Willam Carman
 HAS opened his SLATE YARD, on Spear's wharf, below Smith & Hooper's Bake-house, for the sale of SLATE, of which he has a good supply in readiness for the present season. The quality of the Slate is such that little need be said of it—general satisfaction has been experienced by those who have used it.
 Many buildings in this city are covered with Slate that is really rotting, owing to the quantity of clay naturally mixed with it; but the slate here advertised is of the most durable kind, in consequence of the Iron contained in it. Such persons as see it their interest to use an article of acknowledged superiority, may depend on having their orders punctually executed, as W. C. is determined to receive no more than he can fulfil in time agreeably to contract.
 The buildings already covered with this slate are as follow:—Mr. Robert Oliver's back buildings in Gay street; captain Carr's, on Fell's Point; Philip Little's, Baltimore-street; Henry Payson's, Hanover-street; Jacob Myers's; South-street, and Amos A. Williams's warehouse, on Bowly's wharf.
 N. B. The price of the Slate is 10 Dollars per square of ten feet (100 feet superficial measure.) The slate is measured when the work is finished, allowing one foot extra in the length of the eaves, hips and valleys.
 SLATES will be recommended, if required, that will do credit to the work.

The prevailing disposition to encourage the progress of Literature—the peculiar favor which St. Mary's College has enjoyed—and the many splendid chances offered to adventurers by the above scheme, induce the managers to anticipate a rapid sale of the tickets. The drawing will commence as soon as a sufficient number is sold to authorize it. The managers have given bond to the state in the penalty of sixty thousand dollars, for the faithful payment of the prizes, which will be paid subject to a deduction of 15 per cent, 30 days after the drawing is finished. Prizes not demanded within a twelve-month from the completion of the drawing, will be considered as a donation to the College.
