By Authority.
AN ORDINANCE
For the Inspection of Pot and pearl Ashes.
Be it enacted and ordained by the mayor and city council of Baltimore, That all Pot and Pearl ashes which shall hereafter be brought to the city of Baltimore for sale or exportation, shall be inspected and branded in the manner prescribed by this ordinance.
2 And be it enacted and ordained, That a person well skilled in the qualities of Pot and Pearl ashes shall be appointed inspector thereof for the city of Baltimore, who shall not directly or indirectly by himself or any other person or persons for him purchase, or sell, any Pot or Pearl ashes, during the time he continues inspector of the same, on his own account, or upon the account of any other person whomsoever, under the penalty of fifty dollars for every such offence.
3 And be it enacted and ordained, That no person whatsoever shall ship any pot or pearl ashes from the port of Baltimore for exportation, before he shall submit the same to the view and examination of the inspector appointed for that purpose, whose duty it shall be to start the same out of the casks, and carefully examine, try and inspect the same and sort it into three different qualities, if necessary, and shall put each sort or quality by itself into tight casks well hooped and coopered, which he shall distinguish and brand in plain legible letters, by the words "First," "Second," or "Third," quality
"Baltimore" "Pot" or "Pearl Ashes," as the case may be, together with the letters of his name at full length, on each of the casks, and also shall weigh and mark with a marking iron on each cask the gross weight thereof, for which services, and also for the additional service of re-packing the said ashes and putting the casks in mer-chantable order and condition for shipping, and for weighing the same the said inspector shall have and receive twenty-five cents for every hundred weight so inspected; to be paid by the vendor thereof; and if any such cask or cask shall, in the judgment of the inspector, be unfit for shipping, such further cooperation, or such new casks may be necessary, shall be done or made at the expense of the vendor.
4 And be it enacted and ordained, That the said inspector shall not brand any cask containing pot or pearl-ashes, unless the same be sound and tight, twenty-nine inches in length, nineteen inches in diameter at each head, full bound, and made of white-oak staves and heading, or such other timber as the said inspector may judge sufficient; and the said inspector, at the time of starting the said pot or pearl ashes for inspection, shall weigh the cask containing the same, and mark the tare thereon with a marking-iron, under the gross weight in each cask.
5 And be it enacted and ordained, That whenever the inspector shall, on the examination of any pot or pearl ashes submitted to him for inspection, discover any fraud, either by the mixture of stone, lime, salt, or any other improper substance whatever, he shall mark the cask containing such adulterated ashes with the broad arrow; and if any person shall offer or expose for sale any ashes so condemned as aforesaid, for any other than condemned ashes, he shall forfeit the sum of twenty dollars for every cask so exposed for sale.
6 And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person or persons shall ship for exportation any pot or pearl ashes not inspected and branded as aforesaid, such person or persons so shipping or having shipped the same, shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay the sum of fifteen dollars for every hundred weight shipped as aforesaid.
7 And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person shall counterfeit any of the brand-marks aforesaid of the said inspector, or impress or brand the same on any cask of pot or pearl ashes, knowing such brand mark, or impression to be counterfeit, or if any person shall empty any cask of pot or pearl ashes, branded as aforesaid, with intention to put in other pot or pearl ashes for sale or exportation, without first cutting out the said brand marks and submitting it for inspection as aforesaid, every such person being thereof convicted, shall for each offence forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars.
8 And be it enacted and ordained, That in case the said inspector shall by sickness or other cause be rendered incapable of discharging the duties of his office, the mayor shall appoint a substitute or deputy to attend to the same during such sickness or other incapacity as aforesaid, who shall be subject to the same penalties and discharge the same duties as are imposed upon the inspector by this ordinance; and of all fines and forfeitures incurred under this ordinance one half shall be applied to the use of the informer.
