

The alarm begins to dissipate, and the just feeling of our strength and resources will in a little time completely destroy those fatal impressions. The receipts have been so productive, and the income tax promises such happy results, that it is certain the loan for the service of next year will not exceed twelve millions sterling.

PHILADELPHIA, February 16.

Our river which was frozen from side to side as low down as Marcus Hook, in the severe spell we had on Friday night the 6th instant, is now entirely free from ice, & yesterday morning the ship Agness, captain Bunce, & seven or eight others sailed from this port; and four schooners came up as far as the Point, where they lie wind-bound. Extract of a letter from Amsterdam, dated December 29, received in this city yesterday.

We are informed that the supreme court of the United States now sitting at Washington, have decided the same point which occurred in the case of Dutth v. Gatliffe, determined by the supreme court of this state in the same manner, viz. "That the insured has a right to abandon when he receives information that the property insured has been captured and libeled, and may recover for a total loss." This decision of the highest court of judicature of the United States settles the point; and we learn, the court have laid down the law of insurance in strong and plain terms; we hope to be favored ere long with their opinion.

FEDERAL GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18.

The character of Modern France has become so notorious, that when we find her pretending to great friendship for any particular district of Europe, it may be considered as her fixed determination, to seize the favorite spot. Thus Switzerland was, immediately previous, and as a first step, to the usurpation, declared "the first Daughter of Liberty." We now find in Napoleon's message to his senate, an avowal of passionate fondness for the Ottoman empire: therefore he will soon undertake to manage its affairs. The French emperor may use the Porte as an auxiliary in the destruction of Russia—but so soon as this meditated conquest is effected, he will have discovered some error in the government of Turkey, some loving stimulant for affording proof of his devious friendship. This seems evident from a passage in a late imperial address to the senate.
"In this new position (says Napoleon) we have adopted for the inviolable principle of our conduct, to evacuate neither Berlin nor Warsaw, nor the provinces which the force of arms has made to fall into our hands, before the general peace be concluded, the Spanish, Dutch and French colonies restored; before the foundation of the Ottoman power be strengthened, and the absolute independence of that vast empire, the first interests of our people, irrevocably consecrated."

Thus it appears, that the smiling plains of Turkey, and the celebrated hills of Greece have inspired this more than Alexander with a desire to protect the descendants of the great heroes of ancient times. Napoleon will not have the once martial spirit of Lacedaemon to contend with; he will combat no Leonidas at Thermopylae, and he will sit down at Corinth and at Sparta, occupying all of Peloponnesus, without fearing Byzantium.

Paris paper of Dec. 6 states, that the imperial decree upon the blockade of the British islands has been put in execution in Holland, and all the countries of the north, which are occupied by French troops.

Same day the following project of senatus consultum was read: That 20,000 conscripts shall be raised in 1817. They shall be called on at periods fixed by imperial decrees. They shall be taken from the French born from & comprising the 1st Jan. 1787, to the 31st Dec. of the same year.

From a Correspondent.

It afforded no small gratification to the friends of internal improvement, and to all who delight in the increasing splendor and prosperity of Baltimore, to witness the promptitude with which the shares in the different Turnpike roads were taken. It is to the creation of a well-furnished universal market, and to the ease with which our friends in the country may reach it, that this city will eventually, and we trust speedily, be indebted for a commercial character second to none in America. This desirable result will be a sure & ample reward for the untiring assiduity exhibited by our monied men in the pursuit of honorable & lucrative enterprise.

The shares in both the Frederick and the Risterstown roads having been all taken, it is much desired that the Commissioners of the YORK TURNPIKE ROAD would proceed with all possible haste to open their books. From the interest which the inhabitants of Baltimore county feel in the intended road, no fears need be harbored of a failure in the attempt. Along this road must come to our market, a large proportion of the Lime used here, Fire-wood, Timber, and Country Produce generally: for it will not only pass through the richest part of Baltimore county, but will embrace the trade of great part of Harford, Adams, York and Cumberland counties. It is expected that the York Turnpike will commence at the Hay-scales, and approach the Pennsylvania line near a place called the Blue Ball, passing through about 30 miles of very interesting and thickly settled country.

The Commissioners, by an act passed at November session 1804, chap 51 were empowered to receive subscriptions to the amount of 100,000 dollars, in shares of 20 dollars; but when 80 persons shall have subscribed 40,000 dollars (2000 shares) the plan may go into operation.

LONDON, December 5.

Extract of a letter from Edinburgh, Dec. 5. This day came on at Holyrood house, the election of sixteen Scots peers.

The peers present were the following: Dukes of Buccleugh and Argyle; Earls of Errol, Elgin, Morton, Aboyne, Haddington, Leven, Dalhousie, Kelly, Balcararas, Selkirk, Crawford, Aberdeen, Kin-noul, Cathcart, Elphinstone, Glasgow, Lauderdale, Hume, Breadalbane and Stair; Lords Northesk, Somerville, Arbuthnot, Napier, Reay, Kinnaird, Sempill, Ellibank, Rollo, Forbes, Blantyre, and Belhaven.

Roll of the election of the sixteen peers of Scotland, December, 5th 1806.

