Valuable Property.

Will be Sold at Public Vendue on MONDAY, the 2d day of December next, on the premises,
THAT Valuable Estate (known formerly as Wolgamott's mills) late the property of Nicholas Swingley, deceased, lying in Washington county, state of Maryland, about a mile and an half from the mouth of Conococheague. There are about two hundred acres of land belonging to this estate, on which there is a large stone merchant mill, turned by the Conococheague creek, and also by a small stream which passes through said land. The situation of this mill for business is not equalled by any other in the county. The land is generally of the limestone quality, with an abundance of watered meadow ground. Several large limestone springs thereon. The buildings, except the mill, are of wood, but comfortable.—The terms will be made known on the day of sale, and an indisputable title made to the purchaser.

Horses Stolen.

Sixty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN on the night of the 8th instant, out of the pasture about 3 miles from Baltimore, on the Frederick-town turnpike road, a Brown Bay MARE, between 14 and 15 hands high, with a coarse black mane and tail, a natural trotter, remarkably long and strait in the body, trots remarkably slow and easy, is accustomed to geers, & is an excellent leader in a single team; she has been used to wear iron hopples, on account of her kicking at other horses, which has worn the hair on the fetlocks very short; she is about 9 or 10 years old, and had no shoes on her hind feet when stolen. It is supposed she has some white on her off hind fetlock-joint.

Stolen on the same night, from the tongue of a waggon, on the same road, close to Ellicott's new mills, three miles from town, a Deep Bright Bay HORSE, between 14 and 15 hands high, black mane and tail, the mane is remarkably thin, and his ears are very large, his tail is pretty short and tapers with a kind of switch to it; he carries a very high head when trotting or galloping, is a natural trotter, and is a hard riding horse when galloped; has great spirit, and will both ride and work well; he is shod all round, and his shoes are about half worn.

Whoever will secure said horse and mare, so that the owners can get them again, or deliver them, or either of them, to either of the subscribers, shall receive Twenty Dollars each, and Twenty Dollars for the thief, if secured so that he may be brought to justice, and all reasonable charges, paid by
