

In Baltimore County Court,

January 26th, 1807.
ON application to the judges of the said county court, by petition in writing of John Neale, of said county, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session, 1805, on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John Neale, has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said act; and the said John Neale, having produced to the said court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two-thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said John Neale (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Federal Gazette, every other day, until the fourth day of April next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the Court-House in the said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said fourth day of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Neale, then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.

Signed by order,
WM. GIBSON, Clerk.

In Baltimore County Court,

MARCH 23d, 1807.
ROBERT R. RICHARDSON, an insolvent debtor of Baltimore county, having heretofore applied, by petition in writing, to the judges of the said County Court, praying the benefit of the "act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said Robert R. Richardson having proved to the satisfaction of the said court that he hath resided in the state of Maryland the two preceding years, prior to the passage of the said act; and having been brought before the said court, and discharged from imprisonment, on taking the oath by said act required.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said Robert R. Richardson, appear before the County Court at the Court House in the said county, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the twenty-first day of April next, to answer such interrogatories as may be proposed to him by his creditors; that the said day be, and is hereby appointed, the time for the said creditors to appear and recommend a trustee for their benefit; and the said Robert R. Richardson give notice of the passage of this order (by causing a copy to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city every other day until the said twenty-first day of April next.)

Signed per order,
WM. GIBSON, Clerk.

In Baltimore County Court,

FEBRUARY 2d, 1807.
ON application to the judges of the said county court, by petition in writing of Campbell S. Askew, of said county, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session, 1805, on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said Campbell S. Askew has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said act; and the said Campbell S. Askew at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two-thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said Campbell S. Askew (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Federal Gazette, every other day for three months successively, before the 9th day of May next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the Court-house in the said county, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the said ninth day of May next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said Campbell S. Askew, then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.

Signed by order,
WILLIAM GIBSON, Clk.
