To be Sold,

One of the best servants in the state, with one fault.

A NEGRO MAN, about 30 years of age, who can turn his hand to any thing; he can shave and dress hair well; wait on table; he is a good Painter and Glazier. His standing employment for some years past, has been driving a carriage, and taking care of horses, that few understand better. With all these qualities, an attachment to a set of idle companions, and the gin-shop, renders him unfit for the city. If his master lived in the country, 1000 dollars would not purchase him. So satisfied is his master, that a removal there would make an entire change in his conduct, that any gentleman disposed to purchase, may have him on reasonable terms, and a few months on trial.
