Horses Stolen.

Sixty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN on the night of the 8th instant, out of the pasture about 3 miles from Baltimore, on the Frederick-town turnpike road, a Brown Bay MARE, between 14 and 15 hands high, with a coarse black mane and tail, a natural trotter, remarkably long and strait in the body, trots remarkably slow and easy, is accustomed to geers, & is an excellent leader in a single team; she has been used to wear iron hopples, on account of her kicking at other horses, which has worn the hair on the fetlocks very short; she is about 9 or 10 years old, and had no shoes on her hind feet when stolen. It is supposed she has some white on her off hind fetlock-joint.

Stolen on the same night, from the tongue of a waggon, on the same road, close to Ellicott's new mills, three miles from town, a Deep Bright Bay HORSE, between 14 and 15 hands high, black mane and tail, the mane is remarkably thin, and his ears are very large, his tail is pretty short and tapers with a kind of switch to it; he carries a very high head when trotting or galloping, is a natural trotter, and is a hard riding horse when galloped; has great spirit, and will both ride and work well; he is shod all round, and his shoes are about half worn.

Whoever will secure said horse and mare, so that the owners can get them again, or deliver them, or either of them, to either of the subscribers, shall receive Twenty Dollars each, and Twenty Dollars for the thief, if secured so that he may be brought to justice, and all reasonable charges, paid by

The Subscriber

IS authoised to receive Subscriptions of Stock in the WASHINGTON TONTINE. Persons disosed to subscribe, will please to make early application. The views of Mr. Stoddert will be best explained by his letter to me—an extract from which I subjoin.

FRANCIS JOHONNOT.

George-town, October 29, 1805.

"I hope hose in Baltimore, who mean to adventure inthe Tontine, will make their subscriptions in November, and the earlier in that month, the more agreeable it will be. I want, if possible, to have the whole completed by the first of December, that I may have one month to employ in arranging every thing relating to this institution, in a way, so clear, as to avoid the possibility, at least the probability of altercation hereafter. You know that on the 31st of December every single share of stock must depend upon some life, which cannot afterwards be changed. I wish, indeed, by attention beforehand, to avoid every thing like the necessity of alteration or even explanation afterwards. I mean particularly in regard to the description of the lives chosen for the stock to depend upon.

"In the list you sent me of subscriptions, the description of the lives is not full enough. In but few instances have you mentioned their places of residence; I presume they are all of Baltimore; but I ought to be certain. In some instances you have omitted the names of the parents, in others, their residence—all these things are necessary. Be so good as to send me another list, supplying every thing that the second article of the institution requires. A time will come, when the existence or non-existence of a single share, will be worth a contest.

"I informed you, or meant to do so, sometime ago, that the title to the lots had been examined and approved of by Messrs. Key and Mason, and that the deeds had been drawn and recorded under their direction, as provided by the first article. This was done, I think, in May. The lots have been lately placed in the hands of an agent for sale, and a few have been sold to sufficient profit. The real interest of the institution will probably be best served, by suffering no sales until better times: but it has been thought right to fix the foundation now, for dividends in 1808." A Tract of Land at Public Sale.

To be Sold at Public Sale, on FRIDAY, the 20th day of December next, on the premises, if fair, if not, the next fair day,

A TRACT of LAND, on which Mr. Nicholas Dorsey lately lived, containing about 486 acres, with a commodious two-story brick House and other necessary Buildings, which, at a small expence, may be put in good repair. This tract immediately joins Mr. Richard Owings's mill property (on Elk-Ridge), where a constant market is offered for the produce of it at the very door. It is situated about 20 miles from Baltimore, and nearly the same distance from the Federal City. From its proximity to these two great markets, it is certainly an object worthy the attention of the farmer who can afford to improve it; and offers to the inhabitant of the city an eligible retreat in summer, where he will find a variety of fine fruits, and as healthy a spot as any in this country. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as the purchaser will of course view the premises.

Mr. William Willing and Mr. Samuel Ridgely, who live in the neighborhood, will shew the property to whoever may wish to see it.

Terms of sale, one half payable in sixty days, the residue in one and two years.
