Extract of a letter from the gentleman who communicated the above information.

"Since the above was written, the schr. Cato returned (about a month since) from New-Orleans bound to Fort Stoddert. She stopped at Mobile, and was instantly seized, and the captain, who is a Frenchman, was thrown into prison; but he gave information unfavorable to the owner of the cargo, and I believe is now liberated.

"The vessel and cargo are still in the hands of the Spanish officers, and it is supposed will be confiscated; though the owner of part of the cargo, Dr. Strong, was altogether unconcerned in her cargo, when she passed down withous calling at Mobile.

"The whole waits the determination of governor Folk, who resides at Pensacola."

BOSTON, November 20.

A committee of the Vermont legislature have reported in favor of Montpellier for the permanent seat of government. No new bank bills have been got through the court.

The North-Carolina amendment against the importation of slaves, has been passed in Vermont. The Kentucky amendment, lessening the power of the courts, has been referred.

Nautical and Shipping Memoranda.

A London paper of the 21st Sept. mentions, that on the 18th, "The John Bull, of 14 guns passed up the channel, with a flotilla of detained neutrals, viz. a galliot with Papenburg colors; a galliot with Bremen colors; a brig with Prussian colors; a ship with American colors; a brig with Hanse Town colors, and a French prize." Have a care, citizen John Bull; though you dance so merrily you should recollect somebody must pay the fiddler.

Captain Daniel Ropes, arrived at Salem on Thursday last, from St. Jago-de-Cuba, was boarded no less than eight times, by vessels of the belligerent powers. Sept. 5th, by a British brig, treated politely; 6th, by a French privateer; had the hatches broken open, &c. and detained 6 hours—14th, by his Britannic Majesty's brig Rein Deer, treated politely; 24th, by a French privateer, had the hatches broken open and detained 6 hours; October 7, by his Britannic Majesty's ship Swift; had the hatches broken open and detained 20 hours; 12th, by a Spanish privateer, detained 20 hours, and carried 20 leagues out of course; 18th, by a Providence privateer, treated politely; 23d, by his B. m's ship Le Andre, and treated politely. Captain R. informs, that when he was boarded by his B. M's. ship Swift, captain Wright, (Oct. 7) she had then in possession the schr. Regulator, Ezra Murray, of New-York, from Grenada, bound to Havana. The Spanish privateer which boarded him, had sent to Campeachy, the schr. Two Brothers, Jordan, from Jamaica, bound to Edenton, N. C.

Inland Navigation.—A raft of 164 hhds. and 600 bbls. was formed at the head of Merrimac river, by Mr. Eben. Eastham, of Salisbury, N. H. and conducted from thence down the river, through slips and over falls, to the head of Middlesex Canal, where 500 bbls. were taken into a boat and conveyed through the Canal to Charlestown—and the remainder, with 164 hhds. continued in a raft to West-Boston, where it was safely delivered to the order of Messrs. Gotting and Lowell.

The ship Moses Myers, Breck, from Gibraltar, for this port, went ashore at Cohasset, during the thick weather, on Friday last. We learn, however, that she is likely to be got off without much damage. The brig Mary and Jane, M'Cobb, from Surrinam, for this port, also went on shore at the same place; but was got off, we understand, without injury.

On the 9th inst. 13 sail of vessels of different descriptions went out of Saco river, for various ports. By a moderate calculation, their cargoes of lumber were equal to 1,150,000 boards.

PHILADELPHIA, November 25.

The report of Friday, respecting lord Nelson and the combined fleets at Cadiz, was fabricated at New-York.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, to his correspondent in this city, dated September 12, 1805.

"In an American detained case, argued this morning, the judge held, "That the "principle laid down in the decision of "the lords of appeal, in the case of the "Essex, Orne, was the principle by which "he should be governed. That when the "mere landing of the cargo took place for "the purpose of prosecuting the continuity "of an intended voyage, from the colonies "to the mother country, it would not be "admitted under the relaxation of the law "of nations; but that there must be shewn "a clear and decisive intention to end the "voyage in America; and that in the "event of cargoes coming forward in the "same conveyance, as they were originally imported in, there must be positive "proof of an actual sale or change of property: or that sales could not be effected, "and therefore it was obliged to be shipped for a market. The time required must "be more between the landing and reshipment, than a mere landing only for the "purpose of reshipping."

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, to his correspondent in this city, dated September 20.

"Several vessels have been brought in here, on the plea or suspicion of an illegal trade, or that neutrals have been carrying on the trade between the mother country and its colonies, of those powers we are at war with, which they are not permitted or sanctioned to do in time of peace. In the last war there was some relaxation in this principle, and of which you will find an accurate statement in the correspondence of Mr. King, the American minister, in the new Annual Register, in 1801—but I am inclined to believe, from some captures or detentions, that the principle will not be relinquished this war—but subject to modifications, according to the state of the case. From the opinions of sir W. Scott, in some recent decisions, American vessels may carry to American ports, and sell and land their cargoes and re-ship them to Europe, without fear of molestaton. Or, if on advertisement, sales cannot be obtained, cargoes may be shiped on to Europe. I do not learn that Mr. Munroe has as yet had any decided reply to his representations on the subject."

Arrived, brig Alexander, Reynolds, Guadaloupe, 20 days; Lydia, Eldridge, New-York, 8; schr. Huntress, Montgomery New-York, 6; Buck, Turner New-York; Harmony, Tunnel, Norfolk; Betsey, Turner, Savannah, 30.

