SALEM, April 23.

Arrived, Barque George-town, capt. George Ropes, 152 days from Batavia—Left there Nov. 21, ships Union, Jacobs, for Philadelphia, to sail in all December, ship Andrew, Watkins, of do. uncertain; ship Topaz, Barnard, of Boston, do.; Ann, Rutter, of Baltimore, do. Erin, Stevenson, of Baltimore, to sail in 10 days; Catherine, Woodward, Boston, in 4 days; brig Naiad, Robbins, of and for N. Y. Lovely Lass, Hodgson, of Philadelphia, for Calcutta next day; ship Margaret, Heard, of Baltimore, uncertain; David, Webber, of Gloucester, to sail the last December for Boston; George, Hamburg, of and for Philadelphia, 4th Dec. On the 24th November off the port of Bantam, spoke with and boarded the ship Samuel Elam, of York, bound back to Batavia,; the captain and most of the crew sick, and not able to work the ship to beat out of the Straits; she left Batavia on the 15th, bound home. November 27, parted company with the Lovey Lass, Hodgson, of Philadelphia, near Prince's Island, mouth of the Straits of Sunda. November 30, Java-Head bearing E. N. E. 28 leagues, was boarded from the ship Argo, of Salem, Abijah Northey, master, 157 days from Salem, bound to Bstavia; three hands sick with the scurvy. January 28, near the Cape of Good Hope, was boarded from one of his Britannic majesty's 64 gun ships, under French colors, name unknown—the officer demanded all my letters and papers, and log-book, which he took on board his own ship, notwithstanding it then blew a hard gale, and the sea rough—after keeping them near three hours, they were sent back, the greatest part of the letters having been broken open and sealed again—I was then suffered to proceed on my passage, and he hoisted his English colors.

BY THIS DAY's MAILS.

NEW-YORK, April 28.

In our paper of Saturday, will be found a statement of the unjust seizure of our vessels, and the impressment of our citizens, by the British armed force now off the Hook: we then gave it as our opinion that these depredations would not cease there, and it is with the deepest sorrow and regret that we record the following wanton & unprovoked

MURDER!

When the sloop Richard, capt. Pierce, was coming into the Hook, on Friday evening, from the Delaware, she was fired at twice by the British ship of war Leander. After the first shot the sloop hove to, when John Pierce, brother of the captain, who was standing at the helm, was killed instantly by the second shot.

When the account of this atrocious murder was first circulated on Saturday, a number of citizens went in pursuit of a boat loaded with a supply of fresh provisions for the vessels blockading our harbor, which they brought back to the city, and conveyed to the Alms-House, amidst the loud huzzas of the people.

City of New-York, ss.

JESSE PIERCE, master of the sloop Richard, a coasting vessel of Brandywine, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that as he was approaching Sandy-Hook, and was about a quarter of a mile from the beach, and 2 miles south from the light-house, in his said vessel, on Friday evening about 5 o'clock, two shots were fired at different times from a large British ship of war, with two tier of guns supposed to be the Leander; that one of the said shot struck about forty yards ahead of the said vessel, and the other went nearly over her---upon which the deponent rounded to his vessel, and about five minutes after, another shot was fired from the said ship and struck the taffel rail and the quarter rail, and killed immediately a man at the helm named John Pierce, brother of the deponent, and who was a hand on board of his vessel. That the deponent cannot actually determine the distance of the sloop from the Leander, but he conjectures it to be above a mile. That the deponent then continued his course and entered the Hook without any further molestation.

JESSE PIERCE.

Sworn 26th April, 1806, before De Witt Clinton.

Hezekiah Pratt, master of the brig Sally, of this port, deposes, That as he was approaching the said port from St. Thomas's, on Friday evening, and within twenty rods distant from the within mentioned sloop, he observed the facts stated in the within affidavit of captain Pierce, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief they are true, except the killing of the man, of which the deponent has no personal knowledge. That there were at that time three ships of war in the offing, and that the one mentioned in the within affidavit was a two decker, and the largest. That all the said vessels of war fired at the deponent's vessel, at least twenty shots in the whole---but that he proceeded on without coming to. That a sloop of war fired at the deponent's vessel when he was about a quarter of a mile from the shore, and after the within mentioned death is said to have occurred. That about twenty sail of vessels were coming into port at the same time, and that upwards of a hundred shots were fired at the said vessels by the said ships of war.

HEZEKIAH PRATT.

Sworn 26th April, 1806, before De Witt Clinton.

IN COMMON COUNCIL,
April 26, 1806.

The mayor laid before the common council two affidavits respecting the atrocious conduct of the British, in murdering JOHN PIERCE, one of our fellow-citizens, while on board the sloop Richard, one of our coasting vessels, near Sandy-Hook. And also in violating the jurisdictional rights of the United States.

Therefore, Resolved, That in testimony of the lively indignation which this board feels respecting the atrocious murder of a citizen of the U. States, and this daring aggression upon our national rights; that the said JOHN PIERCE be interred, with the assent of his relatives, at the public expence, on Monday next, at 12 o'clock; that alderman Fairlie, Mr. Jacob Mott & Mr. John D. Miller, be a committee to make the necessary arrangements on this occasion; that this board will attend the funeral in a body; that all the captains of American vessels in the harbor be requested to hoist their colors half mast on that day; that the bells be tolled during the solemnity, and that our fellow-citizens generally be invited to unite with us on this melancholy occasion.

