An Infallible Cure for the Tooth Ache.

I know that various opinions exist concerning my advertising the price of curing the Tooth Ache—some say I am joking with the public, others say if I had really discovered a cure for that tormenting malady I ought for the sake of humanity, to make it public, and support the fact by all necessary and convincing evidence: I have taken the advice, and therefore 1st. Declare that I have given my newly discovered Essence of Sulphur, I think to near one hundred different persons who were afflicted with the pain arising from hollow or decayed teeth, and I do not know of one instance where it has failed in producing a cure nor do I believe it ever will, if used according to my directions; for I am persuaded from a knowledge of its nature and effects, that this Essence has power to remove the pain of hollow or decayed teeth, to as great a certainty as water has power to extinguish fire. 2d. I do know that it has no tendency to destroy the Enamel of the Teeth, or injure the gums, but on the contrary believe it will prevent the scurry in the gums, and preserve the teeth from decay. 3d. It may be taken inwardly with safety; I have swallowed it often, and will at any time drink it, to remove the scruples of the timorous. 4th. If ever the above mentioned Essence should fail in producing the desired effect, & the tooth or teeth for which it was taken to cure, should at any future period be extracted, all money received by me for such cures shall be returned and double the sum if required. FRANCIS GUY. Baltimore county, August 10, 1807. Personally appeared Francis Guy, before me the subscriber, one of the justices of the peace for the county aforesaid, and made oath on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that the facts stated above relative to the tooth ache, is just and true to the best of his knowledge and belief. Sworn before JOHN AISQUITH. Baltimore, 7th August, 1807. Certificate of Samuel Vincent, Esq. Justice of the Peace. Some time in the Spring of the present year, I was very much troubled with the tooth ache. I had thoughts of having it drawn; I by chance happened in conversation with Mr. Guy, to whom I related my intention. He advised me to avoid extracting the tooth, as he presumed he had a specific, and requested me to make a trial; when he mentioned this to me, I recollect that I was told by some person that he had cured him of the tooth ache; I determined to give it a trial, and made use of his solution, perhaps three or four times, and have not had any return of it. About three months since a colored girl of mine was also afflicted with the same pain—I sent her to Mr. Guy, who also furnished her with, I presume, the same solution, and after three or four washings, the pain was removed, and no complaint since. SAMUEL VINCENT. Certificate of the Rev. Alexander McCaune. I hereby certify that I was afflicted with the tooth ache from about the first of last March to the beginning of June; at which period I was on my way to the Dentist, when I met with a friend, who understanding where I was going, advised me to go to Mr. Guy, and he would cure me. With much persuasion I agreed to make the trial not believing however, that I derive much advantage (if any) from it. But to my great surprise and satisfaction, I was perfectly cured, by applying his tooth water only twice, since which I have been as free of the tooth ache as I have been at any period of my life. ALEXANDER M'CAUNE. Fell's Point, August 7th, 1807. Certificate of Eli Hewitt. This is to certify, that about four months past, I had a severe tooth ache, for three nights and days without intermission, and by washing my mouth with what Mr. Guy calls his Essence of Sulphur, I obtained immediate relief, and have experienced no return of pain from that time to the present. ELI HEWITT, Market street. We the subscribers, having in both our families, experienced the beneficial effects of Mr. Francis Guy's Essence of Sulphur, as a cure for the tooth ache, feel bound to declare, (judging from what we have witnessed) that we believe it possesses every virtue which the inventor ascribes to it, and that it is a sovereign remedy for this tormenting complaint. NILES & FRAILY, Editors of the Evening Post. Baltimore, August 10, 1807. The respectable names above tender it quite unnecessary to incur the expence of publishing more certificates. The price of cure, one dollar and fifty cents unless the circumstances of the applicant should induce the proprietor to make a deduction. F. G. 212, Market-street, nearly opposite the Indian Queen August 12. 2aw4f

City Hotel,

No. 4, North Gay-street, near Market-street, Baltimore. The subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has re-established the above mentioned house, which is large and commodious, in a central and healthy part of the city, contiguous to the Banks, Auctions, Custom House, and Public Wharves—and which he has fitted up (and will always endeavor to keep) in a state of neatness and convenience, adapted to the entertainment and accommodation of travellers, and agreeable to the gentlemen who may occasionally resort to the house. The bed chambers are clean and airy—the back building is provided with good Stables—a roomy shed for carriages, and a large Billiard Room, with the entrance from Frederick-street. Gentlemen will be accommodated with BOARDING & LODGING, or Board only, by the week or quarter. The best Wines and Liquors will be always kept. F. W. HENCK. August 20. 2aw3w

A Stolen Horse.

The subscriber on the 11th day of June last, swapped a Horse, with a certain person who called himself James Wilson, who appeared to be about 30 years of age, slender made, with only one arm, dressed in a blue coat and raiken pantaloons. His anxiety to get rid of the Horse, induced me to suspect he was stolen, of which I mentioned to him, and in consequence of which he absconded, and has never since returned; but left me in possession of both Horses; I do therefore give this public notice, for the benefit of the owner, and request that he may come, prove his horse, pay the charges and take him away. The horse is a bay, about 16 hands high, with a small blemish in one eye, and a few white hairs in his forehead, trots, gallops, and appears to be about 8 years old. The different editors throughout the continent are requested to insert the above a few times in their papers. WM. W. WANN, On the Great Falls of Gunpowder, twelve miles north from Baltimore. Notice is hereby Given,

That the subscriber intends to make application to the judges of Talbot county court, at the next term thereof, to be held on the 2d Monday of November next, for the benefit of an act of assembly, passed at November session, 1805, entitled "An act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors," and of the several supplements thereto. JOSEPH FIELD. Talbot County, August 3d. 2aw3f

Notice is hereby Given,

That the subscriber intends applying to the judges of Washington county court, at the October term, for the benefit of the insolvent laws, passed in 1805 and 1806. This is a circumstance which the subscriber much regrets, but after having used every exertion in his power to avoid it, he has not been able to succeed. Although he has met with many losses, yet his property at a fair valuation, would still be nearly equal to his debts, but as his creditors have refused to take property in that way, he must submit—he must sacrifice the fruits of 10 years industry—and he still hopes it will be in his power some day, to settle every claim, for he shall always consider himself bound in honor, to pay every cent, if ever in his power.
