Nimrod Maxwell,

Proprietor of the celebrated Sulpher Spring in Adam's county, Pennsylvania, takes leave, on the approach of the season for bathing, & drinking this highly medicinal water, to inform his former friends, and the inhabitants of this and the neighboring states, who may be in quest of health or pleasure, that he is prepared to gratify them in both. His house is in all respects in an improved state, his rooms freshly embellished and furnished with the best Beds, and his cellars replenished with a variety of the choicest Liquors. He promises a plentiful and luxurious Table embellished by the best cooks; and has been at the expence of sinking in the solid Rock, and replenishing with abundance of Ice a cave for the refreshment of his Spring Guests. He will have obliging Waiters, and plenty of them, together with Music for the entertainment of such as delight in that exquisite Treat. The House on the south side of the Bridge, is occupied by Mr. Robert Long, who kept it formerly, and who has fitted it in the best manner for the accommodation of Boarders.

N. Maxwell in this age of puffing, has chosen to content himself with this plain and modest notice, begging his readers to believe that he means to perform even more than he has promised.
