"Tuesday, December 31, 1805.

"The following motion was laid on the table:

Resolved, That dollars be appropriated by law for the purpose of defraying any extraordinary expences which may be incurred in the intercourse between the United States and foreign nations, to be paid out of any monies in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, and to be applied under the direction of the president of the United States, who shall have authority, if necessary, to borrow the said sum or any part thereof, in behalf of the United States, at a rate of interest not exceeding 6 per centum per annum, and shall cause an account of the expenditure thereof to be laid before congress as soon as may be.

Resolved, That the additional duty of two and a half per centum ad valorem, imposed by an act, entitled "An actfurther to protect the commerce and seamen of the United States against the Barbary powers," be continued for years.

The question was taken, "that the journal be so amended," and resolved in the affirmative, by yeas and nays, every member present voting in the affirmative.

A motion was then made and seconded, that a committee be appointed to present to the president of the U. States, the resolution agreed to by this house on the 14th ultimo, in the words following, to wit:

"Resolved, That an exchange of territory between the United States and Spain is deemed by this house to be the most advantageous mode of settlement of existing differences respecting limits between the U. States and the court of Madrid, and that any arrangement between the two governments which shall secure to Spain an ample barrier on the side of Mexico, and to the United States the countries watered by the Mississippi and to the eastward of it, will meet the approbation of this house."

On which motion debate arising, it was moved and seconded to postpone the consideration thereof until Thursday next,

And decided in the negative—yeas 57—nays 64.

Another motion was then made and seconded, to amend the said original motion by instructing the same committee also to present to the president of the United States another resolution agreed to by this house on the said 14th ultimo, in the words following to wit:

"Resolved, That dollars be appropriated by law toward defraying the expences which may be incurred in the purchase of the Spanish territories lying on the Atlantic ocean and gulph of Mexico, and eastward of the Mississippi, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not other wise appropriated, & to be applied under the direction of the president of the U. States, who shall have authority if necessary to borrow the said sum or any part thereof, in behalf of the United States, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, redeemable at will, and shall cause an account of the expenditure thereof to be laid before congress as soon as may be."

On which motion to amend, the question being taken,

It was resolved in the affirmative.

And then the main question being taken, that the house do agree to the said original motion, as now amended,

It was resolved in the affirmative.

Ordered, That Mr. John Randolph and Mr. Gregg be appointed a committee pursuant thereto.

Tuesday, February 11

Mr John Randolph, from the committee appointed on Thursday last, to present to the president of the United States the two resolutions of this house of the 14th ultimo, reported, that the committee had, according to order, performed that service.

Mr Thomas M. Randolph, from the committee for enrolled bills, reported, that the committee had examined an enrolled bill, to wit:

"An act making provision for defraying any extraordinary expences attending the intercourse between the United States and foreign nations," and had found the same to be truly enrolled: whereupon,

Mr Speaker signed the said enrolled bill.

Ordered, That the clerk of this house do acquaint the senate therewith.

Wednesday, February 12.

Mr. Thomas M Randolph, from the committee for enrolled bills, reported, that the committe did, yesterday, present to the president of the United States for his approbation, an enrolled bill, intitled "An act making provision for defraying any extraordinary expences attending the intercourse between the United States and foreign nations."

Tuesday, February 18.

A message in writing, was received from the president of the United States, by Mr. Coles, his secretary, as followeth:

"To the house of representatives of the United States.

"On the 13th instant I approved and signed the act entitled "an act making provision for defraying any extraordinary expences attending the intercourse between the United States and foreign nations," which originated in the house of representatives, and I shall, in due season, deposit it among the rolls in the office of secretary of state.

TH: JEFFERSON.

"FEB 18, 1806

Monday, March 24.

A message in writing, was received from the president of the United States, by Mr. Coles, his secretary, as followeth:

"To the senate and house of representatives of the United States,

"I communicate to congress a letter recently received from the minister plenipotentiary of the United States at London, stating some circumstances which bear relation to the subject of my message, of January 17th. This paper being original, and to be communicated to both houses, the return of it is requested.

"TH: JEFFERSON."

"March 24th, 1806."

The said message and document accompanying it, were severally twice read.

Ordered, That the letter referred to in the said message, be returned to the president of the United States agreeably to his request.

On the 31st ult. the injunction of secrecy was taken off by a majority of 7 votes. In our next we shall give the yeas and nays on this point.

BY THIS DAY's MAILS.

NEW-YORK, April 2.

Yesterday in the circuit court of the United States now sitting in this city, Mr Samuel G Ogden, came into court and surrendered himself into the custody of the marshal, in discharge of his bail. He was again recognized to appear during the present term himself in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and one surety in twenty thousand dollars. The district judge presided, none of the judges of the supreme court having arrived in this city.

Yesterday morning the sloop Eliza, captain Hays, too deeply loaded with brick, on her passage from Elizabeth-Town, sunk just below the point of Governor's Island; and it is with regret we have to state, that John Pierson, a poor man with a large family, was unfortunately drowned. Captain Hays and the other man on board, saved themselves by getting hold of pieces of plank and wood. The sloop was new and owned by Caleb Halstead and William Hays.

