Sydenham's Works.

F. NICHOLS, (of Philadelphia,)
PROPOSES to reprint the works of Dr. Sydenham, in two volumes 8vo. price about 3 dollars 50 cents.
Many physicians have been consulted on the expediency of printing Sydenham's Works, who concur in recommending the publication of them.
They will be published with notes, intended to render them more useful to the American student of Medicine, by BENJAMIN RUSH, M. D. professor of Medicine in the University of Pennsylvania.
As the expence of publishing these works will be considerable, and the sale not extensive, they cannot be undertaken without a prospect of success; all physicians, therefore, who are inclined to encourage the publication of them, are desired to use their interest among their medical friends, and to transmit the names of subscribers in the state of Maryland, to George Hill, No. 104, Market-street, Baltimore.
The price will be raised to non-subscribers.
"This illustrious physician (says Dr. Rush,) has been admired and celebrated, not only by his countrymen, but by most of the nations in Europe. He wrote from nature, or rather nature wrote through him; he combatted most of the errors, both in theory and practice, of the age in which he lived; and finally, he produced a complete revolution in medicine, which involved in its consequences a new era in the life and happiness of the human race. He seems to have looked at nature in her operations in morbid bodies with a microscope. No deviation from health had escaped him, and hence the histories of diseases, which are to be met with in all our modern authors, are correct and perfect, only in proportion as they are copied from Sydenham"
For the character of Sydenham see Rush's introductory lectures.

The Subscriber offers for Sale

The following TRACTS of LAND, lying in Allegany count, Maryland, viz.
1. "Land flowing with milk and honey," containing in the whole about 2747 acres. A great proportion of this tract is in natural meadow, which is intersected by a number of small rivulets; the remainder is heavily timbered, and well adapted to the raising of small grain. It lies about forty miles to the south-west of fort Cumberland, is on the waters of the Great Youghoughany, and about 4 miles distant from the main road leading through Virginia to the western country. The same is divided into small tracts, comprising from 300 to 400 acres each, to suit purchasers.
2. "Good Hope." This tract lies contiguous to the "land flowing with milk and honey," and contains 389 acres, 120 whereof are natural meadow, the residue is heavily timbered, and in the certificate is described "the first quality land."
3. "Clover Bottom" lies on the Little Crossings, about 3 miles south of Braddock's road, contains 132 acres of land, a part of which is well calculated for meadow, the remainder is well timbered, and of the first quality. On this tract there is a Grist and Saw mill, both of which might be put into good order, at a very small expence. The Grist mill is three stoies high, and has an excellent pair of country stones; there is also a wheel for a pair of Burrs.
4. "Cornucopia". This tract contains 1100 acres, and is the residence of Mr. Dan. Grant. The improvements are, a large and comfortable dwelling-house, and an extensive barn with stabling underneath; a young thriving orchard, and about 100 acres of cleared land under good fencing. Braddock's road passes through said farm, which makes it an eligible stand for a public house, being about twenty-two miles from Fort Cumberland. Few arms in Maryland, the same distance from Baltimore, are more valuable than this. It is of the first quality as to soil, heavily timbered, and nearly the one half of it well adapted to timothy meadow; the residue equally well adapted to the raising of wheat, rye, oats, &c. The one-fifth of the purchase money will be required in hand, the residue in five annual payments. Mr. Grant will show the above land to any person who should be inclined to purchase.
JAMES P. BOYD.
