TO BE SEEN,

Two Dromedaries,

FROM ARABIA.

THESE are the first of the species ever imported into this country. The value of them is such, that the Arabian possessed of his Dromedary, has nothing either to want or to fear. They will travel at the rate of an hundred miles in a day, 5 or 6 days together, without either eating or drinking. They are part like the horse, cow, sheep, and the rabbit, and are the most docille animal in the world. They kneel down, take on their load, and wait the pleasure of their keeper to rise. They arrive at their full growth at 6 years old, which is about 20 hands high, and live to the age of 40 or 50 years. The oldest of the above is forty years, and the youngest seventeen months.

These astonishing animals are to be seen at No. 36, opposite the lower end of the Marsh-market, in a clean place. It is to be hoped the Ladies and Gentlemen of Baltimore will not lose this opportunity, which may be the only one (at least for many years) of viewing these surprising animals, so much spoken of by naturalists and historians.

Admittance 25 cents, children half price.

Wiliam Merryman

Informs his friends and the voters of the city and county at large,

THAT he continues to solicit their patronage for the office of Sheriff, at the ensuing election.

WE, the subscribers, of the city of Baltimore, do hereby certify, that Mr. William Merryman has acted towards us, as his creditors, in an honorable and upright manner—and has settled with us, we believe, to the utmost of his ability, and much to our satisfaction.

We are convinced his failure in business proceeded not from his own misconduct, but from those misfortunes incident to trade.

And further, after the insolvent act was passed in his favor, he shewed no disposition to use it, to our injury, but made us, his creditors, such liberal propositions as to convince us of his correct intentions towards us.

GENERAL MOREAU.

JUST RECEIVED,
AND FOR SALE BY
M. & J. CONRAD & CO.
138, Market-street,
Price $1 in boards.
THE LIFE & CAMPAIGNS OF VICTOR MOREAU;
Containing his trial, justification, speech and other events, until his embarkation for the U. States. By an officer of his staff Translated from the French.

THIS work contains so many proofs of the valor and integrity of Moreau, that it was suppressed in France by the order of Bonaparte. It is a narative of the life of a very uncommon character, of a hero not less entitled to admiration for his great qualities, than to the tenderest compassion of his unmerited misfortunes.

His campaigns in Germany are worthy the attention of every one, who venerates heroism and superior talents, and are inestimable to the soldier, as they present a model of excellence in the art of war. His masterly retreat from the very heart of an enemy's country, when surrounded by an exasperated people, when struggling, as it were, with fate, he, like the Parthians, was victorious, even in his flight, can be compared to nothing but that of the ten thousand Zenephon, and is perhaps without a parrallel in the military annals of the world.

This great and good man, over whom the star of his evil destiny has shed its most malignant influence, is now sheltered from oppression, in the bosom of our country.

INFORMATION.

MERCHANTS, Supercargoes and others, are respectfully informed, that the subscriber, auctioneer, has rented one of the new three story Fire Proof Brick Warehouses, on O'Donnell's wharf, at the head of Frederick-street dock; which is in complete order for the reception of all kinds of West-India, and other produce. Those who may be pleased to favor him with their business may at their option, have their goods stored in the said warehouse, and sold on the wharf; or, if more agreeable, their cargoes shall be hauled up to the large and convenient vendue warehouse, at the corner of Second and Frederick-streets.

He begs leave to tender his grateful thanks to those who have patronised him, since his commencement of the vendue and commission business, and assures them, that every attention shall be used to merit a continuance of their favors, and of the public generally, and is very Respectfully,
Their obedient servant,

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 31st of January last, from the subscriber's plantation, in Anne-Arundel county, a negro man named Frank, alias Frank Brice, aged about 25 years, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, two of his upper front teeth out, a well-looking, smart, well-spoken fellow, rather slim made, has a variety of cloathing, particularly a dark red coatee; he plays the fiddle. I purchased the fellow of Mr. James Brice, who resides in Farley hundred in Kent county. He was accompanied by his wife named Henny, and her child, Nelly, who are free; she is a remarkably short, fat, likely woman; the child about 7 years old, well grown of that age. They stole and went off in an old batteau, and took with them some kitchen furniture, cloathing, blankets and provisions. The man has worked in Mr. Price's ship yard at Fell's-Point, as a sawyer.

Whoever takes up said negro man Frank, & secures him in Baltimore jail, shall receive, if taken in Baltimore city or county, 20 dollars; if out of the county and in the state, 30 dollars; and if out of the state, the above reward.

To be Sold by Auction,

At the front door of the Eagle tavern, in the city of Richmond, on the 18th day of March next ensuing,

THAT most valuable estate, situated in the county of Wythe and Commonwealth of Virginia, and heretofore well known by the name of Cheswell's Lead Mines, but which for some time past, has been considered the property of Stephen Austin and Company, of the city of Philadelphia, by virtue of a purchase thereof by them, made under a decree of the high court of chancery of the said commonwealth, with the terms whereof they have not complied.

That purchase was made on the 20th day of February, 1793, for the sum of £ 6505, and since that period, they have made sundry great and very valuable improvements on said estate.

The well known value of the property, and the certainty which the subscribers feel, that those who mean to become purchasers will satisfy themselves thereof on view, render and further description of the property to be sold unnecessary.

The sale will be made in conformity to two several decrees of the superior court of chancery, which is directed by law to be held at the capitol, in the city of Richmond aforesaid, the one pronounced on the 8th day of June, and the other on the 7th day of October, in the year 1802.

Credit will be given to the purchaser or purchasers, for a term of nine months for one, and eighteen months for the other moiety of the purchase money, each moiety being secured, not only by a bond, with good security, made payable, at the expiration of the term of credit, to the subscribers, or the survivor of them, his executors, administrators or assigns, for the use in the said decree specified, and bearing interest from the date; but also, by the retention of the legal estate, until the whole purchase money, with such interest, shall be fully paid; on which payment, a conveyance or conveyances will be made to the purchaser or purchasers, in virtue of the said decrees by

From the above scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 50,000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.

Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other peasons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral and Second Presbyterian Church Lotteries will be received in bayment.

New Insolvent Law.

GERORGE KEATING,
HAS procured a certified correct manuscript copy of the late Insolvent Law, which he has printed on a handsome paper and type, price 25 cents each, and will publish to-morrow morning as follows:

An act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the November session, 1805, and to continue in force till the year 1810.

☞ The Legislature of Maryland, have these many years been endeavoring to make such a law, as would embrace the advantage of the creditor without adding to the misfortunes of the debtor. This law seems to have obtained the desirable object.

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.

Gentlemen,

BEING solicited by many of my friends, both in City and county, to offer myself a candidate for the office of SHERIFF, I have taken the liberty of soliciting your suffrages at the ensuing election, as I consider myself qualified, (from long experience as assistant to the present and two preceding Sheriffs) to discharge the important duties attached to that office. My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation I am anxious to possess; but if correctness, diligence, and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites, I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against
