The court of inquiry on commodore Barron is ordered to convene, at Hampton, on the 5th of October, captain Alexander Murray, president.

The unusual press of foreign news, which has lately crouded our columns, has compelled u to give less of the proceedings at Rich nond than was intended. But as the importance of these trials demanded that we should not curtail the accounts, we have continued to detail them, as given in the " Enquirer." The jury then retired with the indictment, and after an absence of about twenty minutes, Mr. Orris Payne, their foreman, returned a verdict of " Not Guilty."

Mr. Haythen announced the course which he was n w to pursue-Mr. Burr was not yet discharged from his recognizance for misdemeanor; that it was his intention to move for his commitment to that place for trial where the military expedition is said to have been completed; that he should c mbine in the same motion Messrs. Mr. Burr requested the attorney to alledge the place where the act is said to have been committed. Mr. Hay replied, that the evidence he should introduce would cover a vast extent of territory; that he would name if he could, the very spot. Mr. Burr. The district then? Mr. Hay. I do not distinctly recollect the opinion of the court; but I believe it will be proved that troops were assembled at the m uth of Cumberland river and down the Mississippi to Bayou Pierre in a warlike posture. But it is not my business to locate the scene. It will be the province of the court, after they have heard the evidence, to fix the place where he is to be tried.

Mr. Martin mentioned the case of John Smith, of Ohio; but no arrangement was

Mr. Wickham mentioned the case of Jonathan Dayton. Mr. Hay observed that he did not hink himself justified in entering a nol. pro . as that would discharge him from his recognizance, and he was not certain but some evidence would occur in the course of the examination which would induce him to combine Mr. Dayton in his motion for commitment; that he had no doubt that Mr. Dayton was leagued in the general conspiracy, and if he had had any, the similarity of the hand-writing of the letter he had in his hand (gen. Dayton's) with some he had previously seen, would have satisfied his

Mr. Wickham then proposed, that Mr. Hay should enter a nol. pros. and that gen. D. should continue his recognizance, to which Mr. Hay acquiesced.

The great and good effects of the two Camp-Meetings, held on Mr. Gough's land between Perry Hall and the Long Calm, near the Philadelphia Road, have induced a number of the Preachers of the Gosspel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to hold a third meeting on the same spot; to begin on Thursday, the first of October next, and continue until Tuesday the sixth.
