In Baltimore County Court,

February 3, 1807.

ON application to the judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of John Cumming, of said County, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, on the terms mentioned in said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John Cumming has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said act; and the said John Cumming at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two-thirds of the debts due by him at the passing the said act.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said John Cumming (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months before the ninth day of May next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the Court-House, in the said county, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the said ninth day of May next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Cumming, then and there taking the oath by the said Act prescribed for delivering up his property.

Signed per order,
