A Stolen Horse.
The subscriber on the 11th day of June last, swapped a Horse, with a certain person who called himself James Wilson, who appeared to be about 30 years of age, slender made, with only one arm, dressed in a blue coat and naked pantaloons. I was anxious to get rid of the Horse, induced me to suspect he was stolen, of which I mentioned to him, and in consequence of which he also confessed, and a never since returned; but left me in possession of both Horses; I do therefore give this public notice, for the benefit of the owner, and request that he may come, prove his horse, pay the charges and take him away. The horse is a bay, about 16 hands high, with a small blemish in one eye, and a few white hairs in his forehead, trots, gallops, and appears to be about 8 years old. Notice is hereby Given,
That the subscriber intends applying to the judges of Washington county court, at the October term, for the benefit of the insolvent laws, passed in 1805 and 1806.
This is a circumstance which the subscriber much regrets but after having used every exertion in his power to avoid it, he has not been able to succeed. Although he has met with many losses, yet his property at a fair valuation, would still be nearly equal to his debts, but as his creditors have refused to take property in that way, he must submit—he must sacrifice the fruits of 10 years industry—and he still hopes it will be in his power some day, to settle every claim, for he shall always consider himself bound in honor, to pay every cent, if ever in his power.
