Articles of Association OF THE HAGERS-TOWN BANK.

WE, the Subscribers, hereby associate and mutually agree to form a banking company, to be called and known by the name of THE HAGERS-TOWN BANK; and do hereby bind ourselves, and our legal representatives to the observance of the following articles, viz. Art. 1. The capital stock of the said Bank shall be limited to five hundred thousand dollars, to consist of ten thousand shares of fifty dollars each, one-tenth part thereof, or one thousand shares, shall be reserved for the use and benefit of the state of Maryland, to be subscribed in such manner as the legislature may direct; provided, that the state shall not draw a dividend on a greater sum than shall be paid on such shares; and the remaining nine thousand shares to be subscribed agreeably to the allotment herein after mentioned, by opening subscriptions at the following places, under the direction of the following persons, viz. At Hagers-Town, for 5000 shares, by Jacob Schenby, Matthias Shaffner, Martin Kerslmer, Henry Shafer and Jacob T. Townson. At Baltimore, for 2000 shares, by Luke Tieman, James L. Hawkins, Christian Keller, William Matthews and Clement Brooke. At Frederick-Town, for 1000 shares, by John Scley, George Baer, jun. Lawrence Brengle, Roger B. Tancy and George Creager, junior. At Middletown, in Frederick county, for 500 shares, by Joseph Swearingen, Frederick Stemple, James Neale, Thomas Marlow and Thomas Hawkins. At Cumberland, in Allegany county, for 500 shares, by Hanson Bfiscoe, James Scott, Benjamin Tomlinson, David Lynn and Thomas Beall.

Art. 2. It shall be the duty of the president and directors herein appointed, to have the articles of this association printed in the newspapers at Hagers-Town, the Herald and Republican Advocate, in Frederick-Town, the Federal Gazette and the American, in Baltimore, and in the papers Chambersburg, in Pennsylvania, and Martinsburg, in Virginia; also, to prepare and transmit to the commissioners aforesaid, a copy of the articles of this association.

Art. 3. The subscriptions shall be opened at the places before mentioned by the commissioners, or any two of them, on the first Monday in March next, and remain open for three days, from 10 to 5 o'clock, each day, unless the allotted number of shares are sooner subscribed; and if there shall be subscribed, on the first day of opening the subscriptions, at any of the aforesaid places, a greater number of shares than are allotted, the commissioners shall, in the first instance, reduce the highest subscriptions, but if such reduction shall not bring the subscriptions down to the number allotted, then they shall, by lot, determine whose subscriptions shall prevail, or to whom the shares shall belong; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners to return to the president and directors, a list of the subscriptions by them taken, certified under their hands, together with all monies by them received on such subscriptions.

Art. 4. Every subscriber shall pay to the commissioners, at the time of subscribing, the sum of five dollars, on each share he or she may subscribe and the further sum of five dollars on each share, on the first Monday in May next; and the remaining forty dollars in eight equal instalments of five dollars each instalment, on each share subscribed to be paid at the said bank, as the board of directors may call for the same, giving two months notice, and the remaining balance of such calls, but which shall not be called for without the concurrence of two-thirds of the whole of the directors, and no such call, at any one time, shall exceed five dollars on each share subscribed.

Art. 5. If any stockholder shall fail to pay up his, her, or their instalments, of five dollars on each share, on the first Monday in May next, such stockholder shall forfeit to the use of the company, all monies paid and security to such failure or default; but no such forfeiture shall take place, after ten dollars on each share shall have been paid up; and as it is requisite that means shall be taken to secure the regular payment of after calls, therefore if any stockholder shall fail to make regular payment of any instalment or call after ten dollars on each share shall have been paid, such stockholder's money in bank shall remain free from interest, and not entitled to dividend until such instalment or call shall be made good, and the dividend there after to be paid to such stockholder, (as well upon the monies regularly paid, as upon that paid after the default) shall be calculated only from the time when said instalment shall be made good.

Art. 6. No subscriber, or stockholder, or member of the said company, shall be answerable in his person or individual property for any contract or engagement of the said company, or for any losses, deficiencies, or failures of the capital stock of the said company, but the whole of the said capital stock, together with all property, rights and credits, belonging to the said institution, and nothing more shall, at all times be answerable for the demands against the said company.

