For Sale, by private contract.

The HOUSE, my present residence, with ten acres one quarter and twelve perches of LAND. The house is convenient and well finished, having been faithfully built, with all necessary attached and detached offices. The Garden and Orchard contain nearly three acres, planted with the best fruit-trees and flowering shrubs, with a great variety of bulbous and tube-rooted flowers, and a green-house stocked with about three hundred exotics. In the garden are two squares or fifteen beds of the finest vegetables. This property is situated about three-quarters of a mile from Paca-street market, and enjoys a view of the river and surrounding country which may vie with any in America for beauty. It has the advantage of a fine spring of pure water within one hundred yards of the door. The meadow grounds are in good condition, and the land binds on Saratoga street continued about 720 feet.
Also,
About 17 ACRES of LAND, adjoining the above, divided into 3 Lots, containing from one acre and a half to 4 acres and a half each Lot; each having a fine eminence and spring water. These Lots are perhaps the most eligible in the vicinity of the city, that are or can be offered for sale, all fronting on Saratoga street about 1500 feet. If the above property is not disposed of by private sale before Monday, the 25th instant, it will on that day be offered at public vendue, on the premises, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, on the following terms: one-sixth of the purchase money will be required in sixty days from the day of sale, the residue payable in five annual instalments, with interest from the time of sale; bonds with approved security, for the payment of the several sums of money will be required, and a deed for the conveyance of the premises will be given on the payment of the last instalment. For terms apply to Samuel Smythe, who is authorized by me to dispose of the same.
JAMES WIGNELL, Auctioneer.

Sale by Auction.

On TUESDAY, the 26th instant, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, the following real Estate will be offered at auction, at the premises (if not previously disposed of by private contract).
Several Lots of Ground, situated on the Reister's-town turnpike road, a short distance above the French Seminary.
Also,
A piece of Ground fronting 150 feet on Biddle-street, and 150 on Ross-street, which ground will be divided into Lots, or put up entire, as may appear most agreeable to those who wish to purchase. Mr. Michael Riddlemosier (the proprietor) who has a number of other Lots to lease on moderate terms, will show the above property previous to the day of sale.
THOMAS CHASE, Auctioneer.
May 11.

A Valuable Stand for Sale by Auction.

As Mr. Thomas Devet intends removing from the city in a short time, he means to sell by Auction on Tuesday, the 29th June, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, on the premises,
The valuable and well known Stand he now occupies, fronting 25 feet on Market-space, and 60 feet on Swan-street (but better known by the Horse-Market). The improvements are, a good two-story Brick Dwelling House, &c. well calculated for the mercantile business, or a tavern, the ground is in fee simple, the title good, and the terms of payment for the purchase money will be made known at the time of sale, by
THOMAS CHASE, Auctioneer.

A Fashionable Disease

CURED WITHOUT ANY USE WHATSOEVER OF MERCURY.

NOTWITHSTANDING the many remedies for curing and removing the Venereal disease from the constitution, and without the use of Mercury, which has been frequently pretended, and almost as often proved ineffectual; although the honorable faculty, Docti Medice, have united most generally in declaring no remedy to exist, in their belief, capable of removing the Venereal in all cases without the use of Mercury, which they do not hesitate to pronounce extremely pernicious, and not unreasonably making the most desperate ravages on the whole constitution, and rendering the state of health ever afterward wretched and miserable; yet, notwithstanding all these objections heaped together, the writer, who has no other interest in the business than such as every well disposed citizen ought to have, and feel for the happiness and well being of his fellow creatures, does most confidently give assurance, that he is positive that there is another remedy, perfectly mild and easy in its operation, which will effectually remove the disorder in all cases, and to all intents and purposes, as that Mercury will effect the same, but frequently to the great injury of the person's future health and happiness.

The writer, knowing the disadvantages under which a medicinal specific labors, which makes its appearance (as it were) in Arcana, undertakes to make this important affair known in behalf of the proprietors; and he will neglect no opportunity or justifiable means of making this business as generally known and as extensively useful as possible—the old fashionable, mechanical, pretense, and lingering mode of proceeding, in similar matters to the contrary notwithstanding. Therefore, he earnestly requests those who may need assistance in the complaint above alluded to, that they make reasonable application in order to obtain a timely relief—Says a wise and learned gentleman of this country—“Except the line pass, (to which this is similar and equal) a discovery so important and so useful to mankind, has not been made in physic during the last century.”
“It has been more than seventy and seven times tried in America, within two years past, and has ever and uniformly operated, in all cases, to full satisfaction.” The specific, which is pleasant cordial, is free and used without any change in diet or mode of living, and with the same intention that a glass of wine is drunk. It is offered, for the first time, for the benefit of the people in this place. Although the particular province of this useful specific is the Venereal, yet, as it effects this point by purifying the blood and cleansing the system, it consequently has great power in removing all those complaints which arise from impurity of the blood. It will extract the mercury from the blood of those who have made too imprudent use of this “potent destroyer of the human frame.”
Applications may be made at the writer's standing in the corner of Grandy and Queen streets, on south side, leading from the Market to the Point, in the morning before noon, and in evening, where a gentleman, competent to the business, will wait on those who may call, with all possible care and tenderness, in behalf of Doctor Herschel, late resident at London, Paris, and last at Rome.
N. B. “He that is wise shall be wise for himself, but he that scorneth, alone shall bear it.”
May 18.

A WORK THAT OUGHT TO BE IN POSSESSION OF EVERY MAN
THE LIFE OF
GEN. WASHINGTON,
By JOHN MARSHALL, Chief Justice of the United States.
Complete in 5 vols. 8vo. with an elegant Portrait, and a variety of Maps; is now ready for subscribers, and for sale, by GEORGE HILL.
The following remarks from a late London publication, attest the high opinion entertained of this authentic and interesting work:
“The public will learn with interest that the literary monument which has long been projected to the memory of the most illustrious character of modern times, is at length completed. No apology can be required for erecting such a monument to him who was the first in war, the first in peace, and the first in the hearts of his fellow citizens; to him who was the founder of a great and prosperous empire, and whose moderation and pure patriotism challenge the imitation of all statesmen. This performance of Judge Marshall has already been distinguished by the most honorable and unequivocal testimonies. It has been hailed as an acquisition to the literature of the age, and has been considered as deserving, in point of execution, a place by the side of Robertson's Charles the Fifth, and as unrivalled in the authenticity of its materials, by any work in the entire compass of history and biography.”
