500 Dollars Reward!!

FLED from the city of Baltimore, on Tuesday night, the 18th of March last, GERARD VON HARTEN, a merchant, and partner in the firm of Kenter & Von Harten, of that place. Some short time previous to his flight, he forged promissory notes to a very large amount, on twenty-eight of which forged notes (amounting to forty thousand dollars) twenty-eight indictments have been found against him, in the criminal court of Baltimore county.

Gerard Von Harten is a middle-sized man—5 feet, six or seven inches high—about thirty-two years of age—he has a round & regularly-featured face—of fair complexion, with full red cheeks, and is slightly pitted with the small-pox—his eyes are rather small, and of a dark hazel color—his mouth small with a good set of teeth—his hair is dark or chesnut colored, & is cropped short.—He is a native of Germany, and retains much of the Dutch accent in speaking English, which he articulates slowly, and with a little lisp.

When he left Baltimore, he travelled leisurely through Virginia, collecting his debts in Fredericksburg, Richmoud and other parts of the state, and about the first of April was seen at Stanton, near which place he is supposed to be at present. Any person apprehending said VON HARTEN, and lodging him in any jail in the United States, so that he may be brought to punishment for the forgeries lately committed by him in Baltimore, & giving notice thereof to us the subscribers in said city, shall receive the above reward.

SAMUEL M'KIM and JEREMIAH SULLIVAN.

N. B. Having debts due him in Kentucky, Tennessee, the Carolinas and Georgia, should he leave Virginia, will probably visit one of these states.

For Sale,

A very valuable TRACT of LAND, in Baltimore county, within 11 1-2 miles of the city of Baltimore, containing 640 acres, seated on a branch of Middle river, which empties into, and is within about 5 miles of the Chesapeake bay There are about 40 acres of this land cleared, the residue, about 600 acres, abounds with valuable timber, calculated for every useful purpose, such as ship-building, staves, &c. The soil is calculated to raise every species of country produce, but it is more particularly adapted for an extensive grazing farm, as more than one-half may be made choice meadow. The river, on which this land is seated, is navigable for vessels drawing about eight feet water, and abounds with the best fish, with which our markets are supplied, and there is not, perhaps, at this time, a tract of land offered for sale in the state, that enjoys more real advantages than this; its contiguity to the city of Baltimore, which is confessedly the best market on the continent, and the advantage of water carriage for ship timber, staves, tan-bark and fire wood, which is always in demand, and bears a flattering price, are objects worthy the attention of any person wanting to purchase such a place. A part of the purchase money will be required down, and a pleasing credit given for the balance. For further particulars apply in Baltimore, to Notice.

Will be sold to the highest bidder, on Friday the 12th day of September next, if fair, if not, the first fair day afterwards, unless disposed of at private sale before the first of September, in which case public notice will be given,

ALL that tract of Land called STEPNEY, lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, five miles from Annapolis, containing eight hundred and thirty-five acres. The improvements on this farm are considerable, with many great advantages, there are several good orchards on it, with the choicest fruits of every kind; its situation almost immediately upon South river ensures always good fish and oysters, and at the head of a creek, which bounds the farm on one side, is a considerable portion of excellent meadow ground. It would be too tedious more minutely to describe this land, as a person wishing to purchase would view the premises. One third of the purchase money must be paid in hand, and a liberal credit, with approved security, will be given for the balance. Any person desirous of purchasing at private sale, will make application to the subscriber, at Port-Tobacco, Charles county. An unexceptionable title will be given to the purchaser, and possession of the premises on the 1st day of January, 1807.

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.

Gentlemen,

BEING solicited by many of my friends, both in City and county, to offer myself a candidate for the office of SHERIFF, I have taken the liberty of soliciting your suffrages at the ensuing election, as I consider myself qualified, (from long experience as assistant to the present and two preceding Sheriffs) to discharge the important duties attached to that office. My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation I am anxious to possess; but if correctness, diligence, and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites, I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against

30 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Tuesday the 4th inst. a negro man named BEN; he is a gardener and rough shoe-maker by trade, about 42 or 43 years old; his stature 5 feet 5, to five feet eight inches; stout and square built; he has very black woolly hair; his eyes of a red cast, a flat nose and thick lips; his complexion very black; he is a very artful plausible fellow, and of great address. His cloathing when he eloped, consisted of an osnaburg shirt, an old snuff-colored round jacket, a striped red and white waistcoat, a pair of grey Bath coating pantaloons, a pair of white home-knit yarn stockings, a pair of coarse home-made shoes, & an old castor hat He had also, an old great coat of Welch plains, which had once been of a purple color, but is now almost white, and a red Bandanoe handkerchief for a neckcloth, but as he has a variety of cloaths, he may have carried off others of a different description.

It is not improbable he may go to Baltimore, Alexandria, or Philadelphia, for he absconded about ten years ago, and remained in Baltimore upwards of two months, in the employment of a brick maker.

Whoever will take up the above negro, and secure him in any jail, so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward of thirty dollars. To any person that will bring him home, I will give the following reward, viz.: if taken one hundred miles or upwards from home, I will give fifty dollars; if taken from sixty to one hundred miles from home, I will give forty dollars; if taken from thirty to sixty miles from home, I will give thirty-five dollars; if taken within thirty miles of this place, I will give the above reward of thirty dollars, and I will also pay all reasonable expences of bringing him home.

All masters of vessels and others, are forewarned from harboring, employing or carrying off said slave, as I will prosecute such as do so with the utmost rigor of the law.
