J. P. Falguerolles,

Medical Doctor, Fellow of the Medical Society of Maryland.

Born of French parents in the city of Bremen, I was from my earliest childhood destined to the study of Physic. After having regularly graduated in the schools there, I visited several universities, to perfect myself in my intended profession, and was finally admitted as a physician by the medical faculty of Erlang ; after which I practised for twenty years in Bremen, and was appointed director of the public dispensary.

Having resolved to visit America, I accompanied captain Vickers to this city, as a medical attendant, and purposed to proceed to Charleston ; but the friendly reception I have met with here, and the flattering encouragement I have already experienced, induce me to fix my abode in Baltimore. I therefore take this method of making known my intention, and assuring my friends, that it shall be my incessant endeavors, by my application and punctuality, to merit the continuance of their esteem, and to obtain the confidence of the public, especially in chronick diseases, which I have most particularly made the object of my study.

Twenty Dollars Reward

Will be given for apprehending and securing in jail, a young mulatto man slave, named ANDREW. He was hired by me last year, to Mr. Joseph Thomas, who keeps the middle ferry to Alexandria, and absconded from that place about the latter end of August last. He is about 23 years age, five feet, 8 or 9 inches high, lusty and well made, has short curly hair, and is frequently subject to have several large pimples in his face.—He is reckoned to a sensible fellow, of an easy agreeable address for a man in his low situation of life. As he has not been heard of by me since his elopement, I suspect he has had the address to ship himself as a free man, on board some vessel, either at Alexandria or Baltimore. Whoever takes him up and secures him in any jail, shall receive from me the above reward, as soon as due information thereof is given to me, or to my son, Dr. Nathaniel P.