Cleared, ship Charlotte, Horton, St. Thomas; ship Little Cherub, Bruton, Antwerp; Rosanna, Brown Jamaica; brig Eliza, Toby, New-Orleans; Robert and Mary, Israel, Porto Rico; brig Louisa, Maffett, Vera Cruz; schr. Two Brothers, Murray, St. Thomas; sloop Retrieve, Greely, Portland; sloop Diamond, Higgins, Charleston.

The brig Union, Selby, from hence is arrived at Madeira.

CHARLESTON, November 13.

The United States frigate Adams, arrived off the bar yesterday morning, from New-York.

The brig Lioness was captured in the Bay of Matanzas, a few hours after sailing, by the privateers Sarah-Ann and George and Phelia, of New-Providence; all the crew excepting the captain, supercargo and boy, were taken out, and a prize master and 6 men put on board—a few days after they fell in with the British government schooner Decouvert, who impressed one man, and put two others on board the brig in exchange—in consequence of which the prize master refused to continue in charge of the brig, and surrendered her up to captain Carson, who has brought her into this port, to get fresh hands.—The Lioness had been boarded previous to her capture by the privateer Mars, captain Gibson, who suffered them to pass, after a strict examination.

October 25, off the Isle of Pines, capt. Cox was boarded by a French privateer, who robbed him of one puncheon of rum.

Kingston, October 17.

On the 12th current, to the southward of Cape-Nichola-Mole, the David Clark, from Plymouth, was boarded by a French schr. privateer, with one gun on the forecastle and about 70 men, that had chased her from the West Caicos. The marauders took nothing more than a few fowls, but complained much of the treatment they had received from a small fleet of Americans eight or nine in number, from Cape-Francois to Baltimore, which passed them a day or two before, and giving them a few discharges of shot, killed eight or nine men, and wounded several others.

We understand that the Chesterfield packet, which we mentioned some time ago to have been sold by the owner of the privateer that took her, at St. Jago, is at length safely moored at Port Antonio. It is said she was purchased by an American gentleman for 5000 dollars; that 1200 more were expended in repairs, and that she was on her way to the continent, in ballast, when his majesty's ship Franchise fell in with and took posssession of her.

RICHMOND, November 19.

We should presume, that the frigates lately arrived from the Mediterranean and the greatest part of our disposable marine force, will be destined to the neighborhood of the Havana or the mouth of the Mississippi; for we have little doubt, in case of war between Spain and the United States, that a detachment will be sent out from Cuba, and that New-Orleans will be the point of their attack. Relying upon the misrepresented disaffection of the inhabitants, the Spanish court may indulge some unfounded expectations, that this ill disciplined and imbecile detachment may conquer and defend this important post.

The file of New-Orleans papers which we received by yesterday's western mail, contains no more than the following interesting articles, respecting the dispositions made at New-Orleans to meet the probable exigency of the times.

NEW-ORLEANS, October 5.

His excellency governor Claiborne and suite, returned to this city late last evening, from a tour through the counties of German Coast, La Fourche, Acadia, Iberville, Point Coupee, and Concordia—and this morning his arrival was announced by a federal salute. We are happy to have it in our power to state that his excellency has entirely recovered from the fever with which he has been afflicted. [Orleans Gazette]

We are happy to have it in our power to announce the arrival here on Wednesday last, of two companies of United States' troops, commanded by captains Sparks and Bissel. We think that about ten companies more, would be amply sufficient to meet any exigency. [Ibid.]

Yesterday the third election was held, agreeably to public notice, in the first ward, to complete its representation in the first branch of the city council, for the present term. The candidates were, as before, Mr. Henry Stouffer and Mr. Wm. Jessop, who had on the two former trials, an equal number of votes—a circumstance highly novel, and we believe never paralleled in the annals of our city elections. On the close of the poll the votes were, for

Vaccine Inoculating Room.

DOCTOR SMITH having been again successful in preserving the Vaccine Matter through the summer months, is now supplied with that which is fresh and genuine. He continues his Inoculating Room on the same easy terms as published last spring—there being no other charge made, nor any expence whatever incurred, TO BE PERFECTLY SECURED FROM THE SMALL POX, than ONE DOLLAR for each person, paid at the time of inoculation. A particular history is also kept of every case committed to Dr S's care; and he will deliver certificates of their security against the Small Pox, to all those whom he conducts regularly through the Kine Pock. In consequence, however, of the many spurious cases which some times unavoidably occur, he feels himself daily more and more convinced of the necessity of a much more careful attention to those who are vaccinated than has been generally practised. He will not, therefore, permit himself to be considered as responsible for the safety of any person he may inoculate, unless he can perceive sufficient evidence of their having progressed regularly through the genuine Kine Pock, and can deliver to them such certificate as above mentioned.

Dr. S. hopes the public will continue to encourage an institution, which experience has proven to be so essentially useful in preserving the Vaccine Matter, and in extending its benefits in so many directions; and which, also, from the facility, regularity and cheapness with which it admits every inoculation to be conducted, recommends itself to all those who wish to be certain that they no longer remain in any danger of the Small Pox.

Attendance is given at the Inoculating Room in Chatham-street, next door to Owen Dorsey, esquire's, every morning from 8 to 9 o'clock. Dr. S. also vaccinates in private families, and in the country, on the usual terms.

N. B. Practitioners in the city who want Vaccine Matter, may obtain it fresh at time they wish to use it; but those at a distance will please to recollect, that they must pay the postage of their letters, and submit to the charge of one dollar for every attention to their orders.
