Wiliam Merryman

Informs his friends and the voters of the city and county at large,

THAT he continues to solicit their patronage for the office of Sheriff, at the ensuing election.

WE, the subscribers, of the city of Baltimore, do hereby certify, that Mr. William Merryman has acted towards us, as his creditors, in an honorable and upright manner—and has settled with us, we believe, to the utmost of his ability, and much to our satisfaction.

We are convinced his failure in business proceeded not from his own misconduct, but from those misfortunes incident to trade.

And further, after the insolvent act was passed in his favor, he shewed no disposition to use it to our injury, but made us, his creditors, such liberal propositions as to convince us of his correct intentions towards us.

TO BE SEEN,

Two Dromedaries,

FROM ARABIA.

THESE are the first of the species ever imported into this country. The value of them is such, that the Arabian possessed of his Dromedary, has nothing either to want or to fear. They will travel at the rate of an hundred miles in a day, 5 or 6 days together, without either eating or drinking. They are part like the horse, cow, sheep, and the rabbit, and are the most docille animal in the world. They kneel down, take on their load, and wait the pleasure of their keeper to rise They arrive at their full growth at 6 years old, which is about 20 hands high, and live to the age of 40 or 50 years The oldest of the above is forty years, and the youngest seventeen months.

These astonishing animals are to be seen at No. 36, opposite the lower end of the Marsh-market, in a clean place. It is to be hoped the Ladies and Gentlemen of Baltimore will not lose this opportunity, which may be the only one (at least for many years) of viewing these surprising animals, so much spoken of by naturalists and historians.

Admittance 25 cents, children half price.

GENERAL MOREAU.

JUST RECEIVED,
AND FOR SALE BY
M. & J. CONRAD & CO.
138, Market-street,
Price $1 in boards.

THE LIFE & CAMPAIGNS OF VICTOR MOREAU;

Containing his trial, justification, speech and other events, until his embarkation for the U. States. By an officer of his staff Translated from the French.

THIS work contains so many proofs of the valor and integrity of Moreau, that it was suppressed in France by the order of Bonaparte It is a narative of the life of a very uncommon character, of a hero not less entitled to admiration for his great qualities, than to the tenderest compassion of his unmerited misfortunes.

His campaigns in Germany are worthy the attention of every one, who venerates heroism and superior talents, and are inestimable to the soldier, as they present a model of excellence in the art of war. His masterly retreat from the very heart of an enemy's country, when surrounded by an exasperated people, when struggling, as it were, with fate, he, like the Parthians, was victorious, even in his flight, can be compared to nothing but that of the ten thousand Zenephon, and is perhaps without a parrallel in the military annals of the world.

This great and good man, over whom the star of his evil destiny has shed its most malignant influence, is now sheltered from oppression, in the bosom of our country.

INFORMATION.

MERCHANTS, Supercargoes and others, are respectfully informed, that the subscriber, auctioneer, has rented one of the new three-story Fire Proof Brick Warehouses, on O'Donnell's wharf, at the head of Frederick-street dock; which is in complete order for the reception of all kinds of West-India, and other produce. Those who may be pleased to favor him with their business may at their option, have their goods stored in the said warehouse, and sold on the wharf; or, if more agreeable, their cargoes shall be hauled up to the large and convenient vendue warehouse, at the corner of Second and Frederick-streets.

He begs leave to tender his grateful thanks to those who have patronised him, since his commencement of the vendue and commission business, and assures them, that every attention shall be used to merit a continuance of their favors, and of the public generally, and is very Respectfully,
Their obedient servant,
THOMAS CHASE.

The managers of this lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the commissioners appointed for erecting the market-house, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage to that part of the city, and to the country in general; and beg leave to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement.

As the above scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two blanks to a prize, and all prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the lottery is completed, without any deduction, the managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the tickets, as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.

Such prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the market-house.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the managers have given bond to the state of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars for the due performance of the trust.

New Insolvent Law.

GERORGE KEATING,

HAS procured a certified correct manuscript copy of the late Insolvent Law, which he has printed on a handsome paper and type, price 25 cents each, and will publish to-morrow morning as follows:

An act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the November session, 1805, and to continue in force till the year 1810.

☞ The Legislature of Maryland, have these many years been endeavoring to make such a law, as would embrace the advantage of the creditor without adding to the misfortunes of the debtor. This law seems to have obtained the desirable object.

The manuscript copy may be seen at Keating's Book-store, No. 164, Market street.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 31st of January last, from the subscriber's plantation, in Anne-Arundel county, a negro man named Frank, alias Frank Brice, aged about 25 years, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, two of his upper front teeth out, a well-looking, smart, well-spoken fellow, rather slim made, has a variety of cloathing, particularly a dark red coatee; he plays the fiddle. I purchased the fellow of Mr. James Brice, who resides in Farley hundred in Kent county. He was accompanied by his wife named Henny, and her child, Nelly, who are free; she is a remarkably short, fat, likely woman; the child about 7 years old, well grown of that age. They stole and went off in an old batteau, and took with them some kitchen furniture, cloathing, blankets and provisions. The man has worked in Mr. Price's ship yard at Fell's-Point, as a sawyer.

Whoever takes up said negro man Frank, & secures him in Baltimore jail, shall receive, if taken in Baltimore city or county, 20 dollars; if out of the county and in the state, 30 dollars; and if out of the state, the above reward.

The Subscriber offers for Sale

The following TRACTS of LAND, lying in Allegany county, Maryland, viz.

