From the United States Gazette.

THE MEMORIAL OF S. G. OGDEN.

(Concluded.)

Your memorialist further respectfully represents that the honorable judge Patterson being sick and unable to attend at the last circuit court of the United States held for the district of New-York, the court was opened on the first day of the present month by the honorable Matthias B. Talmage, esq. who alone presided during the term; that on the first day of the sitting, your memorialist was surrendered by his sureties. Whereupon the district attorney moved the court that your memorialist might be committed; upon this the counsel of your memorialist prayed that the warrant upon which your memorialist had been taken might be filed, that they might have an opportunity of seeing with what crime your memorialist was charged, or by what authority he had been held to bail; but this the court refused to order, and without giving your memorialist or his counsel any opportunity to see or examine for what cause he was to be committed, the court made an order in the words following: "At a stated circuit court of the United States, held for the district of New-York at the city of New-York, in the second circuit, on Tuesday, the first day of April, 1806, a. 11 o'clock, A. M. Present, the honorable Matthias B. Talmage, esquire, judge of the district of New-York. The United States of America, vs. Samuel G. Ogden, Samuel Murgatroyd, and Samuel Gouverneur, the sureties for the defendant, to appear and answer, having come into court, and by their counsel prayed leave to surrender the defendant in discharge of their recognizance, which being ordered by the court—thereupon on motion of the attorney of the district in behalf of the United States, that the said defendant stand committed to the custody of the marshal of the district; which being opposed by Mr. Colden, Mr. Hoffman, and Mr. Emmott, of counsel for the defendant, it was thereupon ordered by the court that the said defendant find sureties to abide the further order of this court, or that he stand committed to the custody of the marshal of the district."

Upon this order your memorialist was committed to the custody of the marshal. The counsel of your memorialist then, not knowing what other course to pursue, applied for a habeas corpus to be directed to the marshal to bring up your memorialist, with the cause of his commitment; which writ was granted by the judge, although your memorialist then stood before the court, and had been just committed by its own order. That the habeas corpus was returned immediately by the marshal, with a copy of the above-mentioned order as the cause; and thereupon the counsel for your memorialist moved that your memorialist might be discharged, because it did not appear by the return of the marshal that your memorialist was charged with any crime. But the court ordered that your memorialist should be remanded to the custody of the marshal, unless he should give security to abide the order of the court, himself in ten thousand dollars, with one surety in twenty thousand dollars; and although the counsel for your memorialist warmly remonstrated against such excessive bail being required in such case, the court refused to lessen the sums; and your memorialist was also bound in another recognizance in 5,000 dollars for his appearance as a witness.

Your memorialist further respectfully represents that in order to bring before the court the manner in which he had been examined before the magistrate, and to prevent such illegal testimony from being made use of against him, your memorialist made an affidavit, stating the most prominent circumstances of that examination as they have been herein before set forth, and thereupon the council of your memorialist moved that the court would make an order that the said depositions should not be laid before the grand jury, or that they should in some way be suppressed. But the court, although it admitted that testimony taken as stated in the affidavit of your memorialist was not legal, yet, as the court had a confidence that the attorney-general would not act improperly in the discharge of his official duties, refused to make an order on the subject; notwithstanding which, the district attorney did permit the grand-jury to have the examination and deposition taken in the illegal manner above stated, together with many other depositions against your memorialist, of persons who were examined by the judge in a similar manner in the absence of your memorialist. Your memorialist further respectfully represents that on Monday, the 8th inst. the grand jury brought in a bill of indictment against your memorialist, and thereupon your memorialist was put to plead; whereupon he filed a plea of abatement, verified by the usual affidavit. This plea stated, in substance, that illegal testimony had been before the grand-jury that found the bill previously to its being found, and stated also that that illegal testimony was the abovementioned deposition and examination of your memorialist; as also the deposition of William S. Smith, esq. taken before the judge in the manner abovementioned. The court having granted to the public prosecutor till the next day to answer this plea, he filed a general demurrer thereto, and moved that the defendant might join in demurrer instanter; whereupon the counsel, for your memorialist prayed time for consideration. In the argument on this prayer, the district attorney said the plea was frivolous; to which one of the counsel, for your memorialist answered that he thought it was not so, and that he hoped to be able to convince even this court, that he did not deserve that character. The court called on the counsel for an explanation of what he had intended by the term even this court, and not having received from the counsel an explanation, which the court chose to accept, the counsel was committed to the custody of the marshal; but whilst the order for commitment was making out, the counsel having stated to the court that he did not intend any contempt of the court, he was discharged. The court then obliged your memorialist to join the demurrer, and altho' the counsel of your memorialist most earnestly prayed time until the next day, to make preparations for arguing the same, but the court ordered on the argument the same day, and that day having been consumed in arguments on the demurrer, the next morning the court gave judgment thereon, and overruled the same, not upon any formal objections to the plea, but upon the ground that the grand-jury was an independent tribunal; that they were only to be governed by their consciences in their presentments, and that the court could take no cognizance of the testimony that was offered to them. Your memorialist being then called upon to plead in chief, his counsel moved for leave to amend the plea as to form, which the court refused, on the ground that in giving judgment the form of the pleas had not been considered, that the principle the court had adopted would apply to any form of pleading the matter alledged; a motion was then made and founded on affidavits, which were then before the court, and which have been herein before mentioned, to quash the indictment; but this was also refused by the court on the former principle. And your memorialist was compelled to plead in chief to the indictment; but on application of the counsel of your memorialist, and an affidavit stating the absence of material witnesses, and that your memorialist expected to have the benefit of their testimony by the month of September, the trial was postponed, and a special circuit court ordered to be held for the trial on the 14th day of July next. On the day before the adjournment of the court, the grand-jury brought in a presentment against Matthias B. Tallmadge, esq. judge of the district court, whereby they proscribed the conduct of the said judge, in taking the examination and deposition of your memorialist in the manner before mentioned, as unusual, oppressive and tyrannical.

