

Federal Gazette & Baltimore Daily Advertiser.

Seven Dollars per Annum.]

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1867.

[Vol. XXVI—No. 3970.]

Sale by Auction.

The real estate of Dr. Robert Pottinger, deceased, lying in Prince George's county, and state of Maryland, about five miles from Queen Anne, and recently from George-Town; containing between eight hundred and a thousand acres of land.

THIS valuable Property is situated in the heart of that rich and well known tract of country, called the Forest of Prince George's, and is indisputably among the most fertile and best improved places in the state.

The sale will be made on the premises, on Wednesday, the 18th of February next, if fair, if not, on the first fair day thereafter, at 11 o'clock, in conformity to a decree of the high court of Chancery (the estate not admitting of a division among the representatives of the deceased); and the certainty which the subscriber feels, that those who are inclined to become purchasers, will view the premises before the day of sale, renders any further description of them unnecessary.

The purchase money must be paid, in four equal annual instalments, the purchaser giving bond with approved security for the payment of each instalment, with interest thereon, annually, from the day of sale. On the payment of the purchase money, with the interest thereon, a conveyance will be made to the purchaser, by the subscriber, in virtue of, and pursuant to, the said decree.

THOMAS BUCHANAN, Trustee.

Forgery! Forgery! Forgery!

SUCH Gentlemen as wish to be furnished with the trial of GERARD VONHARTEN, late of Baltimore city, merchant, are requested to leave their address at KEATINGE'S Book-store, where they will be informed of the time and manner of publication.

This trial is not only interesting, but is in itself a curiosity, exhibiting the magnitude of legal sophistry, the cunning of unprincipled men, and a connection of villainy and fraud, unparalleled on the records of any court of justice; in which the lawyer will find some assistance to his logical researches—the merchant a precedent which may steer him from the rocks of duplicity, speculation and hypocrisy—while the swindler is furnished with a delicate olo prepared for him, at the expense of every moral virtue; at the same time he is legally instructed how to get Money! and make the extent of his villainy in procuring it, the means of his acquittal or evading the force of the law, by flitting away and delaying the voice of justice.

A NEW PAPER.

Proposals are now issuing for publishing a newspaper on Fell's-Point, entitled

THE FEDERAL UNION.

The Editors do not conceive it necessary, in this place, to enter into an elaborate detail of their principles and object—let it suffice, that the "Federal Union" will be INDEPENDENT in its principles—that nothing will be wanting in exertion to render it worthy a liberal patronage. The Prospectus will be disseminated throughout the city, when an opportunity will be afforded the public for the exercise of their unbiassed judgement.

CONDITIONS.

It is our intention to issue the "FEDERAL UNION," at the commencement, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays—but if a competent patronage is afforded, a DAILY Paper will be published as soon after as arrangements can be made. The price to subscribers will be five dollars per annum—No money WILL BE REQUIRED UNTIL THE EXPIRATION OF SIX MONTHS. A person is appointed by the Editors, who will wait on the citizens as soon as the Prospectus shall have been distributed. It is proposed to issue the paper, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to warrant it.

In Baltimore County Court,

January 26th, 1867. ON application to the judges of the said county court, by petition in writing of John Neale, of said county, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session, 1865, on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John Neale, has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said act; and the said John Neale, at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two-thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said John Neale (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Federal Gazette, every other day, until the fourth day of April next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the Court-House in the said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said fourth day of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Neale, then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.
