PANTHEON.
 The following questions will be discussed at the Polemic society on Saturday next: Can the conduct of general Wilkinson, as stated, be justifiable?
 Is it politic to prohibit the commercial intercourse between this country and St. Domingo?
 Which is the most prevalent passion in the heart of man—the love of beauty, wealth or merit?
 It is to be remarked that, although the three foregoing questions were published for discussion last week, and upwards of an hundred gentlemen were present, but one ventured an opinion. Each question opens a wide field of discussion, and it is earnestly hoped, that on the ensuing Saturday, there will be more speakers present.
 The Polemic Hall has been fitted up for the comfortable reception of ladies who would wish to honor it with their presence.
 Debate every Saturday evening. The chair to be taken at soon after 7 o'clock as the company assemble.
 Doors to be open at half past 6 o'clock.
 Admittance 12 1-2 cents.

By Authority.
AN ORDINANCE
 To prevent nuisances and to enforce useful regulations within the city of Baltimore.
 I. Be it enacted and ordained by the mayor and city council of Baltimore, That the mayor be, and he is hereby authorized to appoint a suitable number of city constables, whose duty it shall be to visit the different parts of the city assigned them and to give information to the mayor or other magistrate, of all nuisances within the same; also of all obstructions and impediments in the streets, lanes and alleys, and of offences committed against the laws and ordinances of the city, and of the names of the offenders and witnesses, to the end that prosecutions may be commenced and obedience enforced to the regulations for the well governing of the city; and generally to do and perform all such other matters and things as the mayor shall reasonably require; and that a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars annually be and is hereby appropriated as a compensation to the said constables for the due and faithful discharge of the several duties prescribed by this ordinance; and the mayor is hereby directed to apportion the aforesaid sum, or any part thereof in such manner as shall appear to him best calculated to carry this ordinance into effect.
 II. And be it enacted and ordained, That there be two superintendants of the streets, one for the East, and the other for the West side of Jones's Falls annually appointed (each of whom shall have and receive the annual salary of four hundred dollars,) whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the mayor to cause to be removed the dirt, filth and manure found in any of the streets, lanes and alleys within the city of Baltimore to convenient places, and there to sell and dispose of the same in such manner and upon such terms, as the mayor shall consider most for the advantage of the corporation; or with the approbation of the mayor to sell or otherwise dispose of said dirt and manure, provided that the same when scraped up shall be removed from said streets, lanes and alleys within twenty-four hours thereafter, if the weather will admit, and neither of the superintendants shall be the owner of any cart that may be employed in the cleansing of the street, or receive directly or indirectly any benefit from the carts employed in removing the dirt from the said streets. And it shall be the duty of the said superintendants to notice and report to the mayor all breaches of the ordinances of this corporation, which shall come to his or their knowledge, and to which they shall diligently attend and inquire, and shall conform to and execute all orders which they shall receive from the mayor or the commissioners of health, conformably to any of the ordinances of this corporation.

 III. And be it enacted and ord'ined, That if any owner or driver of any waggon, cart or other carriage, shall place any such waggon, cart, or other carriage or horses, on any street, lane or alley of this city, so as to obstruct the passage of any other carriage, or shall suffer the same therein to remain when not in use for a longer time than twenty four hours, or a stage for hire longer than twelve, hours such owner or driver shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, the sum of one dollar; and for every twelve hours the said waggon, cart or other carriage or horses shall continue in and any of every of the said streets, lanes and alleys thereafter, one dollar.
 IV. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person shall fire or discharge any gun, pistol or fire-arms within the city, unless it be on some occasion of military parade and then by the order of some officer having the command, every such person for every such offence, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five dollars.
 V. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons shall cast, place or lay, or cause to be cast, placed or laid, any rubbish, oystershells, filth, shavings, stable manure, or offals of his her or their trade, business or occupation, or any rubbish from buildings, cellars, or backyards, fire wood, coal, barrels, hogsheds, boxes, or other packages, wares, or merchandise, or any empty boxes, barrels or hogsheds, in any trough for watering horses or cattle, in any street, lane or alley, of the city of Baltimore, and shall not remove the same on the same day on which any of the above enumerated articles shall be placed, as aforesaid, every such person so offending shall forfeit and pay one dollar, and the further sum of one dollar for each and every day the same shall be suffered so to remain, except the article of firewood, which may remain for forty-eight hours, on such street, lane, or alley, and no longer. And if any person or persons, shall in any manner whatever incommode or obstruct any of the footways of the streets, lanes, or alleys of the said city or the gutters thereof, except in the immediate act of moving or removing merchandise or any other thing in the way of their trade, or business, or for the use of their families excepting flour and spirituous liquors, and such other articles as are to be inspected or gauged under the ordinances of this corporation, and goods exposed by auctioneers for public sale; such goods or articles, however, to be arranged on the pavement so as not to obstruct the passage of said footways from the stone pavement, to his, her or their house, store, cellar, or backyard, or from his her or their house, store, cellar or backyard, to the stone pavement, every person or persons, so offending, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar. And if any person or persons, shall set or place any goods, wares or merchandize, by way of exposing them to sale, in any street, lane or alley in this city, to project more than twelve inches from the wall of his her, or their house or store, every such person shall pay a fine of one dollar; And no person shall place or wheel any wheelbarrow along any of the footways of the streets, lanes or alleys of the city, under the penalty of one dollar, provided, that nothing in this clause shall be construed to prevent any person from using the said wheelbarrow in removing any articles of merchandize, or materials necessary for building or family use, across the said foot ways: And it shall and may be lawful to and for any person employed in building or repairing any house, to occupy one-third part of any street, lane, or alley of the said city, clear of the footways in front of any lot on which such buildings are erecting or repairs making with the materials necessarily used in making such buildings or repairs, until the same be covered or repaired and sixty days thereafter, and no longer, under penalty of forfeiting one dollar for each and every day the same shall be suffered so to remain thereafter, also to use and occupy one third part of such street, lane or alley in front of such lot, with plastering mortar, and other materials necessary for plastering such house or building for ninety days and no longer, under penalty of one dollar for each and every day the same shall be suffered so to remain thereafter.

