The subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has re-established the above mentioned house, which is large and commodious, in a central and healthy part of the city, contiguous to the Banks, Auctions, Custom House, and Public Wharves, and which he has fitted up (and will always endeavor to keep) in a state of neatness and convenience, adapted to the entertainment and accommodation of travellers, and agreeable to the gentlemen who may occasionally resort to the house. The bed chambers are clean and airy—the back building is provided with good Stables—a roomy shed for carriages, and a large Billiard Room, with the entrance from Frederick-street. Gentlemen will be accommodated with BOARDING & LODGING, or Board only, by the week or quarter. The best Wines and Liquors will be always kept. F. W. HENCK. August 20. 2aw3w

A Stolen Horse.

The subscriber on the 11th day of June last, swapped a Horse, with a certain person who called himself James Walsh, who appeared to be about 30 years of age, slender made, with only one arm, dressed in a blue coat and nankin pantaloons. His anxiety to get rid of the Horse, induced me to suspect he was stolen, of which I mentioned to him, and in consequence of which he absconded, and has never since returned; but left me in possession of both Horses; I do therefore give this public notice, for the benefit of the owner, and request that he may come, prove his horse, pay the charge and take him away. The horse is a bay, about 16 hands high, with a small blemish in one eye, and a few white hairs in his forehead, trots, gallops, and appears to be about 8 years old. The different editors throughout the continent are requested to insert the above a few times in their papers. WM. W. WANN, On the Great Falls of Gunpowder, twelve miles north from Baltimore. Notice is hereby Given,

That the subscriber intends applying to the judges of Washington county court, at the October term, for the benefit of the insolvent laws, passed in 1805 and 1806. This is a circumstance which the subscriber much regrets, but after having used every exertion in his power to avoid it, he has not been able to succeed. Although he has met with many losses, yet his equity to a fair valuation, would still be nearly equal to his debts, but as his creditors have refused to take property in that way, he must submit—he must sacrifice the fruits of 10 years industry—and he still hopes it will be in his power some day, to settle every claim, for he shall always consider himself bound in honor, to pay every cent, if ever in his power.
