The Subscriber offers for Sale
The following TRACTS of LAND, lying in Allegany county, Maryland, viz:
1. "Land flowing with milk and honey," containing in the whole about 2747 acres. A great proportion of the tract is in natural meadow, which is intersected by a number of small rivers, the remainder is heavily timbered, and well adapted to the raising of small grain. It is about forty miles to the south-west of Fort Cumberland, and on the waters of the Great Youngbushy, and about 4 miles distant from the main road leading through Virginia to the western country. The same is divided into small tracts, comprising from 300 to 400 acres each, to suit purchasers.
2. "Good Hope." This tract lies contiguous to the "Land flowing with milk and honey," and contains 389 acres, 120 where are natural meadow, the residue is heavily timbered, and the certificate is described "the first quality land."
3. "Clover Bottom" lies on the Little Cross-roads, about 3 miles south of Braddock's road, contains 152 acres of land, a part of which is well timbered, and on the first quality. On this tract there is a Grist and Saw mill, both of which might be put into good order, at a very small expense. The Grist mill is three stories high, and has an excellent pair of country stones; there is also a wheel for a pair of hurs.
4. "Carnegie." This tract contains 1100 acres, and is the residence of Mr. Dan. Grant. The improvements are, a large and comfortable dwelling-house, and an extensive barn with stabling underneath; a young thriving orchard, and about 100 acres of cleared land under good fencing. Braddock's road passes through said farm, which makes it an eligible stand for a public house, being about twenty-two miles from Fort Cumberland. Few farms in Maryland, the same distance from Baltimore, are more valuable than this. It is of the first quality as to soil, heavily timbered, and nearly the one half of it well adapted to timothy meadow; the residue equally well adapted to the raising of wheat, rye, oats, &c. The one half of the purchase money will be required in hand, the residue in five annual payments. Mr. Grant will show the above land to any person who should be inclined to purchase. JAMES P. BOYD, Adm'r. October 10, 1805.

A Valuable Farm for Sale.
Will be sold at public sale on Monday, the 16th day of March next, at 12 o'clock, on the premises, ALL that tract, or parcel of LAND, lying near Creswell's Ferry, within sight of Havre de Grace, in Cecil county, state of Maryland, called the Lucky Mistake; containing 271 acres, more or less, with the improvements, 11 bounds upon the Susquehanna river, and embracing a good Shad and Herring Fishery. The improvements are two dwelling houses, one of stone, the other of logs, a fish-house, and an apple orchard, together with peach & cherry trees. The situation is remarkably healthy and the water good. Herring-run passes through one corner of this tract, on which there was formerly erected a Saw-Mill. The terms of sale will be one-fourth of the purchase money in cash, one-fourth in 6 months, one-fourth in 12 months, and the residue in 18 months, from the day of sale. The purchaser or purchasers to give bonds on interest, with approved security; and on payment of the whole, an indisputable title will be given. GEORGE HIGSON, February 2.

Rappahannock Mills, &c.
THE Subscriber would lease or rent, that valuable property, called Hunter's Works, consisting of a Manufacturing Mill, (situated in the occupancy of Messrs. Coch and Hollingsworth) having two water wheels, with four pair burr-stones, and all necessary machinery; a valuable Grist Mill, Saw Mill, and Houses suitable for millers, coopers and blacksmiths. At this place are the walls and remains of a Forge and Sifting Mill, formerly carried on, the sites of which, and others of the same kind, are excellent for water works of various kinds. This property is on the north edge of the Rappahannock, within two miles of Fredericksburg, and one of Fallmouth; has peculiar advantages of water, and is well situated for the purchase of wheat, now the staple of the country, and of the best crop a large proportion yet to come to market. Also, A valuable Manufacturing Mill, with 2 water wheels, two pair of stones, and the usual machinery, situated on the same edge of the river, within half a mile of Fallmouth, having a convenient and comfortable milling house attached to it, and a canal which now affords water communication from Fallmouth to the mill-pond, and at the expense of 3 or 400 may be extended to the doors of the forge mill. Or I would sell the whole of the above property, under stipulations, for the benefit of contiguous property, but no way injurious to this, and give credit 7 years, if necessary, for three fourths of the amount, and accommodating time for the other fourth. ROBERT DUNBAR, Falmouth, January 23.

100 Dollars Reward.
RAN away, on the 26th instant, from the subscriber, living in Bush River neck, Harford county, Maryland, two negro men, one named BEN, about 35 years old, 6 feet high, straight and well made, of a darkish complexion; high nose; has lost one of his upper fore-teeth; generally wears his wool plated or grained, and plays on the violin. The other named HARRY, about 25 years of age, 5 feet high, darkish complexion; a remarkably handsome fellow, and when spoken to, has handsomely a pleasant countenance. The end of one of his little fingers has been mangled by a piece of timber, the nail split, and the end of the finger thereby rendered blunt; wears his wool generally platted and turned up with a comb. These negroes are brothers, and both very good savvies, and are much accustomed to heaving timber with the broad axe. Their common working cloaths were, a short round-about jacket, of coarse brown cloth, and lined either with green or yellow baize, and shirts and trousers of Russia sheeting, with good felt hats. They probably took with them various other cloaths, which cannot be described. The above reward will be given, for securing the said negroes in any jail without the state of Maryland, or fifty dollars for each, if taken in Harford county, fifteen dollars, and if in any other county within the state, thirty dollars each, with all reasonable charges if brought home. PARKER HALL, Harford county, August 30.