VI. And be it enacted and ordained, That any owner or owners, consignee or other persons, bringing to market, or having any salted provisions which shall or may be condemned by the inspector thereof as unsound, shall remove the same three miles or upwards from the said city, or to such place as may be approved of by the mayor or a commission of health, within six days after condemnation, under the penalty of two dollars for each and every barrel not removed as aforesaid, and as often as it shall appear to the mayor, from the report of the said inspector, or from the information of any inhabitant of the said city, that such salted provisions ought to be removed in a less time than six days, he shall be authorized to order the same to be immediately removed to the distance aforesaid, and any person neglecting or refusing to comply with such order, shall forfeit and pay two dollars for every four hours, for each and every barrel which shall not be removed as aforesaid.

 VII. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons shall cast discharge, throw or cause to flow into any of the streets, lanes or alleys of the city of Baltimore, or precincts thereof, any foul or nauseous liquor or offensive matter, or shall keep, collect, use or suffer to remain on his, her or their premises, any such nauseous liquor or offensive matter, so as to annoy any of the inhabitants thereof, he, she or they so offending, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, a sum not exceeding five dollars, and a further sum not exceeding five dollars, for each and every day the same shall so remain thereafter.
 VIII. And be it enacted & ordained, That if any person or persons having a hog or hogs in a sty, shall keep the same in such manner, that the stench and filth thereof shall become offensive to, and annoy any neighbor or other person, the person or persons so keeping his, her or their hog or hogs as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence one dollar, and the further sum of one dollar for each and every day the same shall be suffered so to remain.
 IX. And be it enacted and ordained, That no person or persons shall cast, carry, draw out, or suffer to lay any dead horse, or other dead carcase, or any excrement or filth from vaults, privies or necessary houses, in any part of the city, precincts or harbor of Baltimore, except the same be buried in such manner as effectually to prevent any offensive smell, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each and every such offence, together with the expense of removing the same.
 X. And be it enacted and ordained, That the owner or owners of every cart, waggon or other carriage, employed in removing or carrying any sand, dirt, gravel, loam, earth, manure, filth, stone, bricks or coal, over any of the streets, lanes or alleys of the said city, shall have and keep the same in such tight and secure condition, as that such sand, dirt, gravel, loam, earth, manure, filth, stone, bricks or coal, shall not be scattered, or suffered to fall on any of the streets, lanes or alleys aforesaid, under the penalty of one dollar.
 XI. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person shall open, or clean any vault or privy, or cause the same to be opened or cleaned, between the first day of June and the first of October, without permission of a commissioner of health, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay twenty dollars.
 XII. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons, shall sell or expose for sale any oysters in shells, between the first day of June and the first day of September, every person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay twenty dollars.
 XIII. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person shall clean scale or wash any fish, meat, clothes, or any other matter, article or thing, which may be liable to create a nuisance, or render the street, lane or alley, near any of the public pumps in the city of Baltimore, foul and unclean; every person so offending shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five dollars.
 XIV. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any blacksmith or other person, shall, after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eight, cause any horse, mare or gelding, to stand in any of the streets, lanes, or alleys, within the built parts of this city, whilst he is shoeing, or preparing to shoe such horse, mare or gelding, or shall make any fire in any street, lane or alley, to hoop wheels, or for any other purpose, every such blacksmith, or other person, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five dollars.
 XV. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons shall set up any pent house, shed, or wooden awning, in any of the streets, lanes or alleys of this city, or shall set up or fix an awning of canvas or other linen, the railings of which shall not be at least six feet four inches in height from the lower side thereof to the pavement under it, or shall set up or suspend over, or into any of the streets, lanes, or alleys of the city of Baltimore, for any greater distance than twelve inches, any sign post, sign, figure, or device whatever, every person offending in either case shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars, and one dollar for each and every day the same shall so remain thereafter: Provided nevertheless, that Inn-keepers, by permission of the mayor, are excepted from the penalties of this clause, so far as respects signs and sign posts. And all buildings hereafter to be erected within this city, which may have cellars, shall have the cheeks and doors thereof regulated, so that they shall not have a greater descent or grade than one inch, and one half inch for each foot in length, extending from the house or building; and if any person shall refuse and neglect to conform herein, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars, and one dollar for every day thereafter, until the aforesaid regulation is conformed unto.
 XVI. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons shall wilfully break, pull down, hurt or destroy any tree or trees which are now or may hereafter be planted near the kerb or gutter of any of the streets, lanes or alleys in the city of Baltimore, such person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay five dollars for every such offence: Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the city commissioners from removing any tree or trees which they may deem so situated as to obstruct the carriage or foot-ways, or injure any of the public pumps, or any proprietor of a lot or lots from cutting down any tree or trees in front of their own lots or any part thereof.
 XVII. And be it enacted and ordained, That no wooden dwelling house, shop, stable, nor any other wooden building (excepting fire engine houses) shall be hereafter erected within that part of the city of Baltimore which lies west of Jones's falls and north of Barre-street; and if any person or persons shall erect or build or cause to be erected and built, any wooden dwelling house, shop, stable or any other wooden building whatsoever (excepting fire engine houses) upon any lot of ground within the limits aforesaid, he, she or they shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, and the further sum of twenty dollars for each and every month thereafter, until the same be pulled down and removed; and each and every person who shall or may be employed in the building or erecting of any such wooden building, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar each and every day he may be so employed; and no person or persons shall remove any wooden building upon any lot or parcel of ground within the aforesaid limits, or from any part of a lot within the aforesaid limits, to any other part thereof, without the approbation of the mayor, and the consent of the owners of the adjoining lots first had and obtained, under the penalty of fifty dollars, and ten dollars for each and every month thereafter, until the same be removed out of the said limits, or pulled down: Provided, That so much of this section as extends beyond the provisions of the former ordinance, the limits within which wooden buildings shall not be erected, shall not go into operation or have effect until the first day of September next.

