Valuable Lands for Sale,

On accommodating terms and in small parcels

WILL be offered for sale by the subscriber, at public auction, on SATURDAY, the 12th day of April next, at Peter Orndorff's tavern, on Elk-Ridge, a tract of land called COLUMBIA, containing between eight and nine hundred acres, laid off in lots of about one hundred and fifty acres each. This land is situate in Anne-Arundel county, in a remarkably healthy neighborhood, distant from Baltimore twenty four miles, and three miles from the Poplar spring; the soil is peculiarly well adapted to the cultivation of small grain, corn and tobacco, and contains a large portion of rich meadow ground. The terms of sale, it it presumed, will be found inviting, as a small part only of the purchase money will be required in hand, and a liberal credit will be given for the residue. It is deemed unnecessary to give a more particular description of this property, as those inclined to purchase will of course view the premises. A plot of the land is left with Mr. Orndorff, where persons wishing to examine the same, are requested to apply.

FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION,

A CHEAP EDITION,

Highly improved, and much enlarged, of the original work, entitled

NATURE DISPLAYED,

IN HER MODE OF TEACHING LANGUAGE TO MAN;

Or, a new and infallible method of acquiring a language in the shortest time possible, deduced from the analysis of the human mind, and consequently suited to every capacity.

ADAPTED TO THE FRENCH.

BY N. G. DUFIEF, of Philadelphia.

Nature begins—Reason completes.

This improved and enlarged edition of "Nature Displayed, is now with due respect, submitted to national patronage, on the following

CONDITIONS:

1. This work shall be printed on fine paper, in two handsome large octavo volumes, at the Polyglott press, by Mr. John Watts.

2. Price to subscribers, for the two volumes in board neatly lettered, five dollars; three of which to be paid on the delivery of the first volume in Philadelphia, New-York, Baltimore, Boston, Charleston, or New-Orleans.

3. Terms to non-subscribers will be greatly advanced. It is proper to observe here, that the first edition, which is much inferior to, and less copious than the present, sold rapidly at seven dollars.

4. The subscription will close next June, when the work will be put to press.

N. B. Subscribers residing in Georgia, N. Carolina, Delaware, New-Jersey, Connecticut, New-Hampshire, Rhode-Island, &c. are respectfully informed, that due notice will be sent to them, when the first volume is published, that they may forward the money to their correspondents, or to the author in Philadelphia, who engages to have their books carefully packed up and sent free of expense, to any place in the abovementioned states, to which there is a conveyance by water from Philadelphia or New-York.

Instructors of youth and private gentlemen, friendly to this undertaking, will be entitled to a copy, for every six subscribers they may procure. Letters from them will be punctually attended to.

Booksellers, who subscribe for a number of copies, will be allowed a very liberal discount.

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.

Gentlemen,

BEING solicited by many of my friends, both in City and county, to offer myself a candidate for the office of SHERIFF, I have taken the liberty of soliciting your suffrages at the ensuing election, as I consider myself qualified, (from long experience as assistant to the present and two preceding Sheriffs) to discharge the important duties attached to that office. My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation I am anxious to possess; but if correctness, diligence, and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites, I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against

Informs his friends and the voters of the city and county at large,

THAT he continues to solicit their patronage for the office of Sheriff, at the ensuing election.

WE, the subscribers, of the city of Baltimore, do hereby certify, that Mr. William Merryman has acted towards us, as his creditors, in an honorable and upright manner—and has settled with us, we believe, to the utmost o his ability, and much to our satisfaction.

We are convinced his failure in business proceeded not from his own misconduct, but from those misfortunes incident to trade.

And further, after the insolvent act was passed in his favor, he shewed no disposition to use it to our injury, but made us, his creditors, such liberal propositions as to convince us of his correct intentions towards us.

The Subscriber offers for Sale

The following TRACTS of LAND, lying in Allegany county, Maryland, viz.

1. "Land flowing with milk and honey," containing in the whole about 2747 acres. A great proportion of this tract is in natural meadow, which is intersected by a number of small rivulets; the remainder is heavily timbered, and well adapted to the raising of small grain. It lies about forty miles to the south-west of fort Cumberland, is on the waters of the Great Youghoughany, and about 4 miles distant from the main road leading through Virginia to the western country. The same is divided into small tracts, comprising from 300 to 400 acres each, to suit purchasers.

2. "Good Hope." This tract lies contiguous to the "land flowing with milk and honey," and contains 389 acres, 120 whereof are natural meadow, the residue is heavily timbered, and in the certificate is described "the first quality land."

3. "Clover Bottom" lies on the Little Crossings, about 3 miles south of Braddock's road, contains 132 acres of land, a part of which is well calculated for meadow, the remainder is well timbered, and of the first quality. On this tract there is a Grist and Saw mill, both of which might be put into good order, at a very small expence. The Grist mill is three stoies high, and has an excellent pair of country stones; there is also a wheel for a pair of Burrs.

4. "Cornucopia". This tract contains 1100 acres, and is the residence of Mr. Dan. Grant. The improvements are, a large and comfortable dwelling-house, and an extensive barn with stabling underneath; a young thriving orchard, and about 100 acres of cleared land under good fencing. Braddock's road passes through said farm, which makes it an eligible stand for a public house, being about twenty-two miles from Fort Cumberland. Few arms in Maryland, the same distance from Baltimore, are more valuable than this. It is of the first quality as to soil, heavily timbered, and nearly the one half of it well adapted to timothy meadow; the residue equally well adapted to the raising of wheat, rye, oats, &c. The one-fifth of the purchase money will be required in hand, the residue in five annual payments. Mr. Grant will show the above land to any person who should be inclined to purchase.
