient. Sept. 18, in lat. 39, 9, long. 45, 28, was boarded by the British letter of marque ship Scorpion, Dagg, from Botany-Bay, for London, who declared the brig to be a good prize, put all the people in irons—after detaining us 24 hours, we were dismissed; he took one of the sailors, who was a Frenchman. Sept. 30, lat. 39, 17, long. 61, 9, spoke the ship Atalanta, Tucker; from Amsterdam, bound to Baltimore, 60 days out.—October 3, in lat. 29, 35, long. 66, 23, ship Jane, of and from Philadelphia, bound to Bordeaux, 7 days out. October 10, in lat. 36, —, long. 71, 48, ship Ocean, Hinchman, from Norfolk, bound to Marseilles, 5 days out.

Mr. Williams, pilot, has given us the following ship news:

Capt. Williams, of the Antelope, 23 days from Guadaloupe, bound to cape Charles, spoke in lat. 20, 25, long. 63, 18, schooner Harlequin, Cooper, of Baleimore, bouud to Guadaloupe, out 33 days.

On the 5th September, capt Holmes, on his outward passage to Antigua, saw schooner Harlequin, belonging to Baltimore, loaded with flour, bottom upwards.

In Hampton Roads, the United States brig Hornet, captain Chauncey, of 18 guns. We have it from good authority that she is to cruize off St. Domingo.

Also, brig Two Brothers, Hartshorne, 64 days from Bordeaux bound to Baltimore.

ALEXANDRIA, October 25.

Arrived, ship Hero, captain Cole, 42 days from Rotterdam. Sailed in company with ship Leonidas, captain M'Kenzie, of New-York, for Liverpool. Spoke the schooner America, from New-York, bound to Tonningen, out 28 days, all well, abreast of Dover; in lat. 45, 20, long. 28, 30, spoke a barque from Baltimore, 33 days out. Left at Rotterdam, September 3, ship Franklin, captain Welman, of Salem, bound to the East-Indies, to sail in 10 days; William, Hail, of Newburyport, for Liverpool, in 5 days; Octavia, Collins, of Charleston, for London, in 7 days; Hunter, Gold, of and for Baltimore, in 3 days; Native, Peterson, of Bath, in 15 days; ——, Skinner, of New-York, for East-Indies; brig Algol, Barker, of Boston, for Ireland, waiting for a wind; schooner Susanna, Limeburner, of and for Boston, do.
