United State of America.
District of Maryland, SEPT. TERM, 1807.
WHEREAS an information hath been filed in the district court of the United States for Maryland district, by John Stephen, Esq. attorney for the same, against a certain schooner or vessel called Virginia, or otherwise called General Massena, her tackle, furniture, apparel, and guns, praying a condemnation of the same, for that certain persons therein named, did fit out and arm the said schooner at the port of Baltimore, with intent that the said schooner or vessel should be employed in the service of a foreign state, to wit, in the service of the emperor of France and king of Italy, to commit hostilities upon the subjects and property of another foreign prince or state, to wit, upon the subjects and property of the king of United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland; the said United States then being at peace with the said king of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided: And whereas the Hon James Houston, judge of said court, hath ordered and directed Monday, the fifth day of October next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the same day, for holding a court at the court-house, in the city of Baltimore, for the trial of the premises, agreeably to the prayer of the said attorney.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the District Court will then and there be held for the said trial; and the owner or owners, and all persons who may have any interest therein, are hereby cited to be and appear at the time and place aforesaid, to shew cause, if any they have, why a final determination should not pass.
By order of the Judge,
PHILIP MOORE, Clk.

A WORK THAT OUGHT TO BE IN POSSESSION OF EVERY MAN
THE LIFE OF
GEN. WASHINGTON,
By JOHN MARSHALL, Chief Justice of the United States, Complete in 5 vols. 8vo, with an elegant Portrait, and a variety of Maps: is now ready for subscribers, and for sale, by GEORGE HILL.
The following remarks from a late London publication, attest the high opinion entertained of this authentic and interesting work:
"The public will learn with interest that the literary monument which has long been projected to the memory of the most illustrious character of modern times, is at length completed. No apology can be required for erecting such a monument to him, who was the first in war, the first in peace, and the first in the hearts of his fellow citizens: to him who was the founder of a great and prosperous empire, and whose moderation and pure patriotism challenge the imitation of all statesmen. This performance of judge Marshall has already been distinguished by the most honorable and unequivocal testimonies; it has been hailed as an acquisition to standard literature; and it has been considered as deserving, in point of execution, a place by the side of Robertson's Charles the Fifth, and as unrivalled in the authenticity of its materials, by any work in the entire compass of history and biography.

Proposal

OF COLE & BONAL & JOHN VANCE
& CO. BOND publishing
A collection of original Poems,
By GARRETT BARKY, Esquire, Of Baltimore, Attorney at Law.
Nostris nec erubuit Silvas habuisse Thalia

AUTHOR'S ADVERTISEMENT.
Many of the following poems were written before the author attained his sixteenth year.
The public must estimate their merit. The author will not assume to himself so much stoicism as to express an indifference to their fate; but whatever that may be, he will at least have the consolation to reflect, that they do not count in one sentiment hostile to the strictest principles of religion and morality.

The work will be printed on a very superior quality thick post, and a handsome type.
The publishers having determined to spare no expense, subscribers may rest assured the work shall be executed in a style which shall do honor to Baltimore printing.
It being at present impossible to ascertain the extent of the work, the publishers are unable to determine the price at which it shall be sold to non-subscribers; but they pledge themselves that, to subscribers, it shall not exceed 75 cents neatly bound in boards.

The extraordinary encouragement already afforded (more than three hundred names being obtained) has induced the publishers to commence the work. It is now in press, and it is expected will be ready for delivery some time in October.
A list of the subscribers' names will be an-nexed to the work.
Subscriptions received by the respective booksellers, and by the publishers.

A Certain Lady, (Who passed by the name of Anderson) arrived here from the city of Washington, in a hack stage on Thursday evening the 13th instant, and engaged lodgings for herself and two hired servants, in my house; and also engaged two Gray Horses in my Stables, alleging them to be her property. This Lady left my house on Sunday morning last, without giving me any notice of her intention to depart, and left behind her the two servants and the horses above mentioned. I do therefore hereby request that she will come forward and pay her bill, otherwise the horses will be sold at the expiration of 30 days for the account thereof. As it is possible that some accident may have happened to this lady, so as to prevent her return, I shall therefore consider myself obliged to any person

Five Dollars Reward.
Strayed from the stable of the subscriber living at the Buck Tavern, on the road leading from Baltimore to the City of Washington, in America, a mule, in the fork of Patuxent river and near Snowden's old Iron Works, at night, on the 14th inst. a Bright Bay HORSE, five or six years old, fourteen or fifteen hands high—has his mane hogged, has an old wound on the inner-side of his right hind knee joint, which is very notable—it makes the part of that leg very much larger than the same part of his other; and he is branded with two C's on his hind thigh; and likewise the same brands on his fore-shoulder; from the brand, many persons suppose him to have been raised by Charles Carroll of Carrollton. I bought him of Mr. Hugh Lecky, living on Fell's-Point in Baltimore, & he purchased him in Baltimore; he started toward Baltimore, & imagine he has endeavored to get there, or to some one of Carroll's plantations, most likely to Elk Ridge, as he has large Plantation there. To