Arrived, the schr Neptune, Bell, in 24 days from Curracoa. Left schr. —— Kimbal, of Kennebeck; a Norfolk schr. the three-masted schr. Nimrod, from New-York, last from St Thomas; Morgan Lewis, of do.; brig Regulator, Chace, in 5 days for New-York; schr. Volunteer, Wells, in 10 days for do.; and ship Osiris, Morris, for do. do. The schr. ----, Brown, sailed for Amboy 3 weeks before.

The schooner Josephus, Ambrose, in 25 days from Newbern. March 29, in a gale, lost her deck-load and mainmast.

The schooner Dorothy, Rowlee, in 6 days from Baltimore.

The schooner Loraon, Stevens, from Fredericksburg. On Saturday, 30 leagues from Cape May, spoke the ship Mary, 52 days from Jaffa, for Baltimore.

The sloop Arvin, Chatty, from Edenton.

The sloop Richard, Pierce, from Wilmington, Del. Off Great Egg-Harbor, spoke the schr. Two Brothers, with the loss of her rudder, bound to Philadelphia.

Cleared, ships Defiance, Sisson Amsterdam; Lorenzo, Dill, Amsterdam; Flora, Adams, New-Orleans; brigs Eagle, Rogers, Bordeaux; Georgia, Jocelin, Savannah; Cleopatra, Hoadley, Savannah.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.

Arrived, ship Missouri, Kennedy, Bordeaux, 35 days; schooner Fly, M'Farlan, Basseterre, (Guad.) 25; sloop Favorite, Sneed, Matanzas, 17.

Cleared, sch'r Citizen, Crowell, Charleston; Caroline, Fisher, Alexandria.

Below, brig Clarissa, Quandrill, Jamaica; sch'r Two Brothers, Griffing, St. Jago-de-Cuba; and a ship from Porto-Rico.

Arrived, ship Missouri, Kennedy, from Bordeaux. Sailed with the Louis William, arrived. Captain K. spoke the ship Live Oak, Blake, 34 days from N. York; brig Sally, Tracy, Skidder, 30 days, do.; and brig Jane, Gilder, of Philadelphia, in the Garonne, bound up.

Sch'r Fly, M'Farlan, left at Basseterre, (Guad.) 3d March, schr. Susan, Baker, of and for this port in 8 days.

Captain Hammet, of the Triall, from Havana, February 28, at 6 A. M. saw a ship ashore on the Bahama Banks, within a league of the Great Bemini island.—At 8, was boarded by the captain and 4 men. She proved to be the Willing Maid, capt. Fred. Hall, 9 days out, from Norfolk for Campeachy. Was cast away the night of the 26th; the ship full of water—the crew all safe on the island. At 9, spoke a schooner from New-Orleans for Baltimore, which went to the island to take off the ship's crew—Latitude 25, 30, longitude 79 38.

The U. S. brig Franklin, Earl, put into the Havana, being very leaky, with the loss of her head rails, and sprung her main top-mast, and was to sail for New-Orleans, the 24th—Crew healthy.

FRIDAY, APRIL 4.

Doctor Cooper will preach at the Baptist Meeting-house, this evening at half past seven o'clock.

Died in this city, on Monday last, of a pleurisy, ELIHU PALMER, the noted apostle of atheism. One of the papers informs us that "He died in the full confidence of the truth of those principles which he had inculcated in his discourses" [Phil. paper.]

IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS AND PLANTERS.

Extract of a letter to a gentleman in this city, from his correspondent in France, dated, "Paris, January 17.

"A total change is about to take place in the administration of the Finances of this country---by the new arrangement, the importation of tobacco by private individuals will be entirely prohibited. I mention this for the information of such of your friends as may be in the habit of shipping to this country."

Let the same change be made in all the other branches of taxation, which is here proposed with respect to the tobacco trade, and the people of France will not be very far removed from the oppression of their ancient regime. The tobacco trade will be put under the care of the farmers general, as it was before the revolution: That is for a particular sum to be paid into the treasury, a set of speculators will obtain the privilege of buying up all the tobacco which is brought into the ports of France. Government, indeed, if it sees proper, may compel them to extend their purchase to a certain number of hogsheads and at a certain price; about 15,000 hogsheads of American tobacco was the quantity which the farmers-general were obliged to purchase annually before the revolution, at a certain stipulated price. But with these particular limitations, the whole tobacco trade of Virginia with France, will be in the hands of a privileged farmer-general or his agent. What will be the consequence? Our merchants, who now send their tobacco to France, will either be obliged to relinquish the trade altogether, or they must contract beforehand with some farmers general, agent in this country, at a very reduced price. Competition, the very life-blood of trade is annihilated; and the price of the article must receive a correspondent depreciation. Our tobacco trade will in fact be on a worse footing than our late trade with Hayti. There more than one house was allowed the privilege of purchasing our produce: But in every accessible port of France, the farmers general is the only purchaser.

Let this mode of taxation therefore be extended to every branch of the internal revenue, & the farmer's generals will be once more the petty tyrants of France. The odeous Gabrielle will be called from its grave; and a private individual instead of purchasing his salt from the merchant at a low price, must consent to give whatever the licenced tax-gatherer may please to ask.

