MAS opened his SLATE YARD, on Spear's wharf, below Smith & Hooper's Bake-house, for the sale of SLATE, of which he has a good supply in readiness for the present season. The quality of the Slate is such that Tittle need be said of it-general satisfaction has been experienced by those who have used it.

Many buildings in this city are covered with Slate that is really rotting, owing to the quan-tity of elay naturally mixed with it ; but the state here advertised is of the most durable kind, in consequence of the Iron contained in it Such persons as see it their interest to use an article of acknowledged superiority, may desend on having their orders punctually executed, as W. C. is determined to receive no more than he can fulfil in time agreeably to contract. The buildings already covered with this slate are as follow :- Mr. Robert Oliver's back buildings in Gay street ; captain Carr's,

The Curious

Are informed that there is now to be seen at Mrs. Bickham's, No. 2, North Charles-street. a Young LADY, born without hands, and with only three toes, on one foot; who is not so much a subject of wonder and admiration for her great ingenuity and elegance in embroidering artificial flowers fit for framing, and in cutting with rich variety and taste, gen tlemen's watch-papers, as for the peculiar felicity of her disposition and her entertaining style conversation, diffusing gaiety all around her; indeed, her cheerful and sportively enagging aspect at once dispels those painful sensa tions which the deprivation of her limbs excites in the sympathising breasts of her visitors which give place to the most felicitous impressions, resulting in an admiration of the un paralleled good sense and cheerful resignation of this young Lady to her puculiar lot, which she has rendered by her persevering industry spirit and wisdom, a happiness to herself, and very instructive and consolatory example to the world generally, and to her own sex parti cularit.

Large flowers, &c. for sale by the young Lady, at the above place. Admittance, 25 Cents-Children, half price. July 30
