Simpson's Plea for Religion.

In the Press, and will be published by

JOHN HARRIS.

In one octavo volume, bound, Price 1 dollar

50 cents only.

Plea for Religion & the Sacred Writings.

With two Appendices, containing the reasons why the author relinquished his charge in the Church of England.

By the Rev. David Simpson, M. A.

This volume has a pre-eminent claim to the sanction of the public. It contains a mass of Miscellaneous matter, highly interesting, instructive, and convincing. The absurdity of Deism is incontrovertibly evinced; the depravity of Popery is chastised in the tremendous but inimitable fulminations of scripture; the defects of Episcopalianism, are depicted in glowing colors; the beauty, the excellence, the of scriptures, and the necessity of redemption by Christ, are demonstrated by such striking arguments, and by examples so powerful, that whoever must acknowledge its folly and wickedness.

The subscriber offers at private Sale.

A small FARM, in good repair and usefully improved, containing about three hundred acres of Land. It is distant from Baltimore city in the nearest direction about twelve miles and near to the North West Turnpike Road, is well watered, which has been conducted by a ditch to advantage, has about fifty acres of Meadow, great part of which is now in grass; also, a considerable proportion of valuable wood, in a good neighborhood, and adjacent to the estate whereon the subscriber resides.

Also,

Eleven thousand seven hundred acres of Land on Green Spring River (Kentucky) of easy location, consequently preferable to the lands in general in that country; which he will sell at a small price, or barter for goods if more agreeable to the purchaser, for which apply to Mr. WALTER ROE, Broker, South-street, who is in possession of the title papers and will contract for the same; or for terms on the upper Land, apply to Mr. John Taggart, North Howard street, (No. 120) or the subscriber.

A Farm for Sale.

The subscriber offers at private sale, the Plantation whereon he now resides about nine miles from the city of Baltimore, near to the Reisterstown Turnpike Road, being one of the most productive Farms of its size, of any within the same distance of said city. It contains 304 acres, about one fourth in wood, consisting of Hickory, Poplar, Chestnut, White & Black Oak, &c.; the soil particularly adapted to the use of plaster, the greater part of the cleared land is now in a high state of cultivation, most of the fields are well set with red clover, between thirty and forty acres of excellent timothy; there has been raised for some years past, from eighty to an hundred tons of Hay yearly. This place abounds with springs of excellent water, a great plenty of it in almost every field. The improvements are good, and sufficient to accommodate a large family. For further particulars, inquire of Robert Wilkinson, Baltimore, or the subscriber, living on the premises. ROBERT NATHL. CARNAN.

To the Members of the Library Company of Baltimore.

GENTLEMEN,

It is now eleven years since the commencement of the Library Company of Baltimore; in this short period of time, a taste for useful reading, and polite literature, has evidently spread among the young of both sexes. A progression so pleasing in its nature, and beneficial in its effects, which the institution has certainly accelerated, cannot fail of securing, to it, a continuance of protection and patronage.

A Library, formed with a due respect to Religion, and morals, which does not exclude works of genius, and amusement, which contains the most esteemed writings of every country, and the best books on the different arts, and in every branch of science and literature to whose ample stores, all persons may have access at a trifling expense, must rank amongst the most useful, and laudable institutions in society.

To select a Library, in conformity with these principles, calls for the Union of different talents, and various information. It must however be recollected, that although with a limited annual sum, all valuable books cannot at once, be introduced, yet, that in time and successively, all of the greatest value, or importance, which can be procured, may find admission.

With such prospects, the Library company of Baltimore, was instituted, and under the influence of corresponding principles, it has been uniformly and steadily conducted down to the present hour. Believing it to be the wish of the members, to continue to society the advantages of the institution, will it not be considered indispensable?

1. That the directors should not be obliged to apply any part of the monies now annually expended in the purchase of Books to any other object?

2. That the means be provided competent to procure a lot of ground, in a suitable situation on which may be erected, when it shall become necessary, a commodious building, for the deposit of the Books of the Company?

With respect to the first, The Directors would lament the occurrence of any circumstance, that should abridge the annual supply of Books, or the increase of the Library, upon this point, they felt assured they concur in opinion with the great body of Stockholders.

With respect to the second point, they also flatter themselves with a concurrence, for although fixed in their determination to retain the room now possessed by the company, as long (if permitted by its proprietors) as it will serve to contain their books, yet, as the time must come when it will be inadequate to that purpose, the directors consider it prudent and advisable, that the company should be provided against such an event.

A Lot of Ground in a suitable situation, may be now had on reasonable terms. Should the purchase be deferred, who will insure to the company, that we shall be able to get a suitable lot hereafter? The probability is, if we neglect to buy now, that we either cannot be accommodated at market when we cannot longer do without a lot, or must pay, for a convenient situation, an extravagant price.