The mayor having informed the common council, that he had immediately communicated to the president of the United States a statement of the improper conduct of the British ships of war off our port,

Resolved, That the board approve of the mayor's prompt attention to the interest of our city, and that he be requested to obtain such farther information as may be practicable, respecting illegal captures, impressments and detensions off our port by the said ships, and to transmit the same to the national executive, in full confidence that proper measures will be adopted for the vindication of our national honor and interest.

By the common council,
T. WORTMAN, C. Clk.

FUNERAL PROCESSION.
JOHN PIERCE,

Who was murdered by a shot from the British ship of war Leander, Henry Whitby commander, within a quarter of a mile of Sandy-Hook, on Friday, the 25th instant, at 5 o'clock, P. M.

The committee appointed by the common council to superintend the funeral of John Pierce, have concluded on the following arrangement:

The masters of American vessels in port are requested to display their flags half-masted from sunrise till sunset.

The funeral procession to move from the city Hall precisely at 12 o'clock, The bells of all the churches to be tolled, until the arrival of the corps at St. Paul's church, the place of interment.

ORDER OF PROCESSION.

The Reverend Clergy.

Pall Bearers — Pall Bearers

Masters of Coasting vessels — Masters of Coasting vessels

Brother of the deceased.
Crew of the sloop Richard, to which the deceased belonged.
Seamen.
MAYOR.
Common Council.
Civil Officers.
Citizens---four deep.

The procession to move thro' Wall-street, Pearl, Whitehall-st. and Broadway, to St. Paul's church.

The reverend clergy are respectfully requested to attend at the common council chamber, City Hall, at 11 o'clock, A. M. And our fellow citizens are generally invited to assemble in front of the City-Hall at the same hour.

The committee feel confident that the demeanor of every citizen who attends the funeral will be such as the solemnity of this melancholy occasion demands

JAMES FAIRLIE,
JACOB MOTT,
JOHN D. MILLER,
Committee

By the ship Factor, Cauldwell, in 43 days from Greenock, the editor of the Mercantile Advertiser has received a file of Greenock papers to the 12th March, and London to the 8th, inclusive. They do not furnish an article of political intelligence, tho' ten days later than any previous advices from that quarter

In the English high court of admiralty on the 7th of March, it was decreed in the case of the ship Robert Murray, Swanson, master, captured and carried into Guernsey with a cargo of sugar, that the ship and cargo be restored as claimed, reserving the question of costs and damages and captor's expences.

In the case of the Chance, captain Brown, with a cargo of slaves, captured and sent into Jamaica, their lordships condemned the cargo, the ship having been restored by the inferior court.

The Alexis, Livingston, from Wilmington, arrived at Greenock on the 22d February; the Hope, M'George, from Boston; Bedford, Humphreys, from Charleston; Mary Rice, from Savannah; Recovery, Wylie, from New-York; and Ardent, Crossthwaite, do on the 23d, having all experienced very bad weather. The Ardent had her head and quarter-boards washed away in a heavy gale.

GREENOCK, March 22.

One of our London papers of last night, stops the press to mention the receipt of letters from Holland to the 6th inst.---but they do not contain any thing deserving of particular notice. A proclamation had been issued forbidding the importation of India goods, calicoes, &c. into Brabant, but nothing is said respecting the present situation of the kingdom of Naples, nor do the papers contain the expected speech of Bonaparte to the Senatus Consultum, on which high expectations have of late been placed; it being apprehended, that from the substance of that speech, we shall be enabled to form an opinion of most of his future views, as far as relate to Britain or the continent.

Captain Webb, of the brig Eliza, informs, that just before he left Maricaibo, orders had been received from the governor of Caraccas, to have the militia immediately organized, and the city put in the best state of defence, as a very alarming revolt had taken place in the interior.

Captain Pelton, of the brig Ceres, from Martinico, reports, that on Friday evening, at 7 o'clock, two miles from Sandy-Hook, and within one mile of Jersey shore, he was boarded by the Cambrian frigate. After examining his papers, the officer returned to the Cambrian, and ordered him to lie to until he gave him permission to proceed. The Ceres lay to until she drifted a considerable distance in shore, from the Cambrian, when captain Pelton made sail and stood into the Hook and was chased by the Drinzer sloop of war, as near in as she dare come on account of the darkness of the night. Captain Pelton spoke a pilot boat, and requested them to put a pilot on board, which they refused to do, until she was regularly dismissed by the frigate. Captain Pelton was obliged either to come into the Hook, and up to Staten Island without a pilot, or stay off the Hook all night, and run the risque of being sent to Halifax the next morning.

[The above brig was erroneously stated in our paper of Saturday morning to have been captured off the Hook.]

Cleared, ship Ann, Flower, Hull; brigs William, Gladd, Demerara; Sea-Flower, Delville, Providence; schooner William, Bates, St. Jago de Cuba.

Arrived, ship Factor, Cauldwell, in 43 days from Greenock. Sailed in company with ship Warrington, of Boston, for Savannah.
