Advertisement. AS MR. THOMAS SUTTON was on his passage from Annapolis to this city, he fell overboard, and was unfortunately drowned on the morning of the 29th of December, near North Point. Means have been used for the recovery of the body, but the persons employed therein have been unsuccessful. The object of this advertisement is respectfully to request those who may find the body, to return it to his afflicted parents, if practicable. A generous reward will be given, and compensation made for all expense attending it. If it is not convenient to send the body to Baltimore, they will lay his parents under a perpetual obligation by decently interring it. The following is a description of his person and dress: He had on a black close coat, a pair of orange-colored pantaloons, and a great coat of thick hairy cloth—he was about 5 feet 8 inches high, thin face, with prominent features, and light hair parted.