Art. 7. The affairs of the bank shall be managed by ten directors and a president, seven of whom, and the president, shall reside in Washington county; one in Baltimore county; one in Frederick county, and one in Allegany county; these directors shall be chosen by the stockholders in person or by proxy, in Hagers-Town, on the first Monday in May, 1808, and on the first Monday in May in every year thereafter; and when the state acquires the right of choosing a director, the stockholders shall choose one director less in Washington county; and until the election for directors, as aforesaid, in order that this institution may go into operation as soon as conveniently may be, the affairs of the bank shall be conducted by Nathaniel Rochester, as president, and Ele Williams, Thomas Sprigg, William Fitzhugh, Charles Carroll, Jacob Zeller, Samuel Hughes, jun. William Heyser, Samuel Claggett, (Baltimore) John M'Pherson, (Frederick-Town) and William M'Mahon, (Allegany) as directors, who shall have the power to appoint a cashier and such other officers as they shall deem necessary, and shall act in all other things relative to this institution, as fully as the president and directors, hereafter to be appointed by the stockholders, shall be authorized to do, except that the compensation to be allowed to the president of the bank shall be fixed and determined by the first directors to be chosen by the stockholders.

Art. 8. In choosing directors, the stockholders shall be entitled to vote as follows: For one share, and not exceeding two, one vote each; for every two shares above two, and not exceeding ten, one vote; for every four shares above ten, and not exceeding thirty, one vote; for every six shares above thirty, one vote; for every eight shares above sixty, one vote; for every ten shares above one hundred, one vote; and for every ten shares above one hundred, one vote; but no person or body politic shall be entitled to a greater number than thirty votes, and all votes at elections for directors shall be by ballot, delivered in person or by proxy.

Art. 9. No person shall be admitted to take his seat as director, unless he shall be at the time a stockholder, and if he shall at any time cease to be a stockholder, he shall cease to be a director.

Art. 10. If the president shall be chosen hereafter out of the number of directors, his place shall be supplied by the directors from among the stockholders; if a vacancy shall at any time happen among the directors, by death, resignation or otherwise, the directors shall elect another to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the year, from among the stockholders and in case of sickness, or necessary absence, of the president, he shall, in writing, appoint one of the board of directors to act as president pro tempore.

Art. 11. The board of directors shall have power to appoint a president and other officers and servants, for conducting the business of the company, and shall fix the compensation to be allowed them, which expenses shall be defrayed out of the funds of the company.

The board of directors shall also have power to purchase, lease or rent a proper building, in Hagers-Town, for the bank, at the expense of the company; they shall likewise have power to make, revise, alter or amend, rules, orders, by-laws & regulations for the government of the company, and that of their officers, servants, and affairs, a majority of them shall deem expedient, provided, they are not contrary to law, or the constitution.

Art. 12. The company shall in no case be concerned in any article by notes, bills of exchange, mortgages, stock of the United States, or bullion, and insuring against losses by fire, except in the case of debts due to the bank, then they shall be fully justifiable in taking any kind of security they can obtain.

Art. 13. Ordinary discounts may be made by the president and any three directors, but the president and five directors shall be necessary for the purpose of transacting the general business of the company.

Art. 14. Stock in the Hagers-Town bank may be transferred by the holder, in person, or by power of attorney, at the said bank, but all debts actually over due to the company by a stockholder offering to transfer, must be discharged before such transfer shall be made.

Art. 15. Dividends of the profits of the company shall be made at the end of the first year, and half yearly thereafter, and at the end of every three years a dividend of surplus profit shall be made.

Art. 16. The books, papers, correspondence, funds and every transaction of the company, shall at all times be freely open to the inspection of the directors.

Art. 17. A majority of the directors may, at any time, call a general meeting of the stockholders for objects relative to the interests of the company, they giving six weeks notice in the public prints, and expressing in such notice, the points or subjects to be deliberated upon at such meeting.

Art. 18. In case the whole of the shares (except those reserved for the state) shall not be subscribed, on the days for taking subscriptions as aforesaid, the board of directors may open the subscriptions again, at such time and place, or places as they or a majority of them may think proper, first giving six weeks notice of the same in the public prints.

