WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30.

The ship Louisiana, Norris, of Baltimore, bound to Cowes, was spoken April 19, in lat. 27, 2, N. long. 71, 30, out 8 days, all well.

Extract of a letter from New-York to a gentleman in Philadelphia, dated Sunday, April 27.

"I hasten to forward to you the enclosed articles. I have only time to add, that two or three vessels, with 60 men each, have been dispatched through the Sound to retake the American vessels which have been sent to Halifax."

The supercargo of the ship Good Friends, arrived at Philadelphia, in 76 days from the Isle of France and Bourbon, furnishes the following marine intelligence:

"The Good-Friends left St. Paul's, Bourbon, the 6th Feb.; the day previous, a dispatch boat arrived at St. Dennis, with an account of one of the English frigates cruizing off the Isle of France, having lost all her masts and being obliged to throw her guns overboard in a gale of wind; it was reported that an American ship had towed her away. March 29, in lat 12, N. long. 42, W. was boarded by captain Little, commander of the private armed ship Ainsley, of about 150 tons, carrying 16 guns and 40 men, under English colors, said to be fitted out at Liverpool to cruize off that station for homeward bound India ships, sailing under the flag of the United States, but were well known to be French property, or laden with such. Captain Little had a list of all the American vessels that had been at the Isle of France the last year, with the names (as he said) of the real and nominal owners of each; he mentioned several vessels which he was very desirous to fall in with coming from the Isle of France. About five weeks previous to boarding the Good-Friends, captain Little informed he had boarded the ship George Washington, of Salem, and had ordered her for Liverpool. He also informed that a short time before he had ordered another vessel under the flag of the U. S. to the same place, but declined giving her name. The officers were very scrutinous in examining the Good-Friend's papers. Captain L. demanded the instructions of the owner to the supercargo, and opened a number of letters, the mate & seamen were taken on board the Ainsley, and detained 24 hours. Lat 34, 43, N. long. 71 1-2, W. saw the wreck of a schooner, about 80 or 90 tons, her foremast gone, her quarter deck and plank clear off, with yellow sides and mouldings, could not discern the name, but thinks from appearance, she had not been many days at sea.

Kingston, (Ulster county, N. Y.) April 13.

Spirit of the times!—On Saturday last, col. Bruyn, a man who fought and endured every hardship in our revolution, to secure to himself and his fellow-citizens the free and honest exercise of the rights of freemen—was served with a supreme court writ, in favor of James Cheetham! Mr. John Tremper was at the same time served with a similar writ, and the editor of this paper with a pair, in favor of the same gentleman!!!!

The cause of action not being set forth in either of these writs, the public are left, with us, to conjecture our crime. We did admit into our paper, certain resolutions of the independent republicans of our village, expressive of their opinion of certain political men and measures, signed by colonel Bruyn and Mr. Tremper, as chairman and secretary. If this constitutes our offence, it presents us with the first and an alarming attempt to suppress the free impression of the public sentiment, and affords a sad evidence of the persecuting & tyrannical views of those men whose sentiments Cheetham professes to express, and by whom he may have been instigated in the present measure.

Fellow-citizens of Ulster! you see the attempt which is made by our enemies, to prevent you from exercising one of the most inestimable privileges of Americans---to prevent you from speaking boldly on political subjects. At the ensuing election you have an opportunity not only to avenge your wrongs, but to secure your sacred rights from violation. Stand forth in the majesty of freemen! Be firm and vigilant! and evince to the state, that you are determined to preserve and perpetuate your republican rights and privileges.

EDUCATION.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he intends to open a school on Monday, the 5th day of May, at Mr. Winn's, in Franklin-street; he flatters himself that he will be able to give those who favor him with the tuition of their children, a degree of satisfaction they have been heretofore unacquainted with, for which he refers them to the following testimonials from the last place he taught at.

FREDERICK-TOWN, April 25, 1806.

WE, the undersigned, having attended to, and frequently visited the school taught by Mr. Patrick Edwards in this place, several of us having children under his management, feel a pleasure in publicly expressing our satisfaction of the progress made by all the children under his care, in the first rudiments of the English language, and the correctness with which they read; and it is justly due to Mr. Edwards to declare, that their every performance surpassed our most sanguine expectations. Witness our hands.

The mode Mr Edwards teaches by, we think far preferable to any heretofore practised by any teacher.

The Subscriber,

TO save the trouble of particular communications, to those gentlemen in the different quarters of the state, who have been so kind as to take charge of subscription papers for the work in which he is engaged, on land affairs, takes this method of notifying them, that the undertaking is in such forwardness, as to require that his dispositions for publication should be conclusively settled by the end of August next. As the general approbation and encouragement which this design has received, leave but little doubt of his obtaining a moderate compensation for his labor, he does not mean to hazard much for the possibility of greater advantage, but intends to limit the number of copies to be printed, very nearly to that of the subscriptions which shall have been received by the period above-mentioned. He therefore respectfully requests those gentlemen, to forward to him, in the course of the said month of August, either the subscription papers in their hands, or transcripts of the signatures thereon, (the latter in preference, where there may still remain an expectation of augmenting the lists) and that in the mean time, they would take all convenient means of announcing and explaining the undertaking to their fellow-citizens, in order that he may be enabled, with some degree of exactness, to ascertain and provide for the real demand for the work.
