To an impartial Public!

Various reports having been spread to the detriment of my character, tending to make an impartial public believe, of my being concerned in the failure of Charles Morneweck, I hereby declare that I never was, nor am at present, in the most distant connection with him, neither have I had any thing belonging to him, in my possession. The furniture in the Hensateck Hotel, is my sole property, and the business carried on by me is for my own account. Whoever should doubt this assertion will please to call on Mr. Peter Arnold Karthaus, merchant, of this place, who will fully convince them thereof. I flatter myself to give entire satisfaction to those who favor me with their patronage, by a prompt attention to the fulfillment of my wishes, and by the moderation of my charges. F. W. HENCKE.
