William YARD

HAS opened his SLATE YARD, on Spear's wharf, below Smith & Hooper's Bake-house, for the sale of SLATE, of which he has a good supply in readiness for the present season. The quality of the Slate is such that little need be said of it—general satisfaction has been experienced by those who have used it.

Many buildings in this city are covered with Slate that is really rotting, owing to the quantity of clay naturally mixed with it; but the slate here advertised is of the most durable kinds, in consequence of the Iron contained in it. Such persons as see it their interest to use an article of acknowledged superiority, may depend on having their orders punctually executed, as W. C. is determined to receive no more than he can fulfil in time agreeably to contract.

The buildings already covered with this slate are as follow:—Mr. Robert Oliver's back buildings in Gay street; captain Carr's, on Fell's Point; Philip Little's, Baltimore-street; Henry Parsons's, Hanover-street; Jacob Myers's; South-street; and Amos A. Williams's warehouse, on Bowly's wharf.

N. B. The price of the Slate is 10 Dollars per square of ten feet (100 feet superficial measure.) The slate is measured when the work is finished, allowing one foot extra in the length of the eaves, hips and valleys.

SLATEPS will be recommended, it required, that will do credit to the work.

A WORK THAT OUGHT TO BE IN POSSESSION OF EVERY MAN

GEN. WASHINGTON,

By JOHN MARSHALL, Chief Justice of the United States, Complete in 5 vols. 8vo, with an elegant Portrait, and a variety of Maps; is now ready for subscribers, and for sale, by GEORGE HILL. The following remarks from a late London publication, attest the high opinion entertained of this authentic and interesting work:—The public will learn with interest that the literary monument which has long been projected to the memory of the most illustrious character of modern times, is at length completed. No apology can be requisite for erecting such a monument to him, who was the first in war, the first in peace, and the first in the hearts of his fellow citizens: to him who was the founder of a great and prosperous empire, and whose moderation and pure patriotism challenge the imitation of all statesmen. This performance of Judge Marshall has already been distinguished by the most honorable and unequivocal testimonies; it has been hailed as an acquisition to standard literature; and it has been considered as deserving, in point of execution, a place by the side of Robertson's Charles the Fifth, and as unrivalled in the authenticity of its materials, by any work in the entire compass of history and biography. 2aw

On Friday, the 26th June last, the CHARITABLE MARINE SOCIETY of Baltimore held their Annual Meeting for the Election of Officers, when the following gentlemen were duly elected:—

THORNDICK CHASE, President; TIMOTHY GARDNER, Vice-President; THOMAS COLE, Treasurer; JOHN HAMILTON, Secretary; NATHANIEL THOMPSON, Archibald Kerr, Daniel Howland, John Snyder, George Stiles, Managers.

Ten new Members were also elected, which with other necessary business occupying much time, it was ordered by the President, that the Officers, and as many of the Members as choose to attend, meet on the 15th day of July instant, to settle the Pension List for the present year.

By order of the President, JOHN HAMILTON, Secretary. 2aw

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN-away from the subscriber in September last, a Negro Man named LUKE, about twenty-two years old, five feet nine or ten inches high, wide mouth, thick lips, a little inked, walks much on the inside of his feet, and turns his toes considerably out when walking, ready at an answer, and talks much. Also another, called ANTHONY, a likely fellow, who went off on or about the 13th of June last, about 24 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, well set, stammers much when talking, and has a slight eruption in the bottom of his belly. Both of these fellows I purchased lately of the family of the Bowlings, in and near Piscataway, where they have relations, & amongst whom they are probably secreted. I will give the above reward for securing them in jail, so that I get them again, or 20 dollars for either, and pay all reasonable expenses if brought home to Prince George's county, near Piscataway.
