The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope, will produce such a speedy sale of tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day.

The prizes will be paid in sixty days after the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months will be considered as generous donations to the church.

February 12. eo

To be Sold,

One of the best servants in the state, with one fault.

A NEGRO MAN, about 30 years of age, who can turn his hand to any thing; he can shave and dress hair well; wait on table; he is a good Painter and Glazier. His standing employment for some years past, has been driving a carriage, and taking care of horses, that few understand better. With all these qualities, an attachment to a set of idle companions, and the gin-shop, renders him unfit for the city. If his master lived in the country, 100 0 dollars would not purchase him. So atisfied is his master, that a removal there would make an entire change in his conduct, that any gentleman disposed to purchase, may have him on reasonable terms, and a few months on trial. Enquire of the printers.

March 19. eo12t

To be Sold,

A TRACT OF LAND called Campbell's Chance, lying on Elke-Ridge, adjoining to Mr Richard Owens's Merchant Mill-seat, on the north branch of Patuxent. It contains about 250 acres; it is plentifully supplied with wood; the soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain and tobacco—the situation is remarkably healthy, and in the midst of a very agreeable neighborhood—the title is indisputable. It is twelve miles distant from Elke-Ridge landing, twenty from Baltimore, and twenty-five from Washington. There are two tenaments on said land; the tenants removeable annually. It will be sold very reasonably for cash, bank-stock, or on a short credit, on giving unquestionable security. For terms apply to Mr. Francis I. Mitchell, in Baltimore; Mr. John Muir, in Annapolis; Mr. Robert Brent, in Washington, or to the subscriber, living near Port-Tobacco, in Charles county.

THAT he continues to solicit their patronage for the office of Sheriff, at the ensuing election.

WE, the subscribers, of the city of Baltimore, do hereby certify, that Mr. William Merryman has acted towards us, as his creditors, in an honorable and upright manner—and has settled with us, we believe, to the utmost of his ability, and much to our satisfaction.

We are convinced his failure in business proceeded not from his own misconduct, but from those misfortunes incident to trade.

And further, after the insolvent act was passed in his favor, he shewed no disposition to use it to our injury, but made us, his creditors, such liberal propositions as to convince us of his correct intentions towards us.

The Elegant High-Bred Imported Horse

FLORIZEL.

WILL stand the ensuing season at the subscriber's stable, near the Trap, Newcastle county, state of Delaware, on Monday's, Tuesday's and Wednesday's; at the town of Newport, on Thursday's, Friday's and Saturday's; and will be let to mares at eight dollars the single leap, twelve dollars the season, or thirty dollars to ensure a mare being with foal, the money to be paid on the first day of October next, either to Thomas Colwell, Newport; or James Riddle, Newcastle; or the subscriber: but from those that pay the money on or before the first day of October next, there will not be demanded more than six dollars the single leap, twelve dollars the season, or twenty dollars to ensure a mare being with foal. No discount shall be made to those who will not comply with the last mentioned condition. Five shillings to the groom, to be paid when the mare is first covered. If mares ensured shall be sold or otherwise disposed of, the full price of ensuring will be demanded To prevent disputes, payment is not to be made to any but the above mentioned gentlemen or the subscriber.

Florizel was bred by the duke of Bedford, and imported by Mr. Hellen. He was got by the noted Florizel, the sire of Diomede, (now standing in Virginia at one hundred dollars a mare) his dam, brown mare, by Alfred; his gran dam Fairy Queen, by young Cade; (Fairy Queen is the grand-dam of Bedford, who was sold to col. Hampton of South Carolina, for five thousand dollars,) his great grand-dam, Ruth's Black Eyes, by Crab; his great, great, grand-dam Warlock Galloway, by Snake; his great, great, great, grand-dam, by the Bald Galloway; and his great, great, great, great, grand-dam Curwin's bay Barb.

Florizel is a horse of great constitution, genuine spirit, and without vicious habits. He is a very sure foal-getter; his colts have great size and bone. If size and blood united can recommend a horse, Florizel must stand high in the public estimation. It would be superflous to remark, that these undoubtedly contribute to the breed of horses in this country. It would be equally unnecessary to enumerate his offspring, let it suffice to say, that he is sire of almost every valuable horse in the county.

The season will end on the last day of June. Punctual attention, and the greatest care shall be paid; but no responsibility for escapes or accidents, by

WILLIAM FRAZER.

Pledge of a silver Cup. I pledge myself to give a silver cup or bowl, of not less than fifty pounds value, to be run for at some convenient place, in all the month of Nov'r, 1810, (ground, day, and judges to be fixed upon by me in due time hereafter) free only for any colt, gelding or filly then three years old, which was got by my bay horse Florizel. The conditions upon which I give the above cup, are as follow:—Every person desirous of running for the above plate, must enter his colt, gelding or filly on or before the 10th day of October 1809, describing the color of the foal, and that of the mare, and who the mare was owned by at the time she was covered by Florizel, or to be thereafter excluded from the race. From the moment of which entrance, the persons entering them, shall stand in honor and in law, play or pay, to pay or cause to be paid into the hands of the judges of the race, the evening before starting, ten dollars for each colt, gelding, or filly so entered by them, making at the same time of payment, a declaration, that to the best of their knowledge and belief, the said colt, gelding, or filly, was got by William Frazer's horse Florizel, out of Mr. —— mare, in the year 1806, and that no person who has been expelled from any jockey club, is directly or indirectly an owner or concerned in the said colt, gelding, or filly, the race to be one single two-mile heat, carrying 100lb. each, and no allowances. Any person except expelled members, may enter and start as many as he pleases, and the entrance may be made by letter from the owner, if presented in due time. In a race of 1 heat, there cannot be a confederacy. The winner of the race to be entitled to the cup and one half of the entrance money, the second best to be entitled to three fifths of the remainder, and the third horse, to be entitled to the remainder; and they shall be paid in the order which they are here mentioned. I will not be answerable for any deficiencies arising from subscriptions not paid. The cup together with the money paid, and the subscription paper will be on the judges stand, and immediately delivered to the winners.

WILLIAM FRAZER.

N. B. The elegant hunting horse ROCKINGHAM will stand at the above place, at 4 dollars the single leap, 8 dollars the season, and 12 dollars to ensure a colt, 5 shillings to the groom. If paid by the first of October next, 6 dollars will be taken for the season, 12 dollars to ensure a colt. Rockingham is a beautiful bay, sixteen hands high, thought to be as fine a figure and form as any horse of that strane, with great spirit and action.

It is unnecessary to say any thing more about the above horses, as they will shew for themselves. Good pasture provided for mares bro't from a distance. The season will end the last day of August.
