NEW & CORRECT EDITIONS OF LAW BOOKS.

WILLIAM P. FARRAND,
LAW AND WHOLESALE BOOKSELLER, PHILADELPHIA.

Is reprinting, correctly, the following valuable Law Books, several of which will be published with new references to the later English reports, and to the Reports of Decisions in the United States, viz:
BACON'S ABRIDGEMENT, (Gwillim's) to be printed from the new and improved edition of this work, the last volume of which is just finished in London.
HARRISON'S CAANCERY PRACTICE, with additions and several new precedents, by W. Parker.
DOUGLASS'S REPORTS, from the last London edition, with additions and NEW REFER-ENCES.
TIDD'S PRACTICE of the Court of King's Bench in personal actions, printed from the new edition, enlarged and corrected by Mr. Tidd.
COWPER'S REPORTS of cases argued and determined in the Court of King's Bench, from Hilary term 14 Geo. III. to Trinity term 18 Geo. III. from the new London edition, and with NEW REFERENCES.
ROBERTS on Voluntary and Fraudulent Conveyances.
BURROWS'S (Sir James) REPORTS, printed from the fourth and last London edition, with notes and NEW REFERENCES.
SUGDEN'S TREATISE of the Law of Vendors and Purchasers of Estates; also ABRIDGMENT of the Laws of NISI PRIUS, part I. were put to press in December, and are in a forward state.
IT is now fully ascertained that the inaccuracy of American Editions has hitherto operated greatly to diminish their sale, and to deprive the patronage of men who were best able to support their interests. To those who examine this subject with the attention it really deserves, it will evidently appear that there has been too much cause for censure. It will also appear that in some instances, where great pretensions have been made to accuracy, there exists the greatest cause for censure. There might be several instances given of this kind, though it were to be wished they did not exist. Considering, therefore, that such is the fact; considering also that disappointments may have begotten a still greater want of confidence in the public mind, and that notwithstanding, there exists a sincere and general wish to patronise American Publications, when they are deserving, Wm. P. Farrand begs leave to propose the following plan for publishing CORRECT EDITIONS OF LAW BOOKS. He begs leave also to solicit the patronage of gentlemen of the bar in aid of his undertaking, and to express his hopes that the plan he has adopted, which involves an unremitting attention, will be received as a satisfactory voucher for the accuracy and value of his editions.

TO THE PUBLIC.
WM. P. FARRAND gives this public notice that two Proof-Sheets of his Law Books are put up for public examination; one at his own Counting-House, the other at the City Library; and that on application at his counting-house he will pay one dollar for every exor discovered in them, which alters the sense of the passage, or for every erroneous reference.
N. E. I. The London editions from which we print are to be taken as standards, though they are very carefully read and numerous errors are corrected before they are given as copies to print from. 2. Punctuation is so various that the use of points, said to be erroneous, under the full point or period, is not to be considered as subjecting the publisher to the above penalty, though errors of punctuation will be guarded against with the greatest care, and readers will confer a favor on the publisher by pointing out any error of this kind, should such in any instance escape the proof-readers.

lands of John Flint.

Mills for Sale.
THREE highly reputed & valuable Mills, Buzemilk Falls, with thirty acres of land, situated on the Banks of Hudson river, state of New-York, and about sixty miles from the city. This property comprehends two Grist Mills, with five run of stones on the most modern and approved principle, together with a complete set of machinery, such as lectors, with wheat and flour, conveyors, hopper bags and keens, agreeably to the latest improvements of Evans's system. The Bolting Cloths are new, and the whole in excellent repair. Also, a Saw-Mill and two Dwelling-Houses, commanding a beautiful and romantic view of the Hudson and West-Point; a Coopers-Shop and Dwelling, together with other out-houses and conveniences necessary to render the establishment complete. Likewise, a fall of about thirty feet high, unoccupied, immediately above the present mills, extremely well calculated for a Paper-Mill, or any other factory, without in the least interfering with the other mills. The advantages attending this property are numerous, and of a nature which rarely characterize singular establishments. Situated in the vicinity of so important a market as New-York, and on so respectable a navigation as Hudson river, the only route for the produce of the Northern and Western World, a facility of purchasing the wheat at the mill, and of sending the produce to market, is here experienced to an extent which no other situation can boast of. From 40 to 50,000 bushels of wheat has been manufactured annually between March and January, and from 60 to 70,000 could with equal ease be ground were the winter season excluded, which of late years has been so mild that the interruption of the navigation has seldom been of long continuance.
The security and convenience of a sloop of any burthen living so contiguous to the mill that the elevators discharge the cargo wherever the Miller wishes to deposit it, and the facility of loading the flour on board immediately from the Mill door, so materially diminishes labor and expedites business that one vessel will be found sufficient to serve the factory, and perform more than two ordinarily do in such employ.
Also, a Tract of 1000 acres of Land, situated about 60 chains from the above Mills, well covered with timber, on which is an excellent iron mine and through which the Buttermill-Fall stream passes, affording several situations or erecting of iron works.
The estate will be sold on reasonable terms, and property in or near the city of Baltimore will be taken at a fair valuation for one half of the amount if required.
For terms apply to Charles Garts, in the city of Baltimore; or to David Lydig, merchant, New-York, by whom an indisputable title will be given