What affects us with astonishment in this case is, that Bonapare whose great object is to increase the commerce of France at the expence of the commerce of England, should lay restraints on the importation of tobacco, from which it is exempted by his rival. Should the same system be extended to many other articles of importation, it will limit not only the commerce, but even the manufactures of his empire. A smaller quantity of the produce of other countries being disposed of in her ports, a smaller quantity of her own manufactures will of course be received in exchange.

April 3.

Arrived, sch'r Amazon, Phillips, 35 days from St. Pierres (Mart)—coffee—Ogleby and Winchester. Left there, brig Lyon, Collard, of Baltimore, to sail in a week; brig Union, Bessey, of ditto, just arrived from Trinidad; a sch'r belonging to Alexandria, and a number of northern vessels. March 12, in lat. 21. 52, spoke sch'r Adams, of Portland, from Bermuda for Turks-Island. 14th, lat. 23. 52, lng. 65, 15, spoke sch'r Desborough of Cohasset, from North Carolina for Boston, had been blown off the coast and bearing away for St. Thomas; was 4 days without water, with which we supplied him. In lat. 34, spoke ship William and Mary, from Norfolk for Campeachy, returning, had been thrown on her beam ends in a gale of wind and obliged to cut away her mizen mast before she righted. The brig Martha and Mary Coulson, for Baltimore, sailed in co. with the Amazon.

Also, sch'r Roby, Wilson, 36 days from St. Jago-de-Cuba---sugar, cocoa, &c. The sch'r Harmony, Gold, for Baltimore, sailed 8 days before. March 11, off Cape Antonio, fell in with an English fleet of 25 sail under convoy of a sloop of war from Jamaica bound to Halifax. On the 15th, in the evening saw a large French privateer full of men go into the fleet. 19th, off Havana, experienced a very heavy gale. 20th, saw the commodore bearing away with a signal of distress—the privateer remaining in the fleet. 21st, saw the privateer and about 20 of the fleet, standing to the southward. Captain W. is of a opinion that they were captured. When passing Cape Florida, saw but one ship and 2 brigs of the convoy that had escaped.

Also, brig Neptune, Darnell, 24 days from city St. Domingo—mahogany, &c.—M. Walton. Left ship Stapleton, Hays, for Baltimore in a week; ship Nymph, M'Rea, of ditto, uncertain; Hope, ——, of ditto, on the coast. A number of others were on the coast, names unknown. In the Mona passage, fell in with brig Aurora, Boyle, from Jacmel, for New-York, and kept company for some days. Saw a number of vessels on the coast and in the bay bound up.

Also, brig Greenwich, Chaytor, 32 days from Trinidad (Cuba)—sugar, &c.—Thos. Tenant.

The brig Union, Basse, sailed for Baltimore, 3 days before; Vigilant, Driscol, for do. 9 days; Martha and Mary, for do. 14 days before, and several others for different ports. March 28, lat. 30, long. 69, 50, spoke sch'r Columbia, from St. Thomas, for Kennebeck, 18 days out. 26th, saw a brig standing to the northward under jury main-topmasts. Spoke in the bay, Jacob, from the isle of Trinidad, for Baltimore.

The brig Augusta, Mezick, 90 days from Bourbon, is in the bay.

The brig Two Brothers, of Baltimore, bound to the Isle of France, was captured by the British, off that place, and sent to Columbo.

The ship Ann, Rutter, hence to Batavia, was spoke in the straits of Sunda, 30th October, by the Augusta

FOR THE FEDERAL GAZETTE.

Messrs. Wundt & Brown,

The piece in the Telegraphe of this morning, signed "Many Parishoners," contains such a jumble of ignorance, falsity and bad language, that I am bold in pronouncing it the offspring of some person who is not a churchman, and who had better mind the old adage, "cobler, stick to your last."

In the first place, no churchman who attends to the interest of the church, can be so ignorant as not to know that St. Paul's and Christ church are both in one parish, & also, that under the existing law, an entire change of vestrymen cannot be made, since four of them must be re-elected; it is also a rule to elect four from each church, but this "Many Parishoners" (what a libel on the members of the church!) has taken five to represent Christ church, one of whom I believe, has not been within its walls during the three last years, and three to represent St. Paul's. So much for his ignorance.

With respect to the charge of falsity, I am confident that he cannot bring twenty pewholders in both churches to back his assertion, that the vestry "instead of having been guided by a dispassionate and impartial spirit of enquiry, in deliberating on subjects which have been brought before them, have displayed an oppressive and inquisitorial disposition in ther proceedings"

It is unnecessary to say any thing in support of my last charge, for there are not "many parishoners," no, nor many of the children who have been saying the catechism during lent, who would not laugh at "time being fast approaching," and a "ticket composing men," or of "healing a difference," and then "burying it in oblivion."

I would advise Mr "Many Parishioners" not to make a public matter of that which only concerns the members of a corporate body: they know when the election takes place and those who feel interested either for or against a change, will of course attend.

In order that this reply may not be attributed to any but the author, he has left his name at the office.
