MR. LE TELLIER

DENTIST, INFORMS the inhabitants of Baltimore, that the Perpendicular instrument that he makes use of, for extracting Teeth, is one invented by himself since he has been in this city, and its utility is equal to the Patent Per- pendicular instrument, which instrument Mr. Le Tellier has used with great success in most of the cities to the South of this. By some persons (who know not the man- ner of operating with Bruff's Patent Instru- ment) it has been said that the said instru- ment could not be used in all cases, Mr. Le Tellier has made observations in the course of his practice, and has found it to answer for two thirds of the cases which offer, and no instrument that has ever been invented can be used to every tooth, but according to the situation of the teeth to be operated on so an instrument must be adapted. He continues to operate in every other branch of Dentistry, and particularly in set- ting ARTIFICIAL TEETH so as to stand firm, and in excellence and beauty so as not to be distinguished from natural by the ex- amining eye of the most curious. He has DENTIFRICE of a very super- ior quality which he has lately prepared and for sale. His residence is in St. Paul's Lane, two doors above the Post-Office. March 13. d6t

Just received from Boston, And for sale at the Bookstore of M. & J. CONRAD & Co. No. 138 Market- street, A REPORT OF THE TRIAL OF THOMAS OLIVER SELFDRIDGE, Esq. On an indictment for Manslaughter, for kil- ling MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, On the public Exchange in Boston, AUGUST 4, 1866. [The lively interest which this extraordinary occurrence had excited in the public mind, called for a full and impartial statement of Facts, both in the development of the testi- mony, and the pleadings which took place at the trial.—This injunction appears to have been fulfilled in the present publication, as it comes from the press, sanctioned by the official reporters of the state and under the super- vision of the court itself. The public are therefore presented with all the documents nec- essary to form a correct understanding of the subject, as well in relation to the unhappy catastrophe, as to the course and operation of the laws in cases of this nature.] AT THE SAME PLACE MAY BE HAD, A CORRECT STATEMENT OF THE WHOLE PRELIMINARY CONVICTION Between Thomas Oliver Selfridge, and Benjamin Austin, (Father of the deceased C. Austin.) BY THOMAS OLIVER SELFDRIDGE. —"He takes my life, "When he doth take the means whereby I live!" [This pamphlet embraces a variety of mat- ter, immediately relevant to the unhappy oc- currence, which deprived Mr. Charles Aus- tin of life; in which the author in vindicating his conduct in this extraordinary affair, is drawn into a retrospective of the general character of Benjamin Austin. In adopting this mode, Mr. Selfridge has given loose to a boldness of aspersions, seldom found in the writings of our best authors, and which reflect great credit on his genius and learning.] Price of the Report, 1 dollar. Price of the Statement, 37 1/2 cents. March 11. d4t

COMMUNICATION. Mr. Printer, The enclosed is a copy of a letter, that came to me by mail, unsolicited: I conceive it a duty I owe the public as well as myself, to give it publicity through the medium of your paper. The writer is a native of Con- necticut, was lately professor of Natural Phi- losophy at Yale College, and is now President of the university of Georgia, and is well known for his universal science. S. H. P. LEE. New-London, March 1, 1867. Athens (Georgia) January 24, 1867. Doctor Samuel H. P. Lee, Sir,

I have, for a considerable time, neglected the performance of a duty which I owe to hu- manity; the declaring to you, my approbation of the Pills, which are sold here, unless your agent, Mr. Herbert, of Augusta. I had been convinced of their virtues before I left Connecticut; and I have found, in this country, their great utility, by a considerable experience, both in my own family, & among the students of the University. I have no hesitation of declaring, that I believe, Lee's (New-London) Pills to be one of the most useful medicinal preparations the world has yet seen; and that they are peculiarly use- ful and beneficial in Southern and Billious Climates. I am respectfully, Yours, J. MEIGS.

The above mentioned Pills are sold at War- ner & Hanna's Bookstore, corner of South Gay and Baltimore-streets; by John Vance and Co. 173, Baltimore-street; who have re- ceived a fresh supply, which they offer whole- sale and retail. March 16. d4t
