A REPORT OF THE TRIAL OF THOMAS OLIVER SELFRIDGE, Esq. On an indictment for Manslaughter, for killing

MR. CARLES AUSTIN, On the public Exchange in Boston, AUGUST 4, 1806.

[The lively interest which this extraordinary occurrence has excited in the public mind, called for a full and impartial statement of Facts, both in the development of the testimony, and the pleadings which took place at the trial. This injunction appears to have been fulfilled in the present publication, as it comes from the press, sanctioned by the official reporter of the state and under the supervision of the court itself. The public are therefore presented with all the documents necessary to form a correct understanding of the subject, as well in relation to the unhappy catastrophe, as to the course and operation of the laws in cases of this nature.]

AT THE SAME PLACE MAY BE HAD, A CORRECT STATEMENT OF THE WHOLE PRELIMINARY CONTOVERSY Between Thomas Oliver Selfridge, and Benjamin Austin, (Father of the deceased C. Austin.) BY THOMAS OLIVER SELFRIDGE.

“He takes my life.”

“When he doth take the means whereby I live.”

[This pamphlet embraces a variety of matter, immediately relevant to the unhappy occurrence, which deprived Mr. Charles Austin of life; in which the author in indicating his conduct in this extraordinary affair, is drawn into a retrospection of the general character of Benjamin Austin. In adopting this mode, Mr. Selfridge has given loose to a boldness of asperity, seldom found in the writings of our best authors, and which reflect great credit on his genius and learning.]

Price of the Report, 1 dollar.

Price of the Statement, 37 1/2 cents.