1. "Land flowing with milk and honey," containing in the whole about 2747 acres. A great proportion of this tract is in natural meadow, which is intersected by a number of small rivulets; the remainder is heavily timbered, and well adapted to the raising of small grain. It lies about forty miles to the south-west of fort Cumberland, is on the waters of the Great Youghoughany, and about 4 miles distant from the main road leading through Virginia to the western country. The same is divided into small tracts, comprising from 300 to 400 acres each, to suit purchasers.

2. "Good Hope." This tract lies contiguous to the "land flowing with milk and honey," and contains 389 acres, 120 whereof are natural meadow, the residue is heavily timbered, and in the certificate is described "the first quality land."

3. "Clover Bottom" lies on the Little Crossings, about 3 miles south of Braddock's road, contains 132 acres of land, a part of which is well calculated for meadow, the remainder is well timbered, and of the first quality. On this tract there is a Grist and Saw mill, both of which might be put into good order, at a very small expence. The Grist mill is three stories high, and has an excellent pair of country stones; there is also a wheel for a pair of Burrs.

4. "Cornucopia". This tract contains 1100 acres, and is the residence of Mr. Dan. Grant. The improvements are, a large and comfortable dwelling-house, and an extensive barn with stabling underneath; a young thriving orchard, and about 100 acres of cleared land under good fencing. Braddock's road passes through said farm, which makes it an eligible stand for a public house, being about twenty-two miles from Fort Cumberland. Few arms in Maryland, the same distance from Baltimore, are more valuable than this It is of the first quality as to soil, heavily timbered, and nearly the one half of it well adapted to timothy meadow; the residue equally well adapted to the raising of wheat, rye, oats, &c. The one-fifth of the purchase money will be required in hand, the residue in five annual payments. Mr. Grant will show the above land to any person who should be inclined to purchase.

To be Sold by Auction,

At the front door of the Eagle tavern, in the city of Richmond, on the 18th day of March next ensuing,

THAT most valuable estate, situated in the county of Wythe and Commonwealth of Virginia, and heretofore well known by the name of Cheswell's Lead Mines, but which for some time past, has been considered the property of Stephen Austin and Company, of the city of Philadelphia, by virtue of a purchase thereof by them, made under a decree of the high court of chancery of the said commonwealth, with the terms whereof they have not complied.

That purchase was made on the 20th day of February, 1795, for the sum of £ 6505, and since that period, they have made sundry great and very valuable improvements on said estate.

The well known value of the property, and the certainty which the subscribers feel, that those who mean to become purchasers will satisfy themselves thereof on view, render and further description of the property to be sold unnecessary.

The sale will be made in conformity to two several decrees of the superior court of chancery, which is directed by law to be held at the capitol, in the city of Richmond aforesaid, the one pronounced on the 8th day of June, and the other on the 7th day of October, in the year 1802.

Credit will be given to the purchaser or purchasers, for a term of nine months for one, and eighteen months for the other moiety of the purchase money, each moiety being secured, not only by a bond, with good security, made payable, at the expiration of the term of credit, to the subscribers, or the survivor of them, his executors, administrators or assigns, for the use in the said decree specified, and bearing interest from the date; but also, by the retention of the legal estate, until the whole purchase money, with such interest, shall be fully paid; on which payment, a conveyance or conveyances will be made to the purchaser or purchasers, in virtue of the said decrees by

The house is in the best order, has a front of eighty feet, and contains fourteen rooms, with fire-places, large cellars, &c.

The Garden or Pleasure Ground in front of the house, (of three acres) has gravel walks round it, and contains a great variety of flowering shrubs, flowers and fruits, imported from different parts of Europe. The whole containing about twenty-two acres—The land in good order; having an orchard and a spring of excellent water, which never freezes in winter, nor fails in summer, and which supplies a fish pond. There is a good pump in the kitchen yard, and several good cisterns

The premises may be viewed after the first of March.

The barns, stables, coach-houses, and all the other out-buildings, have been erected within five years.

There is also a hot-house, 60 feet in length, filled with the finest fruit, such as peaches, nectarines, cherries, figs, and the best sorts of grapes. Behind the hot-house is a large wash-house, with cisterns and pumps, and a winter milk-house—the same flues heating the hot-house and the coppers of the wash-house.

Likewise, an ice-house, now filled; a kitchen garden, of nearly an acre and a half, surrounded by a high espalier fence, covered with fine fruits, and containing all the best sorts of vegetables and small fruits known in Europe and America.

Also to be sold, on the twenty-sixth day of March, by auction, at Elizabeth Town, several lots of LAND, amounting to more than eighty acres, which now form a part of the farm belonging to Mr. Belasise. Any person purchasing the house lot, may have an opportunity of buying these lots, either in part or the whole of them, by private contract. Apply to Mr. Belasise

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from Thomas Linthicum on the 30th March last, a few days before he removed to the Western Country, a tolerably dark mulatto woman, named MIMY, 30 years of age, 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, rather slender made, her cloathing unknown, as she has been gone a length of time; has a bushy head of hair, lost one of her fore teeth out of her upper jaw, near the eye tooth; it is supposed she has a young child, or now about in the straw, as she was young with child when absconded. She has a husband, the property of Zacheriah Maccubin, who lived near where she went from, until the 3d November last, and then he absconded: no doubt they are both together: the fellow is black, named FRANK, 43 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, stout made, has been a miller a number of years, is a good weaver, and is handy about plantation work. It is supposed they have changed their names, and have obtained passes, and will endeavor to pass as free people. As the man is a very smart fellow, he may get in some mill. The woman has been seen in Baltimore on Federal-hill, all summer, but now it is said she has removed to a part of the town called Old-Town. Any person taking up said negroes, and confining them in jail, so that they may be had by the subscribers again, shall be entitled to the above reward, or 50 dollars for either, and all reasonable expenses paid if brought home.
