For Sale,

THE FARM on which I live, containing between five and six hundred acres of level Land, and well adapted, in general, to receive the plaister of Paris as a manure, on the post road from the City of Washington to Port Tobacco, and about eight miles from Piscataway. On it is every necessary building; plenty of excellent spring water, and a pump at the door; fruit-trees in abundance and great variety, an excellent kitchen-garden; several clover lots; some valuable low meadow ground; and wood and timber to last many years — Persons wishing to purchase, it is presumed, will view the premises previous to any contract, and therefore; further description is unnecessary. If I sell the land, it shall be given up to the purchaser on the 1st January next, and previous to that time I will sell all my moveable property and crop made on it, with some few exceptions.—Being extremely infirm, and unable to manage a farm, my object is to move to some town or city, and spend the remnant of my life in retirement.—The terms of sale will be, one-third of the purchase-money in hand, one-third at the end of twelve months from the day of sale, and the remaining one-third at the end of two years, with legal interest thereon. Bonds, with security, and a lien on the land will be required. GEORGE LEE.

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.

Gentlemen,

BEING solicited by many of my friends, both in City and county, to offer myself a candidate for the office of SHERIFF, I have taken the liberty of soliciting your suffrages at the ensuing election, as I consider myself qualified, (from long experience as assistant to the present and two preceding Sheriffs) to discharge the important duties attached to that office. My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation I am anxious to possess; but if correctness, diligence, and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites, I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against Valuable Property.

Will be Sold at Public Vendue on MONDAY, the 2d day of December next, on the premises,

THAT Valuable Estate (known formerly as Wolgamott's mills) late the property of Nicholas Swingley, deceased, lying in Washington county, state of Maryland, about a mile and an half from the mouth of Conococheague. There are about two hundred acres of land belonging to this estate, on which there is a large stone merchant mill, turned by the Conococheague creek, and also by a small stream which passes through said land. The situation of this mill for business is not equaled by any other in the county. The land is generally of the limestone quality, with an abundance of watered meadow ground. Several large limestone springs thereon. The buildings, except the mill, are of wood, but comfortable.—The terms will be made known on the day of sale, and an indisputable title made to the purchaser.

Baltimore Water Company.

BY the articles of association it is provided, that "The President and Directors shall have power to make application to the legislature of the state, at the next or any succeeding session thereof, for an act of incorporation for the said company, on the principles, and with the powers and privileges expressed in the first article of this association, and with such other powers and privileges as they may think advisable; and to consent, on the part of the company, to such terms and conditions for obtaining the said act, as they shall think proper."

In pursuance of the above recited powers, a petition was presented to the last legislature by the president and directors, accompanied with the draft of an act of incorporation, in conformity with the articles of the association. The law passed by the legislature so materially differs, in many particulars, from the articles subscribed that the president and directors, on mature consideration, do not think it advisable to accept of, or to act under the law, in its present form, or until an alteration thereof can be procured; but in all respects to execute the said articles, as far as they have the means to do so, upon the faith of which individuals have subscribed and paid their money.

The managers of this lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the commissioners appointed for erecting the market-house, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage to that part of the city, and to the country in general; and beg leave to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement.

As the above scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two blanks to a prize, and all prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the lottery is completed, without any deduction, the managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the tickets, as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.

Such prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the market-house.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the managers have given bond to the state of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars for the due performance of the trust.

The Subscriber offers for Sale

The following TRACTS of LAND, lying in Allegany county, Maryland, viz.

1. "Land flowing with milk and honey," containing in the whole about 2747 acres. A great proportion of this tract is in natural meadow, which is intersected by a number of small rivulets; the remainder is heavily timbered, and well adapted to the raising of small grain. It lies about forty miles to the south-west of fort Cumberland, is on the waters of the Great Youghoughany, and about 4 miles distant from the main road leading through Virginia to the western country. The same is divided into small tracts, comprising from 300 to 400 acres each, to suit purchasers.

2. "Good Hope." This tract lies contiguous to the "land flowing with milk and honey," and contains 389 acres, 120 whereof are natural meadow, the residue is heavily timbered, and in the certificate is described "the first quality land."

3. "Clover Bottom" lies on the Little Crossings, about 3 miles south of Braddock's road, contains 132 acres of land, a part of which is well calculated for meadow, the remainder is well timbered, and of the first quality. On this tract there is a Grist and Saw mill, both of which might be put into good order, at a very small expence. The Grist mill is three stoies high, and has an excellent pair of country stones; there is also a wheel for a pair of Burrs.

4. "Cornucopia". This tract contains 1100 acres, and is the residence of Mr. Dan. Grant. The improvements are, a large and comfortable dwelling-house, and an extensive barn, with stabling underneath; a young thriving orchard, and about 100 acres of cleared land under good fencing. Braddock's road passes through said farm, which makes it an eligible stand for a public house, being about twenty-two miles from Fort Cumberland. Few farms in Maryland, the same distance from Baltimore, are more valuable than this. It is of the first quality as to soil, heavily timbered, and nearly the one half of it well adapted to timothy meadow; the residue equally well adapted to the raising of wheat, rye, oats, &c. The one-fifth of the purchase money will be required in hand, the residue in five annual payments. Mr. Grant will show the above land to any person who should be inclined to purchase.

From the above scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 50,000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.

Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral and Second Presbyterian Church Lotteries will be received in payment.