Thus has your memorialist laid before your honorable body, a detail of these unparalleled circumstances, prompted so to do, not only by a hope that by your interference with the executive, your memorialist may be saved from unmerited punishment, but also by a belief that it was his duty as a citizen, to expose the illegal and oppressive proceedings of a magistrate of the United States, to those who alone can make him account for his conduct.

Your memorialist submits his case to your wisdom, and prays such relief as the laws and constitution of his country and your wisdom and goodness may afford him, and as in duty bound will ever pray.

SAMUEL G. OGDEN.

New-York, April 18, 1806.

BY THIS DAY'S MAILS.

NEW-YORK, May 26.

A letter from Cadiz, of the 31st March, mentions that the ship Washington, & the brig Fortune, both from New-York, arrived there the day before. The brig Mary, Cornwall, of New-York, from Charleston, with a cargo of rice, was boarded off Cadiz by two British cruizers, and was suffered to go in, and put under a 40 days quarantine. The same letter quotes flour at 8 dolls. staves 150, and every thing in the same proportion.

Arrived, the ship Cheeseman, Bell, in 65 days from Amsterdam. May 18, in lat. 41, 38, long. 63, 53, saw 7 sail of British merchantmen under convoy of a sloop of war, from Halifax, for the W. Indies.

The ship Venus, Bunce in 56 days from Bristol. April 20, in lat. 42, long. 39, spoke the ship John, 19 days from London, for Philadelphia.

Arrived, brig Caroline, Brown, Bayonne, 49 days; schr. Prospect, Burgess, Malaga, 80.

Cleared, ship Jefferson, Harison, Canton.

Yesterday arrived, schr. Prospect, capt. Burgess, from Malaga, which place she left the 20th of March. No American vessels there.—On the 13th of May, in lat. 30, long. 64, spoke ship Pompey, o and for Salem, from Lisbon, out twenty-nine days.—Captain B. put into Gibraltar, where he was quarantined, and left at that port the 6th of April, the United States ship Essex, and schooner Mohawk, of and for Boston, in five days—The brig Eliza, Henry, for New-York, sailed from Gibraltar in co. with the schr. Prospect.

Same day arrived, ship Fair American, capt Frailey, 49 days from Amsterdam. On the 4th of April, in lat. 48, 10, long. 11, spoke the brig Columbia, capt. Cordin, of and from Norfolk for Cowes and a market, out 36 days, all well. And on the 7th of May, lat 41, 42, long. 43, 30, spoke ship Good Hope, of Newbury from Boston, for Amsterdam, out 6 days.

CHARLESTON, May 16.

Captain Jenkins informs us, that 3 British frigates, a brig and 2 schooners were cruizing off the island of Porto-Rico; one of the frigates had cut out a Spanish schooner from a port in that island, having on board a cargo worth 32,000 dollars, in specie and cocoa.

At a meeting held at Planter's hotel, on the 12th inst. by the American masters of vessels in this port, to adopt some mode of expressing their disapprobation of the recent conduct of the British armed force off New-York upon our fellow-citizens, when in the pursuit of their lawful business, and within the jurisdiction of these United States.

And likewise in paying a tribute of respect to the unfortunate John Pierce, who fell a victim to British cruelty and injustice, by a shot from the British ship Leander, commanded by Henry Whitby, when within a quarter of a mile of Sandy-Hook, on the 25th April, at 5 P. M.

Captain DAVID JEWET, in the chair.

On motion, Resolved, That captains Peter Wm. Marrenner, Charles Cromwell, Daniel Jones, Isaac Lesesne, Wm. Brewster, Daniel Bragdon and Isaac Seymour, be a committee to prepare and report to this meeting, resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting, to be proposed to a subsequent one, to be held at Sallee's long-room, on the 14th inst. at 7 P. M. Which meeting being held according to appointment, the committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, As the sense of this meeting, that it accords with every sentiment expressed by the citizens of New-York, upon the late unwarrantable, wanton and cruel violation, on the part of the British cruizers off Sandy Hook, of the laws of humanity, hospitality, and the