Art. 19. Whenever the state shall become a stockholder to the amount of twenty thousand dollars, of the shares reserved, and shall have paid up the sum to the bank, she shall be entitled to appoint one director.

Art. 20. Before the president and directors shall act as such, they shall take an oath, or affirmation, "that they will faithfully, diligently and honestly, perform the duties of their station;" and the other officers of the bank, shall take a similar oath or affirmation, and shall give bond with security, to the satisfaction of the board of directors, for the faithful discharge of their duties in their several stations.

Art. 21. All notes offered for discount in the said bank, by any person or persons, shall, on the face thereof, be made negotiable at the Hagers-Town bank, and when a drawer shall not reside in Hagers-Town, such note shall be made payable at the house of some person in Hagers-Town, and notice given by the proper servant of the bank at such house, that such note hath become due, shall be, to all intents and purposes held and considered to be as completely binding on the drawer and endorser, as if notice had been personally served on each of them.

Art. 22. And as the agricultural, manufacturing and commercial interests of Washington, and the adjoining counties, will be greatly benefited by this institution, it is believed & expected, that the legislature will (as they have heretofore done in similar cases) grant a charter for incorporating the said company, & confirming, making legal and binding the several articles and regulations before mentioned, with such other provisions, as to the legislature may seem proper, provided they shall not be inconsistent with the articles of this agreement. The board of directors are hereby directed to present a petition to the legislature for this purpose, with a draught of an act of incorporation, agreeably to the principles here in laid down; they are hereby directed also, to petition for, and endeavor to obtain in the charter or act of incorporation, a power for the said company to insure against losses by fire.

Given under our hands, this day of 1807. N. B. It is believed, that not more than 10 or 15 dollars a share will be wanted to constitute a sufficient capital for the first year; & if the shares are all subscribed, it is presumed that not more than 20 or 25 dollars a share, will ever be wanted or called for.

The editors of the Frederick-Town Herald and Republican Advocate, at Frederick-Town; of the Federal Gazette and the American at Baltimore; of the Franklin Repository at Chambersburg; and of the Berkeley and Jefferson Intelligencer at Martinsburg, are desired to publish the above articles of association, once a week, until the 1st Monday in March next, in their respective papers, and transmit their accounts to the president of the Hagers-Town bank, at Hagers-Town, for payment.

The following TRACTS of LAND, lying in Allegany county, Maryland, viz. 1. "Land flowing with milk and honey," containing in the whole about 2747 acres. A great proportion of this tract is in natural meadows, which is intersected by a number of small rivulets; the remainder is heavily timbered, and well adapted to the raising of small grain. It lies about forty miles to the south-west of Fort Cumberland, is on the waters of the Great Youghoughany, and about 4 miles distant from the main road leading through Virginia to the western country. The same is divided into small tracts, comprising from 500 to 400 acres each, to suit purchasers.

2. "Good Hope." This tract lies contiguous to the "land flowing with milk and honey," and contains 389 acres, 120 whereof are in natural meadow, the residue is heavily timbered, and in the certificate is described "the first quality land."

3. "Clover Bottom" lies on the Little Cross-ings, about 3 miles south of Braddock's road, contains 132 acres of land, a part of which is well calculated for meadow, the remainder is well timbered, and of the first quality. On this tract there is a Grist and Saw mill, both of which might be put into good order, at a very small expense. This Grist mill is three stories high, and has an excellent pair of country stones; there is also a wheel for a pair of Burrs.

4. "Cornucopia." This tract contains 1100 acres, and is the residence of Mr. Dan. Grant. The improvements are, a large and comfortable dwelling-house, and an extensive barn with stabling underneath; a young thriving orchard, and about 100 acres of cleared land under good fencing. Braddock's road passes through said farm, which makes it an eligible stand for a public house, being about twenty-two miles from Fort Cumberland. Few farms in Maryland, the same distance from Baltimore, are more valuable than this. It is of the first quality as to soil, heavily timbered, and nearly the one half of it well adapted to timothy meadow; the residue equally well adapted to the raising of wheat, rye, oats, &c. The one-fifth of the purchase money will be required in hand, the residue in five annual payments. Mr. Grant will show the above land to any person who should be inclined to purchase. JAMES P. BOYD. October 19, 1805. 2aw
