Federal Gazette & Baltimore Daily Advertiser.

Seven Dollars per Annum.] WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1806. [Vol. XXIV—No. 3667.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 31st of January last, from the subscriber's plantation, in Anne-Arundel county, a negro man named Frank, alias Frank Brice, aged about 25 years, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, two of his upper front teeth out, a well-looking, smart, well-spoken fellow, rather slim made, has a variety of cloathing, particularly a dark red coatee; he plays the fiddle. I purchased the fellow of Mr. James Brice, who resides in Farley hundred in Kent county. He was accompanied by his wife named Henny, and her child, Nelly, who are free; she is a remarkably short, fat, likely woman; the child about 7 years old, well grown of that age. They stole and went off in an old batteau, and took with them some kitchen furniture, cloathing, blankets and provisions. The man has worked in Mr. Price's ship yard at Fell's-Point, as a sawyer.

Whoever takes up said negro man Frank, & secures him in Baltimore jail, shall receive, if taken in Baltimore city or county, 20 dollars; if out of the county and in the state, 30 dollars; and if out of the state, the above reward.

CHRISTOPHER HUGHES.

To be Sold by Auction,

At the front door of the Eagle tavern, in the city of Richmond, on the 18th day of March next ensuing,

THAT most valuable estate, situated in the county of Wythe and Commonwealth of Virginia, and heretofore well known by the name of Cheswell's Lead Mines, but which for some time past, has been considered the property of Stephen Austin and Company, of the city of Philadelphia, by virtue of a purchase thereof by them, made under a decree of the high court of chancery of the said commonwealth, with the terms whereof they have not complied.

That purchase was made on the 20th day of February, 179[illegible], for the sum of £ 6505, and since that period, they have made sundry great and very valuable improvements on said estate.

The well known value of the property, and the certainty which the subscribers feel, that those who mean to become purchasers will satisfy themselves thereof on view, render any further description of the property to be sold unnecessary.

The sale will be made in conformity to two several decrees of the superior court of chancery, which is directed by law to be held at the capitol, in the city of Richmond aforesaid, the one pronounced on the 8th day of June, and the other on the 7th day of October, in the year 1802.

Credit will be given to the purchaser or purchasers, for a term of nine months for one, and eighteen months for the other moiety of the purchase money, each moiety being secured, not only by a bond, with good security, made payable, at the expiration of the term of credit, to the subscribers, or the survivor of them, his executors, administrators or assigns, for the use in the said decree specified, and bearing interest from the date; but also, by the retention of the legal estate, until the whole purchase money, with such interest, shall be fully paid; on which payment, a conveyance or conveyances will be made to the purchaser or purchasers, in virtue of the said decrees by

JOHN WICKHAM, JOHN WARDEN, WILLIAM HAY, } Commissioners of the said court

Twenty Dollars Reward

Will be given for apprehending and securing in jail, a young mulatto man slave, named ANDREW. He was hired by me last year, to Mr. Joseph Thomas, who keeps the middle ferry to Alexandria, and absconded from that place about the latter end of August last. He is about 23 years age, five feet, 8 or 9 inches high, lusty and well made, has short curly hair, and is frequently subject to have several large pimples in his face.—He is reckoned to a sensible fellow, of an easy agreeable address for a man in his low situation of life. As he has not been heard of by me since his elopement, I suspect he has had the address to ship himself as a free man, on board some vessel, either at Alexandria or Baltimore. Whoever takes him up and secnres him in any jail, shall receive from me the above reward, as soon as due information thereof is given to me, or to my son, Dr. Nathaniel P. Causin, at Por-Tobacco, Charles county, Maryland.
