NEW-YORK, April 19.

Arrived,

The brig Sea-Flower, Aborn, of Pawtuxet, in 29 days from Cayenne. Captain Aborn has politely favored the editors of this Gazette with the following intelligence: "Sailed in co. March 19 ship John Smith, Hammer, of Altona, for Hamburg; sch'r Betsy, Smith, for Philadelphia; brig Jane, M'Cobb for Boston; ship Belville, Peck, for New-York, schr. Glide, Taylor, for Boston; sch'r Hannah Boardman, of Newburyport, for Surinam. Left sloop Diana Lewis, of Alexandria, uncertain; brig Angel, Smith, Philadelphia, ditto; sch'r Nancy, Taylor, of Boston, to sail in 4 days for Berbice; sch'r Isabella, Bliss, of Boston uncertain; sch'r Good-Intent, Rathwell, to sail in 20 days for Baltimore; and sch'r Adela, Orton, for New-York, the 24th of March. In 17 days after our departure from Cayenne, we got soundings in 17 fathoms water, in lat. 36, 7; after which we experienced very violent gales from the NW. and WNW. which drove us off the coast. In lat. 36, 35, long. 73, 39, spoke the schr. Sea-Flower, of Wilmington, (Del.) 13 days from Porto-Rico, for Philadelphia. Captain Aborn arrived at Cayenne on the 5th of Jan. when an embargo existed on all neutral vessels, which continued till the 19th of March, in expectation of the arrival of a division from the Rochefort squadron, which had captured and sent into Cayenne, in January, the following English ships, viz. Robert, Blaze, Hero and Flora, out of a convoy bound to the West-Indies, with dry good, provisions, coal, slate, &c.—The Oiseau, a French schooner, arrived at Cayenne the 8th of March, in 37 days from Bordeaux, and brought the news of peace with France and Austria, and that a general peace was soon expected; in consequence of which, a grand feast was given by the governor on the 20th of March, and the day celebrated with the firing of cannon, during which time we were in sight of the town. The emperor sent out by the Oiseau, the cross, called the great eagle to the governor, Victor Hughes, which gives him an additional title of officer de la legion d'honneur. In consequence of the embargo existing so long, great sacrifices have unavoidably been made on the sales of American property and payments made in the produce of the colony at a very high rate. The duties have been augmented on the produce of the colony—on cotton 30 livers per 100lb. rocoa 25 do. cocoa 25 do. coffee 28 do. and one per cent. ad valorem on all those articles."
