In Baltimore County Court,

February 3, 1807.
ON application to the judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of John Cumming, of said County, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, on the terms mentioned in said act; a schedule of his property he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act; being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John Cumming has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said act; and the said John Cumming at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two-thirds of the debts due by him at the passing of the said act.
It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said John Cumming (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months before the ninth day of May next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the Court-House, in the said county, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the said ninth day of May next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Cumming, then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.
Signed per order,
WM. GIBSON, Clerk.

Farmer's Bank of Maryland.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Books will be opened at Annapolis, on Monday the 13th day of April next, and continue open the next day for the disposal of the number of Shares remaining unsubscribed in the Farmers Bank, on the Western Shore; the subscription to be taken at the Bank, between the hours of ten and five, each day; the subscribers to pay ten dollars on each share at the time of subscribing, and residue as follows, to wit: Ten dollars on the thirteenth day of June; ten dollars on the 13th day of August; ten dollars on the thirteenth day of October; & ten dollars on the twelfth day of December next, but reserving to any subscriber the liberty of paying at any one of those days, the whole of his subscription, then due. The shares which may be subscribed above the number limited, to be reduced by a proportional deduction throughout the several counties, on the Western Shore, or by lot, if necessary, and the monies that may be paid thereon, to be immediately repaid at the Bank.
If any stockholder shall fail to make regular payment of any instalment (after the first payment) such stockholder's money in Bank, shall remain free from interest, and not entitled to dividend, until such instalment, or call shall be made good, and the dividend thereafter to be paid to such stockholder (as well upon the money by him regularly paid as upon the money paid after default) shall be calculated only from the time when said instalment was made good.
The subscribed shares of the Farmer's Bank having already risen above par, and being in great demand, the directors deemed it to be their duty to give every facility in their power to the citizens of every part of the Western Shore, to become proprietors of a Stock, to which experience has already attached an high degree of confidence and an enhanced value, and which from every appearance, would rapidly appreciate while the subscription of the surplus shares should remove the possibility of procuring the stock at a lower value, than the successful management of the institution and the public opinion should have conferred on it, notwithstanding, therefore, that the charter directed that the subscription Books for this stock shall be opened at Annapolis, yet the directors hold themselves at liberty and have determined it to be their duty, to devise means to accommodate the citizens of the several counties, who might wish to subscribe, but who cannot attend at Annapolis; in conformity therefore, to a determination that had already obtained, at a joint meeting of the directors of the Bank and Branch Bank, on a similar occasion, the board have adopted the following resolution:
That the directors for the several counties on the Western Shore, be authorized and directed to receive in their respective counties from all persons who may offer to subscribe for stock in the Farmer's Bank, on the day, or days appointed for subscribing, powers of attorney, enabling some person to subscribe for them at Annapolis, and also to receive from persons so disposed to subscribe, the sums which are made payable, on subscriptions personally made, and all subscriptions made under powers as aforesaid, shall be held and deemed as valid, as if made by the individuals themselves at Annapolis.
By order,
JONATHAN PINKNEY, Cashier.

Public Sale.

By order of the Orphan's court of Prince George's county will be exposed at Public Sale, to the highest bidder, at the Farm lately occupied by Mr. Richard Champlin, and at his late dwelling in the town of Bladensburg, on TUESDAY the 10th day of March next, if fair, if not the next fair day,
ALL the Personal ESTATE of the said deceased (except the crop of Tobacco) consisting of a number of valuable servants, among whom are some excellent house and kitchen servants, the stock of horses, two of which are very pleasant saddle horses, mules, cattle, sheep and hogs, plantation utensils of every kind, about 150 bbls. corn, 150 bushels of clean rye, upwards of 20,000 wt. of hay, a large crop of well sowed straw, &c. &c. Likewise the unexpired term in a lease for 120 acres of Land, granted on the 31st day of May 1714, for ninety-nine years, being six years after the 31st day of May next. This property lies about one mile west of Bladensburg, directly on the old road to Georgetown, and contiguous to the fine property of William D. Diggs. The improvements are sufficient for the accommodation of a family of middling size and for the advantageous cultivation thereof; there are twenty-six bushels of wheat seeded upon it and about 8 or 10 acres in thrifty clover, and a sufficiency of wood it is believed for its support—a further description of it is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed that those who wish to buy will view the property previous to the sale. An indisputable title will be given. And at the dwelling in Bladensburg, a variety of articles of Household and Kitchen Furniture, several volumes of valuable books, prints, maps and other articles too tedious to mention. The sale will commence on the farm, at 10 o'clock in the morning, and continue from day to day, till all is sold. Terms of sale are a credit of 12 months for all sums above ten pounds, the purchaser or purchasers to give bond, with two good and sufficient securities, carrying interest from the day of sale, and all purchases to the amount of ten pounds and under, the cash is to be paid. No property will be delivered until previously paid, or bonded for as above.
