May 14.

For Sale, by private contract, THE HOUSE, my present residence, with ten acres one quarter and twelve perches of LAND. The house is convenient and well finished, having been faithfully built, with all necessary attached and detached offices. The Garden and Orchard contain nearly three acres, planted with the best fruit-trees and flowering shrubs, with a great variety of bulbous and tube-rooted flowers, and a green-house stocked with about three hundred exotics. In the garden are two squares or fifteen beds of the finest asparagus. This property is situated about three-quarters of a mile from Pratt-street market and enjoys a view of the city and surrounding country which may vie with any in America for beauty. It has the advantage of a fine spring of pure water within one hundred yards of the door. The meadow-grounds are in good condition, and the land binds on Saratoga street continued about 720 feet.

Also,
About 17 ACRES of LAND, adjoining the above, divided into 5 Lots, containing from one acre and a half to 4 acres and a half each Lot; each having a fine eminence and spring water. These Lots are perhaps the most eligible in the vicinity of the city, that are or can be offered for sale, all fronting on Saratoga-street about 1500 feet. If the above property is not disposed of by private sale before Monday, the 23d instant, it will on that day be offered at public vendue, on the premises, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, on the following terms: one-sixth of the purchase money will be required in sixty days from the day of sale, the residue payable in five annual instalments, with interest from the time of sale; bonds with approved security, for the payment of the several sums of money will be required, and a deed for the conveyance of the premises will be given on the payment of the last instalment.
For terms apply to Samuel Smythe, who is authorized by me to dispose of the same.

Strayed, on Saturday last,
From the subscriber, living in New Church-street, Baltimore, a COW, about 7 years old; her face and under jaw white; ears, neck, back and sides, red; a white spot on the top of her left shoulder, which extends a little way along the top of her neck; another white spot on the top of her left rump; her belly, upper and lower part of legs and tail, white; the inside of her fore-legs white all the way down; her horns tolerably large, each having a hole bored in it underneath, at about an equal distance from the root to the point; a small piece seems to have been cut off the end of her left ear, which however is not very perceptible.
Whoever delivers her to me, or will give me such information as will enable me to recover her, shall be handsomely rewarded.
PHILIP LAURENSEN.

A Fashionable Disease CURED WITHOUT ANY USE WHATSOEVER OF MERCURY.
NOTWITHSTANDING the many remedies for curing and removing the Venereal disease from the constitution, and without the use of Mercury, which has been frequently pretended, and almost as often proved inefficacious; although the honorable faculty, Docti Medice, have united most generally in declaring no remedy to exist, in their belief, capable of removing the Venereal in all cases without the use of Mercury, which they do not hesitate to pronounce extremely pernicious, and not unfre-quently making the most desperate ravages on the whole constitution, and rendering the state of health ever afterward wretched and miserable; yet, notwithstanding all these objections heaped together, the writer, who has no other interest in the business than such as every well disposed citizen ought to have, and feel for the happiness and well being of his fellow creatures, does most confidently give assurance, that he is positive that there is another remedy, perfectly mild and easy in its operation, and which will effectually remove the disorders in all cases, and to all intents and purposes, as that Mercury will effect the same, but frequently making the most desperate ravages on the health and happiness.

The writer, knowing the disadvantages under which a medicinal specific labors, which makes its appearance (as it were) in Arcano, undertakes to make this important affair known in behalf of the proprietors; and he will neglect no opportunity or justifiable means of making this business as generally known and as extensively useful as possible—the old fashionable, mechanical, precise, and lingering mode of proceeding, in similar matters to the contrary, notwithstanding. Therefore, he earnestly requests those who may need assistance in the complaint alluded to, that they make reasonable application in order to obtain a timely relief—Says a wise and learned gentleman of this country—"Except the hinc pox, (to which this is similar and equal) a discovery so important and so useful to mankind, has not been made in physics during the last century." "It has been more than seventy and seven times tried in America, within two years past, and has ever and uniformly operated, in all cases, to full satisfaction." The specific, which is a pleasant cordial, is nice, and used without any change in diet or mode of living, and with the same intention that a glass of wine is drank.
It is offered, for the first time, for the benefit of the people in this place. Although the particular province of this useful specific is the Venereal, yet, as it effects this point by purifying the blood and cleansing the system, it consequently has great power in removing all those complaints which arise from impurity of the blood.
It will extract the mercury from the blood of those who have made too imprudent use of this "potent destroyer of the human frame" Application to be made at the house, standing in the corner of Granby and Queen streets, on south-east side, leading from the Market to the Point, in the morning before noon, and in evening, where a gentleman, competent to the business, will wait on those who may call, with all possible care and tenderness, in behalf of Doctor Herschel, late resident at London, Paris, and last at Rome.

himself, but he that scorneth, alone shall bear it."

The Grand Master of Malta,

A remarkably fine Jack, brought direct from Malta, by Commodore Rogers, will stand to cover Mares and Jennies during the ensuing season, at Hampton, the country seat of General Ridgely, at the moderate price of ten dollars each, for the season, for Mares, and one hundred dollars for each Jenny.
The Grand Master is now 3 years old, and is allowed by the best judges, to be the largest and handsomest Jack ever seen in this country. To avoid trouble, the money must be sent with the Mares or Jennies.
JOHN GREEN, Manager.
P. S. The best of clover pasturage may be had, but no liability for escapes or accidents.
N. B. In the first advertisement this difference of price between Mares and Jennies was omitted, which palpable mistake is now corrected as above.

A WORK THAT OUGHT TO BE IN POSSESSION OF EVERY MAN.
THE LIFE OF
GEN. WASHINGTON,
By JOHN MARSHALL, Chief Justice of the United States.
Complete in 5 vols. 8vo. with an elegant Portrait, and a variety of Maps; is now ready for subscribers, and for sale, by GEORGE HILL.
The following remarks from a late London publication, attest the high opinion entertained of this authentic and interesting work:
"The public will learn with interest that the literary monument which has long been projected to the memory of the most illustrious character of modern times, is at length completed. No apology can be made for erecting such a monument to him who was the first in war, the first in peace, and the first in the hearts of his fellow citizens: to him who was the founder of a great and prosperous empire, and whose moderation and pure patriotism challenge the imitation of all statesmen. This performance of Judge Marshall has already been distinguished by the most honorable and unequivocal testimonies; it has been hailed as an acquisition to standard literature; and it has been considered as deserving, in point of execution, a place by the side of Robertson's Charles the Fifth, and as unrivalled in the authenticity of its materials, by any work in the entire compass of history and biography."