The candidates were the following:

Errol	44	Somerville	47
Elgin	46	Blantyre	51
Leven	44	Reay	45
Selkirk	46	Kinnaird	41
Northesk	43	Strathmore	31
Balcararas	53	Kelly	35
Aberdeen	43	Haddington	34
Stair	44	Dalhousie	37
Glasgow	50	Aboyne	38
Forbes	53	Saltoun	26
Cathcart	54	Sempill	22
Elphinstone	53	Napier	36

The sixteen first were elected.

All those chosen by the single exception of lord Aberdeen, were supported by the earl of Lauderdale and his friends.

None of the royal family voted except the prince of Wales as duke of Rothsay.

A petition was presented by a person claiming the title of duke of Roxburgh; their lordships refused to receive or acknowledge the claim, as it is pending in the house of lords.

Another petition was presented by lieutenant Hume, of the navy, claiming the title of earl of Marchmont. It was refused, & the claimant referred to the house of lords.

Lord Cathcart protested now, as on former occasions, against lord Saltoun's name preceding his in the peerage.

BY THIS DAY'S MAILS.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.
By arrivals at N. York from Nantz, Amsterdam & London, European intelligence has been received to the last December, from which we collect,

That the emperor Napoleon, having concentrated his forces, by recalling all the detachments, that were not employed in garrison duty, had advanced into Poland, and established his head-quarters at Warsaw, where he had announced by proclamation, his intention to restore the integrity, and independence of Poland.

The king of Prussia had refused to ratify the treaty negotiated by Lucchesini and Zastrow with Duroc, and is said to have joined the Russian army, with the remnant of his troops, amounting to 20,000 men, in the vicinity of Warsaw, where the operations of the campaign were expected to be continued, notwithstanding the advanced season of the year.

The decision of the Turkish government is stated in opposite terms in the French and English accounts—it appears, however, most probable that the Porte has taken part with France, in which case the pressure on Russia will require the utmost resistance of her power, to prevent the dismemberment of her dominions.

The article most interesting to the American reader in the London papers, is the declaration said to have been made by lord Grenville to a committee of merchants, that the differences between Great-Britain and the United States were on the point of adjustment.

Dispatches for government, received by the Kingston, were yesterday forwarded from the post-office by express.

It is stated from Hamburg under date of the 17th of December, that the deputation from that city to the emperor Napoleon had been favorably received, and an assurance given that the property in their bank, would be held inviolate—the severity of the French measures at Hamburg had greatly relaxed.

A letter from the American consul at Nantz, dated 20th of December, states that he had received accounts from Paris that remittances would be permitted to go from the continent to England through the ports of Rotterdam and Lisbon, and that it was highly probable that the intercourse through Nantz would not be obstructed.

Farmer's Bank of Maryland.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Books will be opened at Annapolis, on Monday the 13th day of April next, and continue open the next day for the disposal of the number of Shares remaining unsubscribed in the Farmers Bank, on the Western Shore; the subscription to be taken at the Bank, between the hours of ten and five, each day; the subscribers to pay ten dollars on each share at the time of subscribing, and residue as follows: to wit; Ten dollars on the thirtieth day of June; ten dollars on the 13th day of August; ten dollars on the thirtieth day of October; & ten dollars on the twelfth day of December next, but reserving to any subscriber the liberty of paying at any one of those days, the whole of his subscription then due. The shares which may be subscribed above the number limited, to be reduced by a proportional deduction throughout the several counties, on the Western Shore, or 1/10, if necessary, and the monies that may be paid thereon, to be immediately repaid at the Bank.

If any stockholder shall fail to make regular payment of any instalment (after the first payment) such stockholder's money in Bank, shall remain free from interest and not entitled to dividend, until such instalment, or call shall be made good, and the dividend thereafter to be paid to such stockholder (as well upon the money by him regularly paid as upon the money paid after default) shall be calculated only from the time when said last instalment was made good.

The subscribed shares of the Farmer's Bank having already risen above par, and being in great demand, the directors deemed it to be their duty to give every facility in their power to the citizens of every part of the Western Shore, to become proprietors of a Stock, to which experience has already attached an high degree of confidence and an enhanced value, and which from every appearance, would rapidly appreciate whenever the subscription of the surplus shares should remove the possibility of procuring the stock at a lower value, than the successful management of the institution and the public opinion should have conferred on it, notwithstanding, therefore, that the charter directed that the subscription Books for this stock shall be opened at Annapolis, yet the directors hold themselves at liberty and have determined it to be their duty, to devise means to accommodate the citizens of the several counties, who might wish to subscribe, but who cannot attend at Annapolis; in conformity therefore, to a determination that had already obtained, at a joint meeting of the directors of the Bank and Branch Bank, on a similar occasion, the board have adopted the following resolution—

That the directors for the several counties on the Western Shore, be authorized and directed to receive in their respective counties from all persons who may offer to subscribe for Stock in the Farmer's Bank, on the day, or days appointed for subscribing, powers of attorney, enabling some person to subscribe for them at Annapolis, and also to receive from persons so disposed to subscribe, the sums which are made payable, on subscriptions personally made, and all subscriptions made under powers as aforesaid, shall be held and deemed as valid, as if made by the individuals themselves at Annapolis.

By order,
JONATHAN PINKNEY, Cashier.