 XVIII. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons shall wilfully stop up or obstruct the passage of the water of any common sewer, made, or which hereafter may be made; he, she or they so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars for every such offence.
 XIX. And be it enacted and ordained, That no carter or other person except the superin-tendant of the streets of the city for public purposes, shall dig, remove, or carry away from or out of any of the unpaved streets, lanes, or alleys of the said city, any dirt, earth, sand, or gravel, without a special licence first had and obtained from the city commissioners, with the approbation of the mayor for that purpose, specifying the time when, and place from which the same is to be removed, under the penalty of one dollar for every load of dirt, earth, sand or gravel so removed.
 XX. And be it enacted and ordained, That no person or persons, shall make, dig, or throw up any ditch, drain, trench, gutter, gully or canal, in, through or across any of the streets, lanes, or alleys of the said city, so as to obstruct the passage thereof, without a special licence and permission for that purpose, first had and obtained from the city commissioners, specifying the time when and place where the same is to be done, (excepting the privileges heretofore granted by the ordinance entitled an ordinance to encourage the introduction of water into the city of Baltimore) under the penalty of ten dollars, and the like sum weekly, until the same be removed or permission given as aforesaid.
 XXI. And be it enacted and ordained, That the mayor may be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to grant licences to so many poor persons as to him may appear proper, to permit them to keep tables or benches on the footways or across the gutters of the streets of the city with the consent of the occupiers of the houses before which such tables or benches may be placed, for the purpose of exposing to sale fruit, cakes, nuts and such other articles as have heretofore been customary for persons of that description to sell, and any person keeping such table without such licence shall forfeit and pay one dollar for every day the table may be so kept.
 XXII. And be it enacted and ordained, That full power and authority is hereby granted to the mayor to remit so much of that part of any fine which belongs to the city as to him shall seem just and reasonable, provided always, that nothing in this section shall be construed to extend to cases where the fine imposed exceeds twenty dollars, or to the costs of prosecution in any case; and all fines herein imposed shall be recovered with costs, and when recovered shall be appropriated as follows, to wit, one-half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.

BY THIS DAY'S MAILS.
 BOSTON, March 21.
 The last London papers state, that not only the regular men in all the royal navy-yards are ordered to work double tides, but that fresh gangs of carpenters are sent to all the merchants' yards; and a great exertion was making throughout the kingdom, to equip for sea every kind of vessel calculated to carry troops; and that it was expected attempts would be made on various and distinct quarters of France, while the French had so great an army in Prussia and Poland; and so many Prussian prisoners in France. The French troops which had passed the Order up to December 22 last, amounted to 280,000 men.
 Lord Hutchinson, who commanded the British army in Egypt, is at the H. Q. of the Russian army, in Poland, to see that it amounts to the number stipulated by treaty.
UNCOMMON ACCIDENT.
 The following particulars are mostly extracted from a report of survey of three persons, on oath, appointed to ascertain the fact:—
 The ship Morning Star, capt. M. Hopkins on her voyage from Amsterdam to Boston, having put into Dover, [from which she sailed Sept. 6th] on the 28th Sept.
