

A WORK THAT OUGHT TO BE IN POSSESSION OF EVERY MAN.

THE LIFE OF GEN. WASHINGTON,

By JOHN MARSHALL, Chief Justice of the United States. Complete in 5 vols. 8vo. with an elegant Portrait, and a variety of Maps; is now ready for subscribers, and for sale, by GEORGE HILL.

The following remarks from a late London publication, attest the high opinion entertained of this authentic and interesting work:

"The public will learn with interest that the literary monument which has long been projected to the memory of the most illustrious character of modern times, is at length completed. No apology can be required for erecting such a monument to him, who was the first in war, the first in peace, and the first in the hearts of his fellow citizens: to him who was the founder of a great and prosperous empire, and whose moderation and pure patriotism challenge the imitation of all statesmen. This performance of Judge Marshall has already been distinguished by the most honorable and unequivocal testimonies; it has been hailed as an acquisition to standard literature; and it has been considered as deserving, in point of execution, a place by the side of Robertson's Charles the Fifth, and as unrivalled in the authenticity of its materials, by any work in the entire compass of history and biography." Fifteen acres are now in meadow and thirty more can easily be made, nearly one-fourth of the whole Tract is covered with young thriving timber, the residue of arable Land, superior to almost any in the neighborhood, well adapted to the use of Plaster— and divided into convenient and well watered fields by good fences. Those inclined to view the premises, may apply to Mr. Thomas Darlington, residing near the city, or to friends of the subscriber, JOHNSON, Baltimore county, or the subscriber. N. B. The above described Land will either be sold together, or divided into Lots, as may best suit the purchaser, there being several Springs of good water, and handsome enclosures. August 22. e6m5

Proposals

For Publishing by subscription, a Moral, instructive, Entertaining, Periodical Work, Entitled

The Monthly Magazine;

To contain 56 octavo pages, letter press—well executed, on fine paper—with a copperplate Engraving to each volume. But if the patronage obtained be adequate to the expense, an Engraving will be given with each number, which will add greatly to the beauty of the work without enhancing the price. Consequently, it is expected, that the Editors and Gentlemen of this city will be liberal in attaching their names to the subscription list, in order to enable the publishers to issue the Monthly Magazine in a style commensurate with its object, and the wish of the proprietor. It has been usual for persons soliciting patronage for undertakings of the nature of the present, to deal extensively in promises, the neglect of which has cast a stigma on their successors not easily relieved. This is what the proprietor would carefully avoid. He will take leave just to state, that as the majority, perhaps all, of those who may see this proposal, understand the nature of the work, he esteems it unnecessary to particularize the manner in which it will be conducted, further than that it will be on the plan of the most approved periodical miscellanies in Europe; that will contain Sketches of interesting Biography, detached pieces of History, Extraordinary Productions of Nature and Art, Anecdotes, historical and humorous, in short every thing worthy of note; that at the end of each number will be given, a summary of events of the past month; that a department will be reserved for the use of "The favored of the Muses," and that not only the assiduity of the editor, but the gratuitous and friendly assistance of several gentlemen of literary eminence, will be employed, to render it completely such a publication as the object supposes. The price to subscribers, 20 cents each number, payable on delivery. Subscriptions received at all the Book-Stores in the town and on the Point, at the several Paper Offices and at the Blank Book, Book-Binders, and Stationary Store, No. 11, South street, of Callender and Willis. Baltimore, August 28. 2aw4t

Baltimore Jockey Club.

On Tuesday the 14th day of next October the Baltimore Jockey Club Purse of $300, will be run for over the Club's Race Course, near Gowans' Town: free for any horse, mare or gelding agreeably to the rules of the Club. Also, on Thursday the 15th, a handsome subscription Purse, free for any thing; but the racing to be conducted agreeably to the Rules of the Club, except so far as they relate to merely club matters.
