The Subscriber

HAVING returned from Europe, takes the liberty of informing his former friends, and the inhabitants in general, that he will resume his former occupation, on Monday the 2d of June next, in the same house, no. 15, George-street, Fell's Point. He pledges himself that no labor shall be spared, or attention wanting, to facilitate the improvement and to expand the minds of pupils committed to his care. It may be proper to inform those unacquainted with the former plan of his academy, that he teaches Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geometry, Trigonometry, Altimetry, Surveying, Mensuration, Geography, the Use of the Globes, Navigation and Practical Astronomy. Those who may favor him with their attendance, in studying the important methods of ascertaining the Longitude by observation, are informed, that it (the longitude) can and is determined to 20 miles; and if they do not find ample demonstration given of its certainty, by a variety of observations, he will not charge one single cent for his trouble.

H. GARDINER.

N. B. Gentlemen of erudition, it is hoped, will not think the above assertion a pedantic flourish, as it is inserted in order to stimulate the minds of those unacquainted with the beauty and utility of this most valuable branch of nautical knowledge.

A great proportion of this tract is in natural meadow, which is intersected by a number of small rivulets; the remainder is heavily timbered, and well adapted to the raising of small grain. It lies about forty miles to the south-west of fort Cumberland, is on the waters of the Great Youghoughany, and about 4 miles distant from the main road leading through Virginia to the western country. The same is divided into small tracts, comprising from 300 to 400 acres each, to suit purchasers.

2. "Good Hope." This tract lies contiguous to the "land flowing with milk and honey," and contains 389 acres, 120 whereof are natural meadow, the residue is heavily timbered, and in the certificate is described "the first quality land."

3. "Clover Bottom" lies on the Little Crossings, about 3 miles south of Braddock's road, contains 132 acres of land, a part of which is well calculated for meadow, the remainder is well timbered, and of the first quality. The Grist mill is three stoies high, and has an exceilent pair of country stones; there is also a wheel for a pair of Burrs.

4. "Cornucopia". This tract contains 1100 acres, and is the residence of Mr. Dan. Grant The improvements are, a large and comfortable dwelling-house, and an extensive barn with stabling underneath; a young thriving orchard, and about 100 acres of cleared land under good fencing. Braddock's road passes hrough said farm, which makes it an eligible stand for a public house, being about twenty-two miles from Fort Cumberland. Few arms in Maryland, the same distance from Baltimore, are more valuable than this. It is of the first quality as to soil, heavily timbered, and nearly the one half of it well adapted to timothy meadow; the residue equally well adapted to the raising of wheat, rye, oats, &c. As the above scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two blanks to a prize, and all prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the lottery is completed, without any deduction, the managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the tickets, as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the managers have given bond to the state of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars for the due performance of the trust.

Proposal

BY GEORGE DOBBIN & MURPHY

For publishing by subscription, in one volume octavo, price to subscribers one dollar and fifty cents, neatly bound, payable on delivery,

THE LIFE OF THE
REV. JOHN WESLEY, A. M.
To which will be prefixed,
A comprehensive history of the Wesley Family:
And an Appendix,
Exhibiting the rise, progress, and present state the Methodist Church, in the United States.

THE Rev. Mr. Wesley was one of the most distinguished characters, who arose in the christian world during the 18th centry. The variety of his writings, the number of christians who have joined him, his extraordinary zeal, indefatigable perseverance, and exemplary life, all point him out as worthy of imitation. His publications in which the events of his life are recorded, are so maltifarious, that it was desirable to have a more brief relation of his journeys and ministerial success. This has been already executed by Dr. Whitehead, Dr. Cocke and Mr. Moore, and others still more concisely. The object of this publication is to connect together in one volume, the most striking events which occurred during his long existence—Two motives have impelled this attempt—the scarcity of Dr. Whitehead's volumes, and a desire in many of the friends to see a portable account of the founder of the present Methodist societies, with a history of the means, which used under the blessings of God, have rendered their members so numerous.

The above work will be printed on a new type and good paper. It will be put to press as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to defray the expences.