Acting under these considerations, the directors recently proposed to the company an additional contribution of two dollars per annum, to be paid on each share, for 8 successive years. This proposed contribution, so easy and equal in its operation, which to each member would have amounted to sixteen dollars only, was unanimously agreed to, at a meeting of the company, convened on the 26th May last, but at a subsequent meeting (the concurrence of two being required for its confirmation) from some members misconceiving the object of the measure, & the necessity of making the purchase, at this time, not being felt, or but slightly felt by others, it was rejected by a majority of the few who attended on that occasion.

The necessity of adopting the measure, still pressing upon the directors with undiminished force, they conceive it to be their duty, to call the attention of the company again to the subject, more especially as they cannot permit themselves to entertain a doubt that a revision by men, friendly to the extension of the arts and literature among us, will lead to a favorable result. The following proceedings were accordingly had, at a meeting of their body, held the 1st July instant:

Resolved, That a general meeting of the members of the Library Company be, and hereby is requested, at the Library room, on the 17th of July inst. at 11 o'clock, A. M. in order to determine on the following propositions, which, if then agreed to and confirmed by the company at a future meeting, will become of constitutional force.

1. That every member of the Library Company of Baltimore shall pay annually, in addition to his present annual contribution, the sum of two dollars for eight successive years, which payments may be enforced under the regulations and in the mode prescribed for compelling payments of the said stated annual contributions: provided always, that any member shall be at liberty to advance fourteen dollars in one payment at any time on or before the first annual contribution becoming due, which advance shall be received in lieu of his eight years additional contributions.

2. That the directors of the Library Company of Baltimore, be and are hereby authorized and required to appropriate the said additional contributions or so much thereof as may be necessary to the purchase of a suitable lot of ground, on which may be erected a commodious building for the deposit of the books of the Library when the funds will permit.

William Carman

HAS opened his SLATE YARD, on Spear's wharf, below Smith & Hooper's Bake-house, for the sale of SLATE, of which he has a good supply in readiness for the present season. The quality of the Slate is such that little need be said of it—general satisfaction has been experienced by those who have used it.

Many buildings in this city are covered with Slate that is really rotting, owing to the quantity of clay naturally mixed with it; but the slate here advertised is of the most durable kind, in consequence of the Iron contained in it. Such persons as see it their interest to use an article of acknowledged superiority, may depend on having their orders punctually executed, as W. C. is determined to receive no more than he can fulfil in time agreeably to contract.

The buildings already covered with this slate are as follow:—Mr. Robert Oliver's back buildings in Gay-street; Captain Carr's, on Fell's Point; Philip Little's, Baltimore-street; Henry Payson's, Hanover-street; James Myers's, South-street, and Amos A. Williams's warehouse, on Bowly's wharf.

N. B. The price of the Slate is 10 Dollars per square of ten feet (100 feet superficial measure). The slate is measured when the work is finished, allowing one foot extra in the length of the caves, hips and valleys.

SLATERS will be recommended, if required, that will do credit to the work.

Land for Sale.

About 390 acres of Woodland, from nine to ten miles from Baltimore, on the main road to Elliott's upper Mills: there is a large quantity of timber and wood on this tract; it is abounded by good judges that it will average considerable more cords of wood per acre, than will pay the price I ask for it, as it stands, without any expense or trouble in cutting. The price of fire wood the last winter, with the increasing scarcity of that article on the tide waters, and near Baltimore, it is thought will make this property of great value in a few years, to one that has the money to spare. The whole may be sold together or had in lots, as may best suit purchasers, one half the money will be required in hand, for the other half, two or three years credit will be given. Mahlon Ely, living near the premises, will show the Land; and the terms made known on application to Joseph Townsend, Baltimore, or to

Fifty Dollars Reward.

Runaway yesterday from the subscriber Negro DICK, a slave for life, commonly known in Baltimore by the name of Richard Barnett, a yellow fellow, about twenty or twenty-two years old, and about five feet three or four inches high, stout made. He has taken with him all his clothes, amongst which were one fine blue cloth coat, with yellow buttons, 1 yellow nankeen upper jacket, trimmed all round with blue tape, 1 pair of yellow nankeen overalls, 1 tarpolin hat, the other part of his clothes cannot be so well described. He was born on Fell's Point, and brought up to the brick-making business. He was seen yesterday on the Philadelphia road, carrying a bundle of Clothes, and it is strongly suspected that he is gone to Pennsylvania under an expectation of being set free by the abolition society. I will give 20 dollars if taken within ten miles of Baltimore, and 30 dollars if taken above ten miles and within the state of Maryland, and the above reward of Fifty Dollars if taken out of the state and brought home, but no extra charges.
